NEWS OF THE WEEK.

LOCAL NEWS.

GRAND FALLS is troubled with clothes line thieves.

RUNAWAY.—A horse belonging to Mr. Alex. McDermott, ran away on Wednesday, losing one of the waggon shafts.

DROWNED.—John Smith, an Indian, was drowned in Nepisquit River the other day by the upsetting of a canoe.

DR. WADDELL, ex-Superintendent of the Lunatic Asylum, died at Truro, N. S., on Thursday evening.

FOOT RACE.—William Morrison and Jas. R. Dalton, are to run a 400 yard foot race on Mahognay Road on the 25th of Sept. The stakes will be $10 a side.

BASE BALL.—The "Originals," of Fredericton, beat the "Acadians," of Portland, in a match game at the former place on Wednesday afternoon.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A prisoner in the St. Andrews jail named Geo. Kelwain, died suddenly on Tuesday morning last. Kelwain's death is attributed to tobacco smoking.

OVERBOARD.—Thos. Johnston's horse and dump cart went over Hare's wharf on Monday. They were taken out all right, being towed around to York Point slip.

ASSAULT.—Mr. Jas. McCaslin, of Millidgeville, was knocked down and beaten about the face by two roughs, while on his way to his home on Wednesday evening.

BONFIRES.—Samuel Watson, a young man of 17 years, was taken to the Police Station on Wednesday night for lighting bonfires. He was afterwards released.

LOCK-UP DAMAGED.—Samuel Reynolds was incarcerated in the City Hall, Carleton, lock-up, Thursday afternoon. He broke some of the windows and damaged some of the other surroundings.

A GIPSEY, or rather a travelling tin peddler, was dragged out of his waggon on the road between Claremont and Godard's on Monday night, badly beaten and robbed of nearly 40 soveregns.

UPSET.—Sinclair, the Navy Island oarsman fell out of a boat in which he was practising at Courtenay Bay, Monday, and being unable to swim narrowly escaped drowning. He kept himself afloat by hanging on to the craft.

INDECENT ASSAULT.—A young man named Burke, of New York, is under arrest for a charge of indecent assaulting a young woman named Smith, of Metcalf street, Indiantown. He will be tried at the County Court in October.

Cows sometimes wander into the Queen's Square. On Tuesday one dared to graze there and was promptly arrested by a policeman and marched to a livery stable close by. The owner had to pay $3.00 for expenses incurred.

DISORDERLY.—One of a crowd of young men who attempted to break into a house of ill repute on Hazen street, at an early hour Sunday morning, was struck on the head with a rolling pin by one of the inmates. He was dragged away by one of his associates.

COLLISION.—On Thursday afternoon ther was a collision between a rail car and a waggon near Harris' Foundry. The waggon belonged to Messrs. Campbell and Fowler, and was completely demolished. The car was thrown from the track.

ROBBERY.—Thos. Gunn's clothing store, Union-street, was entered some time between Saturday night and Monday morning, and a large quantity of cloth and other articles stolen. John McKeever's shoe shop, Indiantown, was robbed of three pairs of boots one night this week. A drunken man named Michael McAnulty was dragged into a Georges street alley late Saturday night androbbed of a watch and chain.

STRANGE LETTER.—A letter addressed "Geo. Baracs care of J. & W. Shaw Waterloo street, St. John, N. B.," went through the Post Office here on Wednesday. In another hand the following was written upon it: "This letter was taken from the mail and opened by robbers, Ang. 8, 1878. It was found with a number of others near the roadside, 18 miles west of Tuscon, Arizona.

ACCIDENTS.—G. B. Page was thrown out of a waggon in Houlton, Tuesday, and was seriously injured. A son of Mr. Jas. Shaw, of Shaw Bros., Bakers, was badly scalded by a pail of water being upset over him. A little fellow named Furnace, of Pleasant Point, was whittling a stick on Saturday, and a small piece of the shaving entered one of the eyes, causing a great pain. Patrick McCann, of Elm street, while in the act of lifting a barrel of apples off a waggon, was struck by a City horse, knocked down and severely injured. Mr. J. V. Brown, of St. Martins, had his knee fractured by an infuriated bull a few days ago.

PIC-NICS.—The City Cornet Band's Excursion to Moncton on Monday last was quite successful, over 500 persons being in attendance. When the excursionists arrived in Moncton they joined the pic-nicers of St. Bernard's Church Congregation. A very enjoyable time was spent throughout the day. The winners of the games, etc., were as follows:

Gents' Archery—Mr. J. Graham, Moncton, camp chair;
Ladies' Archery—Miss. M. A. Graham, St Stephen, pair china vases;
Foot Race—Richard Irven, Moncton, Gent's satchel;
Standing Jump—Wm. Hanlan, St. John, gent's dressing case;
Three Jumps—Wm. Hanlan, St. John, silver napkin ring;
Hop, Step and Jump—M. McNeil, Moncton, glove case;
Boys' Race—James Fitzpatrick, Moncton, handkerchief case.

The prize cake was won by T. O'Brien of this city.

The day was beautifully fine and the excursionists returned to the city well pleased with the City Cornet Band's excursion and themselves for being so fortunate as to attend.

About 260 persons attended the St. Aloysius Excursion and Pic-nic at Sheffield on Tuesday. The Stmr. "Fawn" carried the party, and proved to be an excellent steamer for the purpose. The day was very fine and the up trip afforded an excellent opportunity for viewing the splendid scenery along the route. The steamer arrived at McGowan's wharf at 1 o'clock and after those who had not their dinners aboard the boat, had disposed of sundry good things they brought with them in baskets, under the shady trees near the pic-nic grounds, the afternoon's amusement was commenced. A party of ladies and gentlemen from Fredericton, including Rev. Father Precilius were present. Much interest was taken in the different games. The winners of prizes were as follows:

Ladies' Archery—1st, Japanese marble topped walnut table, valued at $14,50, Mrs. J. P. McGrory, 2nd, silver plated cruet stand, Miss Sarah McGowan.

Gents' Archery—1st, rifle bore fowling piece, valued at $14,50, Israel Godine; 2nd, opera glasses, John McGowan.

Brace and Bit—Prize, a brace and bit, James Morgan.

Putting the stone—An album, John McCafferty.

Throwing Heavy Hammer—Game bag, John McCafferty.

Foot Race—Meerschaum pipe, Peter Anderson.

Three-legged Race—Set of 10 stereoscopic views, Chas. Power and A. Moore.

Bell Race—Bronze Inkstand, Frank Keenan. In this race the competitors were all blind-folded, and one of the committee rang the bell, and the prize was awarded to the one who caught him.

Pin Race—Gent's dressing case—T. Tierney.

Irish Jig—Violin and bow, J. McCarthy.

Geo. Will Nash, a tall young Sheffieldite, "afraid of nothing" caused much amusement by dancing a country jig and afterwards in a foot race. Two French Lake darkies, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Nighthawk ran two heats for a cash prize, Nighthawk was the winner. This race was the most amusing feature of the afternoon's sport. Shortly after 5 o'clock the pic-nicers left the ground and went towards the river to see the boat race between members of the association, two boats entered. The crew of the green boat was composed of D. Gallion, A. Martin, W. McCready, and T. Ferrie. The yellow boat's crew consisted of P. Nicholson, W. Ramsey, M. McElhinney, and P. Garnet. The course was two miles and a half with a turn. John McCarthy acted as starter and J. McDade, referee. Both boats went of even, the Green having the inside position. When they passed the steamer, which was lying at the wharf 120 yards from the start the Green had the advantage which they maintained part of the course but by bad steering came very near losing it, the Yellow boat making a good course and good prospects of making a first turn when they two shot away out of the course, thus destroying their chances. The Green rounded slightly ahead of the Yellow and a collision occurred, the Yellow claiming foul, but still kept on rowing the race. After both boats got straightened out for the winning post, the race to the finish was exciting, the Green coming in about a half length ahead of the Yellow, and winning a cash prize of $10. At 6.20 the "Fawn" left Sheffield, and arrived at Indiantown at 11.15. Dancing was kept up during the downward trip to music of a string band and the excellent music of the Carleton Serenade Band, which also discoursed music on the up trip and on the grounds. Campbell's Minstrel Troupe, with Billy Linskey as Bones, and Jim Fitzgerald as Tambo, amused the excursionists. There were solos by H. Campbell, D. Cain, A. Moore, J. Fitzgerald, and J. Mathews, a bone solo by Billy Linskey, a double Irish Jig by H. Doherty and A. Moore, and a clog by H. Doherty. Mr. Joseph Fitzgerald and Mr. H. Campbell also sang a duett. Had time premitted the performers were prepared to give a whole show. The audience was quite enthusiastic. In another part of the boat, Miss Mary Coholan, Miss Hannah Sullivan, Miss E. Morgan, and Mr. Jas. Daley, assisted by a powerful chorus, pleased a great number by their vocalistic efforts. It was voted by those who attended, the most successful social affair of the season.

One of the pleasantest affairs of the season will be the Pic-nic of the Father Mathew Association, which will be held on Whelpley's beautiful grounds at Rothesay, Monday next. Magnificent prizes which are on exhibition in the window of Messrs. E. Haney & Co.'s Book store, King street, will will be awarded the successful competitors in the different games. There is to be a ride match, the prize being a silver cup. A horse race will also take place, the horse coming in last to receive a prize of $10. The committee in charge are perfecting arrangements so that those who attend will enjoy themselves. Trains will leave the depot at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m., and will return at 5.30 and 6 25 p. m, sharp.

Look out for a tip top time at the Carleton Serenade Band Pic-nic at the Skating Rink and grounds, Fredericton, Wednesday next. Bryson's full Quadrille Band, in conjuncton with the Serenade Band will furnish music. Suitable prizes will be awarded the victors in the different games. A well supplied refreshment table will be on the grounds. The train will leave Carleton at 8.15 a. m., and returning leaves Fredericton at 6 p. m. Those who wish to remain for the Bonnet Hop held in the Rink that night can do so and come down next day by paying $1 extra. We understand that the proceeds of this, their 6th annual excursion, is to go towards the purchase of new uniforms. Tickets $1.25, each, are on sale at the E. & N. A. R. office, and can be procured from members of the band. Those who attend may rely on enjoying themselves.

FIRES.—There was a slight fire in Mr. McGill's cellar, Acadia street, Portland, Saturday evening. A fire broke out in Kelly & Murphy's Factory, Portland, between 5 and 6 o'clock Tuesday morning, but was promptly extinguished. At half past two o'clock, Thursday morning, Mr. A. H Demill's house, Lancaster, was destroyed by fire. The house was occupied by a man named Ramsay, who narrowly escaped being burned to death. Early Friday morning smoke was discovered issuing from the cellar of Mr. Hill's sportsmen's depot, Market Building. After considerable trouble, an entrance was effected into the cellar and the flames extinguished.

AQUATIC.—The McLaren and Lord crew are matched to row a four oared race at Westfield on Thursday Sept 19th for $400 a side.

P. Wetmore and John Robinson rowed a single scull race on Lily Lake, Wednesday morning. Wetmore won.

Riley will be unable to meet Smith.

Dick Nagle challenged John McLeod of Carleton, for a race in sculls, but McLeod has failed to accept it.

Gilbert and Ellis Ward, of New York, are to row Faulker and Regan, of Boston, a pair oared race for $2000 and the championship of America. The race is to be rowed at Silver Lake, Plympton, Mass., and is to be a three mile struggle.

A match between Hanlan and Courtenay has at last been arranged. The time fixed is Tuesday, Oct. 1st, the distance 5 miles, stakes $2,500 a side. The location is not yet known. Sheriff Harding is to be referee.

Riley beat Kennedy in a 3 mile single scull race at Scipio, N. Y., Thursday.
