NEWS OF THE WEEK.

LOCAL NEWS.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A Mr. Rourke died very suddenly at his residence, Scotch Lake, York Co. on Saturday night last.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Dr. Jas. Walker narrowly escaped being gored to death by a bull at South Bay on Monday.

REV. FATHER BELLIVEAU has been presented by his St. Martin's friends with a beautiful set of silver mounted harness.

A BOILER in Wodman and Miller's Mill, exploded early on Monday morning, but fortunately little damage was done.

BURNED TO DEATH.—Mr. Rearden, his wife and four children were burned to death in their dwelling at Wickham, Queen's Co., on Monday.

AT a meeting of the School Board on Monday afternoon, Jas. H. Moran Esq., took his seat for the first time, replacing Mr. Ruben G. Lunt, who has resigned.

THE CAMPBELL PARLOR MINSTRELS assisted by other talent will shortly give an entertainment in St. Peter's Hall, Portland, for the benefit of St. Peter's Sewing Circle.

CALICO CARNIVAL AND CONCERT.—A fancy Dress Carnival and Promenade Concert will be held at the Skating Rink, on Wednesday 27th inst. A prize of $10 each will be given to a lady and gentleman for the best Calico Costume.

ACCIDENTS.—A young man named Belyea was recently killed in the woods near Sussex, by a tree falling on his head. Mr. Wilson, engineer in Francis' Shoe Factory, had his hand so badly jammed in the engine, on Tuesday, that it was found necessary to amputate two of his fingers. A man named B[illegible], while lumbering for Mc Auley & Son, near the Lancaster Lakes, lately cut himself severely on the head with an axe.

THE CARLETON SERENADE BAND BENEFIT in the City Hall, Carleton, on Monday evening was fairly attended. The performance was nearly the same as that lately given in St. Peter's Hall, Portland. The circle singing was pretty good especially the songs sung by W. Jorrie, D. Cain, H. Campbell and A. Moore. The solos by Mrs. McGuire Miss Cain, Miss McCarthy and H. Campbell's motto song was well received. Billy Linskey's bone solo was encored twice. The farce of "Handy Andy" concluded the performance. A harpist and violinist, as well as the band, played appropriate selections. Prof. Hale and Miss E. Morgan presided in turn at the piano.

FIRES.—The interior of the Sands building, Prince Wm. Street was damaged by fire on Wednesday morning. A building owned by James Pepper on the corner of Brunswick and Regent streets, Fredericton, was badly damaged by fire, Wednesday morning. Last night about half-past ten o'clock a fire broke out in a house next to Warning's blacksmith shop, Indiantown. The alarm did not seem to work right as the engine and hose-cart were on their way to the Skating Rink before they discovered their mistake. When they arrived at the scene of the fire some volunteers who had taken a hose reel from Gunter's barn had the fire under subjection. The roof and upper flat of the building were completely destroyed.

AN AGED WOMAN MURDERED.—On Wednesday a widow woman named Mary Quinn, nearly 70 years of age, was murdered in a one storey house on the road about a mile beyond the Penitentiary. Since last August she has been keeping house for a widower named Crowley who has for a number of years been in the employ of Mr. Thos. Davidson who lives but a short distance away. On the morning on which the murder was committed Crowley started away from the house, between 7 and 8 o'clock, to work. When he returned shortly before 6 p.m. he discovered the woman dead. A narrow axe the handle of which was bespattered with blood was found close to the body. Crowley immediately notified some of his neighbours and after examining the body and premises the party started for the city to give information of the murder to the authorities in the city. They were directed to go to Portland where Crowley was placed under arrest pending further investigation. He was released next morning. A Carleton man named Vaughan has been arrested on suspicion. He was seen in the vicinity of the murder on Wednesday. Several spots which have the appearance of blood were found on his clothing. The authorities believe they have got hold of the right man. The body was brought to the Dead House and an inquest commenced on it, Thursday afternoon.

ST. JOSEPH'S YOUNG MEN'S SOCIETY (CITY).—All our readers will be pleased to learn that the Young Men's Society of St. Joseph has been re organized. This useful institution held its first meeting in the new St. Malachi's Hall, on Monday evening, when the majority of the old members and several new ones were present. The object of this Society is to extend devotion in honor of St. Joseph who is now patron of the Universal Church; although Total Abstinence is not a prominent feature in its constitution, yet we do not hesitate to say that it may do much to advance the cause of Temperance. The members believe in the old proverb, "it is better to avoid a disease than to try and cure it." They recognize the fact that young men will not always spend their evenings at home with their families and they seek to provide them with the means of passing the time profitably and pleasantly. They hope, by preventing young men from frequenting bad company, to do as much to advance sobriety as those organizations which seek to reform the drunkard. At the meetings of the Society which are held every Monday evening, a programme of songs, readings, recitations, and debates by the members is carried out. Although the Society was successful in saving the best part of its library from the disastrous fire on the 20th of June; yet it lost heavily by that event. As soon as circumstances will permit, it is the intention of the members to procure a new book case, and make large additions to their library; and if possible, to open a reading-room by which means the Society, for all practical purposes becomes a night school for young men. To aid the members in their laudable efforts several ladies and gentlemen have kindly consented to take part in a grand musical and literary entertainment which will be held under the auspices of the Society in the Mechanics' Institute, on Tuesday evening, February 26th. As the object is a worthy one, and a fine programme has been prepared we expect to see a large attendance.

"O. M.'S" REPLY TO "A VICTIM."

To the Editor of the HERALD:

SIR,—In my remarks, published in the HERALD a few issues since, I did not dream of practising flattery on the hon. member from this county as accused by that self-sacrificing (?) individual, "A Victim," who on last week appeared in the St. Croix Courier, a paper which to say the least is mean and unmanly in its abuse of the Hon. A. H. Gillmor. Flattery, forsooth! Why should I flatter, or be accused of it, whilst making a fair and candid statement of facts? "A Victim" asks what did ever Mr. Gillmor do for his friends or supporters? I will answer that he did all in his power, which, if appearance is evidence, is considerable, and if every aspirant for place and pelf has not been gratified by receiving it, the policy of the Government is more to blame than that hon. gentleman. It is true those who are and always have been enemies of the present party in power hold the offices of trust and emolument in this county, but until party lines are more distinctly and rigidly drawn than they at present are in this Canada of ours, such may always be the case, without any blame to the individual men [illegible]. It is certainly a pity that [illegible] who styles himself "A Victim" could not be brought from behind the screen and proffered his hard-earned reward an office. There are certainly disappointed expectations behind that brilliant production which appears over the signature "A Victim." Why did not his effervescing brain and wounded sensibilities prompt him to subscribe himself "A Martyr." Certainly he has been, and doubtless he imagines that, if the great Reform party don't deal out the loaves and fishes to his satisfaction, he can, with the co-operation of his strong ally, the Courier, sweep that party from power and obtain from their successors his little desert.

Mr. Editor, this "Bones Scandal" is a fraud, and it is, to say the least, insulting to the intelligence of the people to continue the publication of such trash in that connection any longer. John S. Magee, Esq., of St. Andrews, is always ready to fling a slur at his native country and countrymen, and the origin of this "Scandal" (?) could, I think, be imputed to that gentleman speaking without stretching the truth. It was certainly more the intention of its originator to slur his countrymen than figure Mr. Gillmor's political prospects in this county. Mr. Editor, it was not with the intention of bringing any such venomous creature as "A Victim" to the surface that I addressed my few lines to your paper. However he has entered on the scene and doubtless will treat the electors of Charlotte with a rich mess of slander concerning the hon. member for this county such as only the St. Croix Courier would publish.

The Silver mines in this locality are considered rich by those who are versed in such matters. Col. Green, of the Grand Southern Railroad is at present in New York; making arrangements for procuring the rolling stock of that road and transacting other business in that connection.
