NEWS OF THE WEEK.

LOCAL NEWS.

DEAD INFANT.—The dead body of a new born infant was found tied up in a bundle, Sunday morning, atthe door step of Mr. Jas. McFarlane, Orange street.

OFF THE TRACK.—The locomotive and five cars of the afternoon train from Shediac to St. John, ran off the track at Painsec junction, Saturday afternoon. Cause, displaced switch.

ROBBERIES.—John Hayes, a boarder at Mr. Birmingham's Brussels street, was robbed of $62 by a fellow boarder, Tuesday night. Some unknown persons entered the residence of Rev. Mr. Windyer, rear of Zions Church. Tuesday afternoon and stole a revolver and a silver watch.

FIRES.—A slight fire on the roof of Mitchell's house, Straight Shore, Saturday. A smoke house to the rear of Mrs. Welsh's, Brussels street, took fire on Monday afternoon. The flames were speedily extinguished on the arrival of the engines.

DROWNED.—Wm. Howe, a rattsman belonging to Oromocto, was drowned on Saturday last near Nauwigewauk. On Tuesday a young sailor, Carl Olsen, fell off one of the yard arms of the barque "Mina" near Black Brook, Miramichi, and was drowned, FOOT RACING.—Mr. Wm. Walker, agent for the Napanee Paper Co., is trying to arrange a footrace some time during the season between McIver of Montreal, now in England, or Bell of the same place now in this city. So says the Courier.

LARCENY.—Edward McGuire went around stealing coats, it seems, Thursday afternoon. One of them was identified as the property of Ald. Duffel and was sold to a Mrs. Kirk, on the Barrack Square for fifty cents. Sergeant Owens arrested the culprit.

NEW PAPER.—The Evening Star a daily evening paper, Conservative in Dominion politics, made its first appearance in this city, on Wednesday afternoon. It is issued from the office of Bowes and Perley, Printers, Canterbury street, and promises to be up to the times.

ST. MALACHI'S T. A. R. SOCIETY will at its meeting to-morrow evening, elect a local deputy for the ensuing year, also delegates to represent them at the coming convention of the N. B. Union, to be held in Woodstock.

THE NEW PREMISES of the St. John Temperance Reform Club, corner of Charlotte and Princess streets are well fitted up. The lunch, reading and smoking rooms are admirably managed and reflect credit on those in charge.

PERSONAL.—His Lordship Bishop Sweeny left for the United States by the night train, Tuesday. His Lordship will, we hear, be absent two weeks. Hon. Mr. Anglin and family arrived home on Saturday. Bishop Rogers of Chatham is on a visit to his Grace, the Archbishop of Halifax. Mr. J. E. Lynot, of St. George, will be a candidate for the representation of Charlotte Co. in the Local Legislature.

CARELESS.—By the careless and culpable firing of the cannons on Fort Howe on Saturday last several large panes of glass were entirely broken and others damaged in St. Peter's Hall, Portland. It appears strange that while residents of the vicinity were warned to raise their windows to avoid having them broken, no warning was given the care-takers of the Hall. The authorities should at least make good the loss sustained.

GLOUCESTER IN THE COMMONS.—Advices from Gloucester indicate that K. F. Burns, Esq., will be a candidate for the representation of the County in the Dominion Parliament. Mr. Burns is a fluent and forcible speaker, and in debate handles his arguments with much skill. What his chances are, in the event of Mr. Anglin again offering, those only who know the County thoroughly can fairly say.—News.

THE Ferry Shed at Picasant Point, opposite Indiantown, was broken into the other night and some oats stolen. The ferrymen complain that of late they have been frequently annoyed by unknown parties moving the ferry boats during the night from the places in which they were left. They are determined to prosecute those parties if they can get the necessary information.

THE BOSS EATER.—Bayard Taylor may be the champion gormandizer of the United States; but we have a colored gentleman here, named "Buckwheat" who intimates his willingness to wrastle "hash" with Bayard for the championship. One evening last fall, he ate two gallons of "Irish stew," at the three mile house, and said before commencing he didn't "feel bery hungry" as he'd "jess eaten a hearty supper".—Torch.

Not very likely that a match could be made with Bayard. Better hunt up a home eater and let the editor of the Torch hold the stakes. An eating match would be just the thing.

A PROFANE TELEPHONE.—An enterprising firm in St. John have fitted up a telephone from the down town office to another branch of their business establishment. The other day the head of the firm, a man with a high sense of dignity and propriety invited the Rev.———— to step in and see how the telephone worked. Putting his mouth to the instrument, the proprietor playfully asked "What is the price of flour to-day? Then turning to the clergyman he smilingly said "Now put your ear to it and see what it says." The clergyman smiled and did as requested, while the proprietor stood by to watch the effect. It was astonishing, for to the surprise and amazement of both the answer came back with painful distinctness, "Go to———and find out." The exhibition was abruptly ended, the clergyman took his leave, and the proprietor started to find out who was at the other end of the telephone. He did not succeed in finding out, nor has he done so up to this time.—Sackville Borderer.

QUEEN'S BIRTH-DAY.—There was considerable business stir about the city yesterday notwithstanding the fact of its being a public holiday. Many of course availed themselves of the opportunities offered to spend it in a quiet manner in excursionizing by rail and steamer. The City Cornet Band excursion to Annapolis was well patronized, and their is every reason to believe, the day being fine that the affair was all that was promised. The lovers of the turf had ample opportunities of enjoying the sport prepared for them at Moosepath, in the afternoon. But the generality of our people who have reason to look for public display of some sort on our holidays and are invariably disappointed, the day was passed like some of its predecessors in a quiet way. Not many years since it was customary to have some amusement other than that provided at theatres and race courses, for the masses of the people whose finances would not permit them to spend the day in an extravagant manner, but those good old times are passed and gone and, now in many cases people prefer to work rather than dress up, walk around the streets and gaze at one another. Very little drunkenness was noticeable on the streets yesterday, and but few arrests were made.

THE PORTLAND REFORM CLUB MINSTRELS, made a decided hit in the City Hall, Fredericton, last night. The performance of the "circle" was received with loud applause. The St. John Bros. in their Hornpipe and Fling dances, Sam Thibideaux in Fancy jigs, Bob Hughes in song and dance and Billy Linskey in bone solos "took" immense. The negro sketches and the performances of Tom Adams were received with much favor. The entire performance gave much pleasure to the large audience assembled. The club's orchestra under the leadership of D. W. McMillan was pronounced an excellent one for amateurs.

BAZAAR.—On Tuesday evening the Convent of the Sacred Heart Bazaar was brought to a successful close. The ladies who worked so indefatigably before and during its progress have reason to congratulate themselves that their efforts have been crowned with success. A list of the lotteries and prizes drawn is as follows: Children of Mary's table lotteries first prize, a pair of very handsome cushings, winner, Mr. R. O-Brien, ticket No. 851. A silver butter dish was won by Henry Rannie, Esq., ticket, No. 97. Father McDevitt held No. 24 which drew a five o'clock tea table; a marble top table, No. 139, fell to the lot of Mr. Oliver Emery. R. J. Ritchie, Esq., as the holder of No. 222, rejoices in the possession of a splendid toilet set. Mr. Martin Flanagan, No 319, a pair of handsome worked slippers; P. J. Ryan, Esq., M.P. P. Gloucester, held No. 198, a china tea set; Owen Quinn comes out pretty successfully, he having secured a gray horse with No. 151. Mrs. Jas. Cullin won a picture of the late Pope. Rev. Father Ouellet, a wax cross, and Mrs. Thos. Furlong, wax cross. Lottery, Miss Nash's—Mrs. John Doherty won a handsome toilet set. No. 45, Lottery, Miss Watson's—Mr. Murphy won a wax cross, No. 43. Lottery, Miss McManus,—No. 20, won a prayer book; Miss Lawlor's Lottery,—a handsome Silver Watch, No. 177, Mr. Hugh McElroy.

ACCIDENTS.—Archbald Poole was run over by a carryall on Main street, Portland, Saturday afternoon, and escaped with slight injuries. Joseph Duffy while working in Hutchings & Co., on Monday, had a portion of his skull broken. Jas. Campbell had some of his fingers badly crushed by a heavy stone while working at the new Post Office foundation, Wednesday. Tuesday Jno. & Jas. Vincent while at work on the "Liffey," fell with a staging into the water. They received a ducking and injuries. George Barker, belonging to the Marsh Road, fell off a King Square Shanty, Tuesday morning, and injured his back severely. A lad named O'Neil, belonging to the Straight Shore, had his hand badly cut while working at a shingle machine in Long and Barnhill's mill, Wednesday. A child named Gormley was run over by a double team on the Bridge Road, Portland, on Saturday; injuries severe. On Saturday a man named Burpee while coupling cars on the N. B. Railway had his thumb taken off. Robt. Farrel got his leg caught in a belt in Hilyards little mill, Portland, Monday morning. It was crushed in such a manner that amputation was necessary. The operation was performed by Drs. Christie and Harrison. The cook of the ship "Huron" which is now undergoing repairs on Wilson and McLaughlin's Blocks, Carleton, met with a very severe accident on Wednesday night by falling in the hold on a lot of pig iron. He was removed in a coach to the Marine Hospital. A colored boy got his hand badly lacerated with a saw in Baker's mill, Thursday.

ROBBERY AND ATTEMPTED MURDER.—All day Wednesday there was unusual excitement on Fort Howe in consequence of a deed committed there at an early hour that morning. It seems that some infernal ruffian entered the rear of a house owned by a Miss Helen Welsh, by way of a window and commenced a deliberate ransacking of the lower flat in which she keeps shop. Having "went through" the till, he visited two or three rooms, winding up with a visit to Miss Welsh's chamber. Here he forced open a bureau by means of a large butcher knife which he had seized in his perambulations through the shop. He had made considerable headway with his work before the noise awakened Miss Welsh who on perceiving the intruder cried out. "For God's sake who is there." "I am," says he "make no noise or I'll kill you," at the same time grasping her by the head just as she was about to spring from the bed with a view of making an attempt to sell her life as dearly as she could and if possible alarm the tenants on the upper flat. In this she was foiled for the villain held her down by the head with one hand while with the other he dashed the knife at her throat. With a screech she grasped him by the arm and by lowering her chin she received the thrust on that member making a cut of about four inches. She had her hand also severely cut by grasping the knife in her attempt to ward off the attack. After some further parleying during which the man did not seem to be in any great hurry to retire, Miss Walsh advised him if he did not want to share Vaughan's fate he'd better leave, after telling him he had better get out by the front door. The ruffian at this time heard noise from parties upstairs who freely were roused by the clatter and was about to extricate himself in a cupboard. Grown brave, although bleeding from her wound, seeing he was about to take the advice she offered him, she sprang from bed and making all the alarm possible she had the satisfaction of seeing the villian beat a hasty retreat, and not returning to murder her as she at one time feared. The inmates of the house soon became thoroughly awakened and how they could have managed to sleep so soundly during this trying scene when the woman had screamed many times has been the subject of much comment. Dr. Christie was soon sent for and sewed up the wound. "The man had his cap pulled down over his eyes" she says" and had on a shirt, black coat and black pants," It is the prevailing opinion that the woman knows who he his but refuses to tell. There seems to be grounds for this as she has given two different descriptions of the man to Capt. Rawlings who is busy working up the case. At all events a person guilty of a deed such as recorded deserves a term in the Penitentiary.

St. Malachi's T. A. R. Society.

THE Semi-Monthly Meeting of the above Society will be held TO-MORROW, Sunday Evening, at half past 7 o'clock in St. Malachi's Hall.

A full attendance of the members is requested as the Election of Local Deputy for the ensuing year will take place, also, Delegates to the coming Convention of the N. B. Union at Woodstock, will be decided on at this meeting.

By order,

P. GLEESON, Secretary.

May 25, 1878.

FASHION NOTES.

Moisten the crease in your silk with benzine, and press them ont.

The mantles made of stripes of lace and velvet will be worn again.

Infant's first short clothes should reach nearly to the ankle. Black or buff kid boots buttoned on the side are most worn by small children.

Black cashmere is made up in princesse polonaises, with panels of silk on the side barred with gold braid or the new shaded rainbow braids.

Black grenading, trimmed with knife pleatings and folds of the same, is suitable for deep mourning. The square-meshed canvas grenadine is used.

To use as little lace as possible yet make a pretty trimming, three or four knife pleats are laid then a plain space is left the width of the cluster of pleats.

The bourette gauzes are very handsome with bayadere stripes in India colors, seperated by narrower stripes of thin silk either hale blue, cream or green, that is nearly black.

Climo's ever-popular Photographs, at liberal prices, are made at 13 Charlotte street (Jack's building). His beautiful prize stereoscopic views (all saved) of New Brunswick scenery, and St. John before the fire, can also be had at above address and of dealers.
