NEWS OF THE WEEK.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Catholics of Renous river will hold a pic-nic on the 11th of August.

PICNICS.—The Pic nic of the Irish Friendly society takes place at Fredericton, Aug. 5th.

AQUATIC.—Nagle and Britt are to row a race in the harbor shortly. Stakes $50 a side.

FIRE.—There was a slight fire on the roof of Mr. Clarke's tenement, Saturday evening.

A QUILT containing 9,188 pieces has recently been completed by a Mrs. Norman Morrison of Woodstock.

The St. Peter's Courch, Portland, Sunday school pic-nic will take place at Torryburn on the 12th of August.

ROWDYISM was rampant, Thursday night, Edward Flaglor and Edward Dunlop, two of the fighters assaulted policeman Currie and cut him on the head. They were locked up.

SOME persons wrenched the fire alarm box off the building at the corner of Waterloo and Peters street, Wednesday. Chief Engineer Smith offers a reward of $50 for the capture of the perpetrators.

Remember the Cathedral Pic-nic at Torryburn, Tuesday next. Preparations are being made to make the affair a grand success. Trains will leave St. John station at 10.30 a. m., 12.30 and 2.20 p. m., returning at 4.30 6 and 7 p. m.

FIGHT.—At Indiantown, on Wednesday, a carryall driver named Vincent and another teamster named Darrah got into a dispute about a collision and finally came to blows, Darrah being so cut up and bruised that he had to be carried home.

AT a special meeting of the Portland Town Council held on Tuesday evening, one item in the Town officer's report was the purchase of a lot in Ward 3 or 4 for the transfer of fire engine No. 2 was recommended, the price not to exceed $800; an engine house of brick or wood not to exceed $3000; tenders to be asked for and the immediate erection of the house proceeded with, after the recommendation of a majority of Finance committee has been obtained.

NEARLY HALF A CENTURY.—MANY REMEDIES are good, but DR. HARRISON'S PERISTALTIC LOZENGES EXCELS them all for Costiveness or Indigestion and its results, the prolific cause of ILL HEALTH. They have been before the public for FORTY years, a period long enough to fully test their merits, and the best argument that can be advanced in their favor is the fact that their sale is steadily increasing. TRY THEM and be convinced. See Advertisement in another column.

PERSONAL.—His Lordship, Bishop Rogers of Chatham, accompanied by Rev. Mr. Ricards, the esteemed Superior of St. Louis College, passed through St. John on Wednesday evening on his way home from Madawaska. Rev. T. Bannon, who has been in Halifax for some time collecting for the new buildings, to replace those destroyed by the late disastrous fire in Chatham, is, we learn, meeting with great success. We understand that Father Bannon will shortly visit St. John on a similar errand.

THE Newcastle Advocate says:—

The acceptance of Mr. Adams, of the office of Surveyor General will necessitate his absence from Newcastle very frequently, in consequence of which he will not be able to personally superintend the legal business of the firm of Adams & Lawlor in Newcastle. The junior member, R. A. Lawlor, Esq., has returned from Bathurst for this purpose. On Monday evening last, Mr. Lawlor was entertained by his friends in Bathurst, who honored him with a supper given at the "Dufferin House" on the eve of his departure for Newcastle. About thirty persons sat down to the repast, which was got up in the best style of "Mine host." K. F. Burns, Esq., ex M. P. P., presided. J. E O'Brien, Esq., occupied the chair of the Vice-President.

DOCKRILL'S OPERA HOUSE has been crowded most every evening during the week to witness the entertainment provided there under the management of Mr. John E. Healey. The performers are among the best in the adopted roles and were appreciated as was shown by the attendance each evening. The female minstrels were a big card, although strictly moral, people thought that in the Burlesque that the weather would have permitted them to wear a little more costume. Those who have stayed the show was immoral in some particulars, have not only been mistaken but missed a rich optical and intellectual treat. The present company will play at the matinee this afternoon and will close to-night when a full house should be assembled. Next week there will be a change commencing on Monday night, when some of the most brilliant variety performers in the profession will appear on the boards. Such artists as Jerry Cohan, Lew. Davis, Billy Chase, John D. Griffin, Jas. Mackin, and Dan Nash the New York favorite, as well as the quartette composed of A. C. Welling, H. D. Pelham, E. D. Stanley and J. R. Morris ought to fill the hall every night. Mr. Healey ought to be well patronized as he always brings a first class show down here to cater to the amusement of the people.

FUN.—There is always more or less conviviality on board of a "Judge's Boat." Shortly after the tug Hercules which was so used at the late race, had left Appleby's wharf on her way to Indiantown, Thursday, a large keg of lager beer was brought forward and tapped and those who wished to drink could do so to their heart's content. By the solicition of an M. P. P., backed up by one of our most popular city liquor dealers, an Indiantown darkey, "Charley Hector," was brought to the front. 'Charley' is a very good waiter and makes himself generally useful when occasion requires. But at this time he was outside of more liquor than was necessary and it was thought rare sport to give him a little something more. "Charley" was obliged to drink the lager until he couldn't hold any more. He was also required to make speeches, was shoved about, had eggs flung at him, had a new hat torn to flinders, etc. "Charley" at times thought this rough usage, but he was in the hands of a sportive set who were determined to have fun at somebody's expense. The party waxed charitable and by quite a large sum of money compensated him in part of all events for the sport they were making of him. The darkey became familiar and went around flinging his arms around the liquor dealer spoken off, and a well known shoe dealer, and kissed them. Before the boat touched the wharf at Indiantown a plot was hatched to throw the darkey overboard and fish him out. Hardly had the boat been secured to the wharf when "Charley" jumped ashore. A moment later and he was seen struggling in the water he having been shoved overboard. A pole was reached to him to catch hold off and a young man named Riley plunged into the water to his relief. Some regarded the affair as a shame while the majority thought it an immense joke. However the darkey took it all in good humor. All's well that ends well.

TEMPERANCE.—The regular semi-monthly meeting of the St. Malachi's T. A. Relief Society will be held in St. Malachi's hall to-morrow evening at half past 7 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

A SAD CASE.—Says Thursday's Daily News:

An honest looking young man, about 18 years old, came to the Police Station yesterday afternoon, pleading the release of his mother from the Penitentiary, whither she had been sent for two months for drunkeness, about three weeks ago. He told his reason for coming in a few words. Four small children, he said, were at home in a shanty on the Barrack Green; the little ones were poorly cared for when the mother was at home, but they fared much worse when she was away. The youth, offerd $4 to pay his mother's debt, but the Magistrate would not take the money, and giving him an order for his mother's release told him to take her to sign the pledge, and to do all he could in assisting her to keep it inviolate.

ACCIDENTS.—A newsboy named Hannington was run over by a team on South Market street, Saturday afternoon, but escaped without serious injury. A son of Mr. Dunlavy, Carleton, fell from the frame of his father's house, Saturday last, and was seriously injured. A married man named Hardyman, belonging to Hampton, King's Co., mysteriously disappeared recently and has not since been seen. He had a gold watch and chain and about $1000 in money about him. It is thought that he has been foully dealt with. W. H. Couillard, of Centreville, four miles west of Dorchester, was repairing some part of a planer that was out of order, when his left hand slipped over the roller and it was cut off just above the wrist. Dr. Chandler attended the wounded man, and, finding the forearm fearfully lacerated, amputated the member three inches below the elbow. The accident happened in a small wood and carving factory that he started about a fortnight ago. A son of Mr. M. B. Keith, merchant, Peticodiac, had his leg broken by a carriage running against him. Henry Atkin, of Carleton had his foot badly jammed by a car on the Western Extension Railway, Saturday. Mr. Ed. Hayes of Mill street, was badly injured a few days ago by being kicked by a horse. The Advance says: On Saturday afternoon last, about 4.30 a young man named Daniel Bruce employed in the deal yard of the mill of J. B. Snowball Esq., while engaged in carrying deals, was struck on the back of the head, by a deal which was in the act of being thrown from the pile, the blow inflicting a severe scalp wound. The young man was conveyed to his home, where the wound was dressed by Dr. J. S. Benson. He is now doing well. Policeman Hall, of Portland, while on duty at the Intercolonial Railway Station, Thursday, was struck on the head with a piece of rock, thrown by some rascal. He had to be conveyed home. Ben. Lambert, a Montreal man, while getting on the cars at Riverside, Thursday, had his foot badly crushed by one of the wheels. Mr. Daniel Clark, of Carleton, while at work on the Marsh Bridge, Thurday, severely cut his left leg just below the ankle.

ROSS-HANLAN RACE.

On Thursday, the day appointed for the Ross-Hanlan match, probably not fewer than twelve thousand people were on shore, and on the steamers and crafts, which dotted the Kennebecasis, to witness the great sculling match. But they were doomed to disappointment. It was thought that the wind would subside late in the afternoon and the course would then be in proper condition. The hope was vain. No stillness came over the spirit of the troubled waters, and after a weary wait the steamer's heads were turned homeward to Indiantown with loads of passengers. On shore there was the usual drinking and fighting, and it is even a subject of wonder that no serious accident occured. Another disappointment yesterday. After 1 P. M., the Judge's boat left Indiantown for the scene of the coming race. A large party of excursionists accompanied by the City Cornet Band went up in the Star Fawn. The tug boats, Neptune and G. D. Hunter, were crowded and at half-past two when all the steamers arrived on the course the wind was dying out and the fond hope was indulged that surely a race would take place. Near Appleby's wharf a large crowd were assembled, their numbers being immensely increased by those coming in the train which arrived at 3.10 p. m. At this hour the belief that there would be a race was strengthened by the fact that Ross had been seen making his way to the river with a pair of oars. A little later, the wind stirred up into a brisk breeze destroying the hopes that had been entertained. Along the road, refreshment booths were as numerous as on the previous day their proprietors with sleeves rolled up prepared for business. There was scarcely any drunkenness and rowdyism, a heavy shower rain which commenced to descend about 3.30 no doubt dampened their spirits. It was thought that as soon as the showers would cease that the water would calm, but in this the crowds were disappointed. About half past five there seemed to be no prospect of the race being started and the steamers with the exception of the judge's boat which remained somewhat later, were soon on the way to Indiantown. The great bulk of those who came out by train waited until all hopes of a race were destroyed and then got into town as soon as opportunity offered. Perhaps the race will come off this afternoon.
