NEWS OF THE WEEK.

LOCAL NEWS

BASEBALL.—The Atlantas beat the Resolutes at Halifax, Saturday by a score of 16 to 11.

THE 62nd Battalion Band paraded the streets in their new helmets, Thursday evening.

WE have received Godey's Lady's Book for August from Mr. T. H. Hall, King Street. It is a splendid number and will well repay careful perusal.

A VERY successful exhibition was given in St. Patrick's Hall, Carleton, yesterday afternoon by the pupils.

THE Carleton Reform Club Festival and Fair at the Club House, King Street, Carleton, this week, was very successful.

PIC-NIC.—The annual pic-nic of the Cathedral Sunday schools will take place at Torryburn on Tuesday, July 30th.

THE SIDEWALKS along portions of Main street, Portland, are in a bad condition. Patches have been put on in different places but these do not mend matters much. Better lay down some new deals before accidents will occur.

WASHED ASHORE.—The body of young Moran, drowned a few weeks ago in the harbor, was washed ashore at Patridge Island and brought to town, Saturday.

DROWNED.—A lad named Donnelly fell off Sherman's Wharf, Fredericton, Monday, and was drowned. John Duffy went in to take a bath at Bloomfield, Tuesday evening, and was drowned.

COLLISON.—On Wednesday afternoon, a horse with wagon attached, belonging to a Mr. Crowley, ran away down Main street, Portland, and colliding with a milk wagon caused much damage.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—On Monday night, J. C. Costello, Proprietor of the United States Hotel, was knocked down by two ruffians, badly beaten, and robbed of $8 in money.

FREDERICTON was visited by a violent wind and rain storm, Tuesday afternoon. A small building was thrown down and a 9 year old lad named Wilkes was killed while trying to escape from the wreck, by being struck with a flying board.

BURGLARIES.—Mr. A. McMurtry's store, Portland, was broken into Saturday night, and about $20 worth of goods taken. Some scamp entered premises occupied by Mrs. McCarthy, a poor widow, at St. Andrews, recently and stole a sum of money, bread, butter and other articles.

THE funeral of Mrs. Maher, mother of Councillor Maher, Portland, took place on Thursday afternoon and was largely attended. The pall-bearers were Police Magistrate Tapley, Thos. McIlroy, Esq., Messrs. J. Corkery, Owen McGowan, T. Daly. Sr., and Wm. Carson. Mrs. Maher had attained a ripe old age, being in her 90th year.

FIRES.—On Saturday, slight fires in Moore's Nail factory and Ruddock's house, Straight Shore, were speedily extinguished. A new house owned by a Mr. Treadwell, out the Lock Lomond road, was destroyed by fire, Tuesday morning. W. S. Chapman's saw mill, at Studholm, K. C., was destroyed by fire, Sunday night. On Tuesday night, a Mr. Biglie's house, Fairville, was destroyed by fire. A house at Upper Gagetown belonging to a Mr. Currin was destroyed by fire on Wednesday morning.

FOOT RACES.—Two Moncton Times typos, named Stanley and Boyd, had a foot race, Saturday, for $10 a side, Boyd was the winner. A foot race was run on Wednesday evening, on Gilbert's Lane, between Henry Sheleton and Wm. McKenzie, two Marsh Road "dusters," for $20 a side. The distance was 150 yards and was won by the former, beating his opponent only half a yard. No time taken.

SCOWMEN'S UNION.—At a meeting of this society held in Thompson's Hall, Portland, Monday evening, the following officers were elected:—

John Thompson, President.
Jeremiah Sullivan, Vice do.
R. A. Elliot, Treasurer.
Thos. W. Ramsay, Secretary.

A business committee was afterwards appointed. The society is in good condition.

AQUATIC.—Hanlan the oarsman arrived in St. John, per the American boat, Tuesday evening, and was warmly received by a large crowd of people who had gathered at the wharf to meet him. He is now settled down to training for the race which takes place on the Kennebecasis, Thursday, July 25th. He is quartered at McGowans. As the time approaches for the event the interest deepens. The race is likely to be one of the most exciting rowed in these waters.

LABORERS' ASSOCIATION.—On Tuesday evening the L. B. Association elected officers as follows:

Daniel Donohue, President;
W. M. L. Daley, 1st Vice-President;
Michael Driscoll, 2nd " do.;
James Hurley, Secretary;
John Regan, Treasurer;

Board of Management—Thos. Burns, Bart. Curran, Edward Graham, Timothy O'Brien, Thos. Ferron, Patrick White, Peter Harding, Matthew McPartland, Thos. Sheehan, John Kennedy, Edward Gallagher, and John Donohue.

TEMPERANCE.—At a meeting of the Temp. Cadets of the Immaculate Conception, held in St. Malachi's Hall, on Sunday evening, July 8th, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:—

Robert J. Carleton, President.
John F. Gleeson, 1st Vice-do.
Thos. O'Regan, 2nd do. do.
John L. Carleton, Recording Secretary
Frank A. Anglin, Corresponding do.
James Powers, Financial do.
Patrick Cotter, }
Joseph Carney, } Assist. do. do.
J. N. Slattery. }
William J. Carleton Treasurer.

After the newly elected officers had thanked the members for their support, Messrs. Ritchie and Brawley addressed the meeting, encouraging the members to still keep on with their good work, and, in after year they would then be able to see the fruits it had produced.

The St. Dunstan's T. A. Society has elected the following officers for the ensuing quarter:—

Rev. J. C. McDevitt, Spiritual-Director;
Jeremiah Meagher, Pres.;
Jas. W. Considine, 1st V. P.;
John Bailey, 2nd V. P.;
Thos. L. Martin, Rec. Sec'y;
John E. Perks, Fin. Sec'y,
Patrick H. McGrath, Treas.;
P. Farrell, Librarian;
Patrick Gallagher, Sergt.-at-Arms.

St. Malachi's T. A. R. Society will hold their regular monthly meeting in St. Malachi's Hall to-morrow evening at half-past 7 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

NEW VARIETY TROUPE.—Mr. John E. Healey having engaged the Howard Athaenum Burlesque Company, will open for a season at Dockrill's Hall on Monday, 22d inst. The company embraces the following aggregation of talent: Jerry Cohan, the great Irish Comedian, John M. Burke, Dan Nash and Sadie McGill in serio-comic business. Miss Annie F. Irish, vocalist, Harry Bryant, ventriloquist, the Novello Quartette, John D. Griffin and Clayton & West, song and dance men. The Brass Band and Orchestra here before will be the musicians for the season. A first-class variety troupe, such as named, ought to "take" well.

SLAUGHTER HOUSES.—On Thursday morning Commissioners Marshall, McGee, Drake, Gleeson and Inspector Bustin, accompanied by representatives from each of the city papers with the exception of one from this office, who could not possibly attend, visited the Slaughter Houses left over from their last visit. These belonged to Mr. W. O'Connor and Dimock S. Davis, and are situated on the road to Millidgeville. Everything was found in good order. It must be gratifying to the public to know that the Commissioners are paying so much attention to their interests. The Sec'y-Treas., P. Gleeson, Esq., and Mr. C. H. Bustin, devote a considerable portion of their time to the works. With the exception of one or two slaughter houses, covered carriages are used to convey meat to market. The others are getting carriages built. The Sec'y-Treas. states the men are punctual in making their returns. This system will undoubted prove of great benefit to the city.

The News has been requested to state that the fine Portland Building occupied by Messrs. McDonnell & Mindon is the property of Mrs. Collins, wife of the late Mr. Hugh Collins, and that a weekly paper was entirely mistaken when it mentioned a well-known Portland gentleman as the owner. —Yesterday's News.

The HERALD of the 29th, is the paper referred to above. In the paragraph relating to Messrs. McDonnell & Mindon, by a typographical error, which will often creep into the columns of the best regulated papers, not even excepting the News, their place of business was made to read McIlroy's building, instead of three doors above. We would pass over the error in silence were it not that we learn that Mrs. Collins, the owner of the house, is under the impression that Messrs. McDonnell & Mindon dictated the paragraph to us, thus giving a gentleman credit for owning a building that he did not own. Such, however, is not the case, the error is merely a printer's, and there was not the slightest intention on our part, we assure the lady, to "take away" from her her rights of ownership in that "fine" Portland Building.

MONTREAL ORANGEMEN.—The Orangemen met at their hall yesterday morning at 9 o'clock but did not walk. The mayor was on the ground with a force of police and special constables and prohibited the procession. He afterwards had two Marshalls and a number of Orangemen wearing regalia, arrested. These were placed in jail, bail being refused. Mobs of excited people lined the streets anxious to attack the procession if it had started. At 2 p. m., the Mayor was engaged in dispersing a crowd from the vicinity of the Orange hall. It was feared that serious trouble would take place last night.

We clip the following from the Freeman:

"We confess that we donot see that much immediate advantage is to be expected from such meetings as that which the Catholic Union held this week at Woodstock."

The Bishop, the Catholic clergy and hundreds of the Catholic population must have read this in the Catholic Freeman with some surprise. O, Tempora! O, Mores!

ACCIDENTS.—Fred. Pigeon, employed in Mr. H. Maher's store, Portland, was seriously injured on Saturday last, by being thrown off a waggon in consequence of its striking against a telegraph pole. James Norris, living on Pond Street, was seriously injured on Monday, by falling from a ladder at Reed's Point. A lad named Collins was run over by a sloven on Germain Street, Monday afternoon, and sustained severe injuries. On Monday evening, a Miss Peters and a Mrs. Bell, met with a serious accident near the Intercolonial Railway Station, by being struck with the shafts attached to a runaway horse belonging to Mr. Mitchell, baker. Seely, a workman in Kirk's Mill, Portland, had the toes of one foot crushed by a gang cartriage, recently. The other night an old lady received severe injuries by stepping into that hole in the sidewalk, near the corner of Union and Charlotte Street. On Monday, Henry Logan, of Indiantown, while rafting logs at Millidgeville, cut himself severely with an adze. Mr. and Mrs. Howard while returning from Church at Sussex, Sunday last, were thrown out of the waggon in which they were sitting and were severely hurt. The waggon was also damaged. A son of Policeman Doucett, Portland, was run over by a team, Wednesday, and had one of his legs considerably bruised. A lad named Higgins, was run over by a sloven, Thursday evening, and was seriously hurt. Michael Burke of North Street had his foot badly hurt, Wednesday, by a deal falling on it. Henry Lawrence while intoxicated, Thursday afternoon, fell off South Wharf while the tide was out and hurt himself badly.

Attempted Wife Murder.

A STORY OF DOMESTIC INFELICITY AND REVENGE.

LEWISTON, ME., July 9.—William McLean, who was arrested Saturday evening, for attempt to murder his wife, was bound over to the Supreme Judicial Court in $1000. McLean and wife were married in England, and had been in this country but a few years. They were employed as operatives in the Barker Mill at Auburn, and lived happily until domestic troubles led to a separation, the wife, it is alleged, being unfaithful to her husband. She decided to cross the water to the fatherland, and confided her plan to one Taylor, who had previously known her in England. Taylor perfected all necessary arrangements for the woman's departure, and when driving down Sabattes street with McLean's wife, Saturday evening, McLean, with a revolver in his hand confronted the couple and introduced himself by cold lead aimed directly at his wife's heart. Fortunately, a corset, served as a shield upon which the bullet glanced, only causing a flesh wound.

THE LAST RESORT.—A fire in Bungstown the other day turned a tenant out doors with only five minutes' warning, and when they had secured a house across the way and moved in, the sole stock of furniture consisted of four bed-slats, a wash-bowl, a kerosene lamp and three pillow-shams. A kind-hearted policeman entered, looked aronnd, and said to the busy little woman:

"Did you lose much?"

"All but this," she replied pointing to the pile in one corner.

"And what will you do now?"

"Advertise for boarders, of course!" was her prompt reply. "If you are going down town you might drop an advertisement into the papers for me."

He dropped out.

MARRIED.
