NEWS OF THE WEEK.

LOCAL NEWS.

A new Post Office has been opened at Spurr's Cove.

The I. F. Society Gift Enterprise has been further postponed until April 22nd.

The Victoria Skating Rink opened for the season on Monday evening.

The Christmas Collection in St. Dunstan's Church, Fredericton, amounted to $170.

Rev. P. Bradley, Cape Bald, was in the city Wednesday, on his way home from St. Andrew's.

Fire.—George Connor's Door and Sash Factory, Petitcodiac, was burned on Wednesday evening. Loss $10,000.

On Wednesday, the men in the railway shop, Moncton, commenced work on the eight hours' system.

Brook's Ward Carleton.—We are informed that another public meeting of the electors of this Ward will be held at an early day.

M. Harrison, near St. Luke's Church, Portland, has on hand a choice assortment of Boots and Shoes, which he will sell at bottom prices for cash.

A man named Butler, left Elliot's boarding house, Chipman's Hill, on Saturday last, to go skating on Lily Lake and has not since been heard of. It is supposed that he has been drowned.

Robberies.—On Saturday night last Hugh Bailey was beaten and robbed on St. James street by an unknown person.

On New Year's Eve the store of Mr. Record, Moncton, was entered and robbed of nearly $30.

A Literary and Musical Entertainment, under the auspices of St. Dunstan's Society, Fredericton, will take place on Tuesday evening next. Miss Mary Coholan of this city, will take part in the musical programme.

Drowned.—Michael Minehan, aged 40 years, fell off the Prince Arthur's wharf, Indiantown, on Thursday evening, and was drowned. He is said to have been intoxicated when the accident occurred. His remains were taken to his late home, Pleasant Point, where an inquest will be held to-day.

Carleton Sports.—A number of young fellows enjoyed themselves on New Year's day in Carleton by parading through the streets in a double-seated waggon as Calithumpians, visiting several houses on their way and helping themselves to whatever came within their reach, and causing a grocer to mourn over the loss of some of his geese.

Accidents.—On Monday evening, a cart man named James Hill, fell near his house on Union street and had one of his legs broken. He was conveyed to the Hospital.

A son of Mr. John Christie, Fredericton, had his leg broken on Wednesday night.

A young lad named Munro, belonging to Portland, was stabbed in the back of the head by his father on Saturday evening.

T. W. Daniel, Esq., sustained serious injuries by a fall on New Year's day.

At the ordinations held in the Grand Seminary, Montreal, recently, Rev. Henry Meahan, of the diocese of St. John, was ordained subdeacon. Mr. Michael McKenna, at the same time, received tonsure. The many friends of Rev. Herbert Blodgett, who studied at St. Joseph's College, Memramcook, will be glad to hear that he was ordained priest at the same ordination. Rev. Mr. Blodgett belongs to the diocese of Portland, Maine. At the Quebec Seminary, Mr. Jean Hebert, diocese of St. John, also received tonsure recently.

A movement is on foot in Carleton, which, if successful, will be the means of converting the Mill Pond of that place into a Skating Rink. It is proposed to have gates placed on the raceway and allow the water in the Pond to freeze, by this means giving to the public, free of cost, a first-class skating place. A number of gentlemen have already subscribed, and it is to be hoped that success will reward the efforts of those who have the matter in charge.

St. Patrick's T. A. R. Society, Carleton.—A lecture was delivered in St. Patrick's Hall, Carleton, on Sunday evening last, under the auspices of the above Society, by Mr. Thos. O'Rielly. He chose for his subject, "The Life and Times of John Martin," a distinguished Irishman, and portrayed in very chaste language his early life, his love of justice and fair play, and his admiration of John Mitchell. He referred at length to Martin's many acts of self-sacrifice on behalf of the poor in the County where he resided, of his conviction and transportation for treason and subsequent return to his native home; his unassuming disposition and honesty in all his dealings. The lecture occupied over three-quarters of an hour in delivery, and was listened to with great attention by a very large audience. At its conclusion the Very Rev. Father Connolly passed a high eulogy on the speaker and his lecture. The rev. gentleman said that as Intemperance had died a natural death as far as their parish was concerned, the probability was that for some time, at least, he would not refer to that subject, but would hand it over to the Quakers for burial. He intended, at an early day, to favor them with a lecture on some other subject.

DEATHS.

On Wednesday, 26 inst., Ann, beloved wife of John Condon, aged 31 years, youngest daughter of the late Thomas McGuiggan, leaving a husband and five children to mourn their sad loss.

THE HERALD.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

(From the St. John Telegraph.)

The Weekly Herald, which lately brought the Surveyor General and the Telegraph to book on the subject of the Irish settlements, etc., came to us on Saturday greatly enlarged and improved. It is now a large four-page paper, very cheap at $1.00 a year. It has so far been elevated in tone, and has avoided those illegitimate modes of attracting notice and gaining circulation to which some papers, new and old, resort. The present number contains the beginning of what promises to be a good story, entitled "The Mysteries of Fulton Valence," by Mrs. Beatrice McGowan.

(From the St. John Globe.)

The Weekly Herald appears this morning, as a four-page paper, somewhat enlarged in length and breadth, and with a new head. These changes have made a vast improvement in the appearance of the paper.

(From the St. John News)

The well-edited and newsy Weekly Herald has come out in an improved form, and starts on its next year smilingly.

(From the St. John Freeman.)

The Weekly Herald appeared on Saturday as a four-page paper, and with a new heading. It looks remarkably well.

(From the Chatham Advance)

The St. John Weekly Herald comes to us this week in improved form. It is gratifying to observe such signs of progress in a paper which has adopted a policy of moderation and independence in dealing with almost all matters treated in its columns. The "Mystery of Fulton Valence," which promises to be an interesting story, is commenced in the last number. It is written by Mrs. Beatrice McGowan of Chatham.

[From Rotchford's Daily.]

The St. John Herald comes to us in an improved shape and with a new heading.

[From the Charlottetown Era.]

The St. John Herald comes to us greatly improved in size and appearance. We wish our contemporary success.

CLUB AGENTS WANTED.

THE

WEEKLY "MAIL."

Enlarged to Eight Pages

AND

No Increase in Price.

It is nearly six years since the "MAIL" was established, and during that time it has gradually acquired circulation and influence, which renders it second to no other newspaper in the Dominion. The Publisher takes great pleasure in announcing that he purposes to still further increase this circulation by greatly improving the WEEKLY MAIL during the ensuing year, whereby he hopes to make it

The Great Family Paper of Canada.

Special Editors have been engaged for the various Departments, and no expense will be spared to make the whole paper

INTERESTING AND RELIABLE.

The MAIL will remain true to the principles it has always advocated, and it is intended to make it, by the aid of such additional strength as ample capital can afford, even a more potent champion of the Conservative cause.

All the old departments of News, Political Intelligence and Editorial will be continued with unabated vigour.

During 1878 the following Departments will receive special attention:

Agricultural in its various branches, made specially interesting by a series of prize articles on leading subjects. We propose that our subscribers shall make this a Mutual Improvement Club, and that each one shall add his mite to the general fund of agricultural knowledge.

Our Market Reports will be especially; we will use every means to secure their complete reliability.

Our Literary Department will be a leading feature. Stories both short and continued from the pens of the best authors, and in many cases illustrated.

Our Ladies Department, under charge of Ladies of experience, will, we have no doubt, prove an interesting and valuable feature. Fashions, Household, Culinary Matters, Dress of Children, &c., will be included in this Department.

Health in the Household, under charge of an able medical man, will add to the value of the WEEKLY MAIL.

During the year we will treat our readers to a tour through a portion of Canada, with descriptions of the Homes, Farms, Factories, Natural Scenery, &c. Arrangements are being made for illustrating the WEEKLY MAIL during the coming year. Price as before, $1.50 Per annum.

DAILY MAIL, $5.00 per annum. Special Agents Wanted Everywhere.

dec29 Address, THE MAIL, Toronto.

To Builders.

Sealed Tenders, endorsed "Tenders for City Building," will be received at the Mayor's Office until 12 o'clock, noon, of Tuesday, the 15th day of January, A. D. 1878, for the erection and completion of a Stone and Brick Building for Municipal Offices on the site of the late City Building.

Plans and specifications and all information can be obtained on and after Tuesday, the 15th inst., at the office of Messrs. McKean & Fairweather, Architects, No. 61 Charlotte street.

The actual signatures of two responsible parties willing to become security for the performance of the work, must accompany each tender, without which no tender will be considered. Security to be approved.

The Committee is not bound to accept the lowest or any tender.
