NEWS OF THE WEEK.

LOCAL NEWS.

ESCAPED.—A lunatic named Ryan escaped from the Asylum on Monday.

THE Sackville Gift Enterprise drawing comes off on Tuesday next.

Rev. M. J. McGill, S. S. C. of St. Joseph's College, Memramcook, was in the city this week.

The Forty Hours Devotions commenced in Carleton to-day, Rev. Fr. Larche assisting Very Rev. Fr Connelly.

AUCTION.—On Wednesday morning the Lafferty property on King St. was sold by Mr. Lockhart for $3,025.

INDIANTOWN FERRY.—The highest tender for the lease of the Indiantown Ferry was that of Michael A. Murphy, the amount being $1026.

THIFT.—A young lady making some purchases in the Country Market on Wednesday had a pocket book containing $10 stolen from her.

TEMPERANCE.—The regular monthly meeting of the St. Malachi's T. A. R. Society will be held in St. Malachi's Hall on to-morrow evening.

BURGLARY.—Some time, Saturday night last, James McCormack's store on Peter's wharf was entered and some clothing stolen.

THE St. John River will shortly be clear of ice. The Steamers, Prince Arthur, May Queen and Star, lying at Indiantown. are being fitted up and newly painted for the route.

FOUND DEAD.—A young man named John McLean, belonging to Lake George, York Co., was found dead on the ice in Magaguadavic Lake, Friday, 5th inst.

SCALDED TO DEATH.—A lad named Paterson, Clarence, street, was so severely scalded by the upsetting of a tea pot off the stove on Wednesday that he died on Thursday afternoon.

RECOVERING.—Capt. Kenney who had a palytic stroke on board of his vessel coming up the Bay on Wednesday last, and who was afterwards conveyed to his home on Richmond street, is recovering.

DEAD INFANT.—The body of a dead infant was found in the water closet of Mr. Jas. Byers' house off Goderich street, Portland, Tuesday morning. The mother—a servant girl named Smith has cleared out.

Yetsterday morning at the seven o'clock mass in the Cathedral, His Lordship Bishop Sweeny conferred the following orders, viz; Deaconship; Rev: R. L. Walsh, Archdiocese of Boston; Sub-deaconship, Rev. Mr. Gaynor, diocese of St. John, N. B.

FIRE.—At an early hour on Sunday morning, a barn on Union street occupied as a store house by C. H. Peters was destroyed with a portion of its contents. An adjoining building owned by Mr. P. McEvoy, was damaged considerably.

AT a meeting of the Portland Town Officers Committee held on Wednesday night, constables were appointed as follows: Ward 1, G. Wheaton; Ward 2, H. French; Ward 3, S. Jones; Ward 4, D. Hall; Ward 5, J. Parks.

NEPTUNE ROWING CLUB.—A Special meeting of the Neptune Rowing Club was held in the Maritime Bank Building, Wednesday night. During the past year the expenditure of the Club amounted to $884 of which sum $600 was paid for a boat house. The prospects of the Club for the coming year are most satisfactory.

READY FOR INSPECTION.—Mr. Jas. T. Hurley, Wholesale manufacturer of fine Boots and Shoes of every description, who a short time since started in business at the corner of Union and Smyth streets, has samples of his manufactured goods ready for inspection at the Sample Room in his factory. Dealers would do well to call and examine them.

ACCIDENTS.—On Saturday, a hostler employed in the Waverley house livery stable, on Duke street, was kicked in the face by a horse and had several teeth knocked out. His injuries were so severe that he had to be sent to the Hospital where he previously had been treated for an accident of a like nature. On Thursday afternoon, a lad named Smith was run over by a team on Charlotte street; injuries slight. A ten year old lad named Voto had the fingers of his left hand cut off by a treenail machine in Lynch's ship yard, Portland, on Monday. A lad named McHale fell against a curbstone at the Cathedeal gate yesterday evening and inflicted a severe cut on his head.

ENTERTAINMENT.—A large audience was present in Court's Hall, Indiantown, on Monday night last, at the performance given by the Portland Reform Club Minstrels. The programme which was a first rate one was well carried out, and gave great pleasure to the audience notwithstanding the noise created by some boys who would persist in shouting occasionally, breaking benches, tearing down the stove pipe, etc. Nearly every entertainment held in this Hall is patronized by a class of youths who seem to glory in showing how uncultivated they are, and whose violent outbursts no committee or policeman can suppress. We have every reason for believing, the quality of the performance being considered, that the Minstrels will be greeted with full houses wherever they many appear. They will show at the Mechanics' Institute on next Monday night, when under more favorable circumstances they cannot fail to draw forth that applause they really deserve. Besides the performance of the circle, the dancing of the St. John Brothers, S. Thipideaux and Master Connolly, the bone solo by W. Linskey and the selections by the orchestra, under the leadership of D. W. McMillan deserve particular mention.

GRAND GIFT CONCERTS.—The season of Grand Opera to be inaugurated in this City on April 22nd and which will continue for two weeks under the management of Mr. Nannary, in aid of the I. F. Society, is one of the principal topics of conversation in our midst, and judging from what we have heard of the superb musical talent engaged and all the other arrangements made in connection with this grand affair we will have at least one opportunity offered us in witnessing "English Opera" presented in our city in a similar manner as these brilliant Musical Creations of the great composers are produced in the large cities of England and the United States. New and beautiful scenery will be painted expressly for the occasion; the costumes we are informed, will be gorgeous and elegant, the orchestra of a superior order, in a word the entire affair will be complete in every respect. Apart from this extraordinary attraction in itself which alone is worth five dollars, (the price of one ticket) there is $16,000 to be given away in prizes in sums ranging from $5,000 to $5. The sale of tickets during the week has been exceedingly large and the chances are that in a few days the last one will be disposed of. Intending purchasers should make a note of this and secure a ticket while this opportunity is yet within their reach.
