NEWS OF THE WEEK.

LOCAL NEWS.

CRICKET is to be renewed in Fredericton.

THE PROMENADE CONCERT, in the Rink, Thursday night, was quite successful.

THE Sussex Cornet Band is to have a Pic-nic at that place, on Dominion Day.

THE New Police Building will be ready to be occupied, July 1st.

DROWNED.—A lad named McKay, fell into a Chatham slip, on Tuesday, and was drowned.

CONCERT.—The Children of Mary, Sacred Heart are making preparations for the holding of a grand Concert, in St. Malachi's Hall.

FIRE.—A shanty, belonging to Mr. John E. Turnbull, on Main street was partially destroyed by fire, Saturday afternoon.

The St. Croix Courier says:—"The house of Mr. Thos. Sinclair in the Parish of St. James, with nearly all its contents was destroyed by fire on Saturday 8th inst, Mr. Sinclair was absent at the time and all that was saved was a portion of wearing apparel, a bed and half a barrel of flour."

VAUGHAN, the murderer of Mary Quinn, will expiate his crime on the gallows this morning at half past 7 o'clock. The arrangements are such that the execution will be witnessed by but few persons.

PERSONAL.—R. Marshall, Esq., M. P. P., celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of his marriage at his summer residence, Hampton, Wednesday night.

STONES from a blast at the Custom House damaged the top of a carriage belonging to Mr. Joseph Scammell, Wednesday. A lady and child in the carriage narrowly escaped injury.

THEFT.—Ed. Butt, teamster, was arrested, Thursday, for stealing a load of flour from the rear of Mr. T. Kennedy's, South Wharf. The case will come up, Monday.

SUDDEN DEATH.—John Leary who had previously been subject to fits was found dead at his home, Pond street, Tuesday morning.

THE new Exhibition Building, Fredericton, will be started on Wednesday next. It will be completed in the F. P., it is thought The City of Fredericton contributed $4000; York County $2900; Government $4000.

THE evidence taken in the Rawlings investigation case was read over by the Town Clerk at a special meeting of the Portland Town Council last evening. The reading commenced a few minutes after 8 o'clock and at 11.15 was not finished.

BURGLARY.—On Monday night, burglars attempted to break into [illegible] & Bowman's store, North Wharf. The attention of the police was directed to the place by the breaking of glass, and the parties made their escape without securing any booty.

RIPE STRAWBERRIES.—A lady in Grand Manan, has sent the editor of the Bay Pilot St. Andrews, a box containing strawberries. He states that Grand Manan is ahead in strawberries and tenders his thanks but regrets that the box was so small and the berries so few.

ON Sunday night a team owned by a Mr. Burpee, of Carleton, was left standing in front of Mr. Duffy's liquor store, Portland. Two Main street youths availed themselves of the opportunity of enjoying a free drive, and, jumping into the carriage, drove off. The carriage was found elsewhere: and warrants issued for their arrest, but they decamped to the States.

A FRAUD.—A young man named Jerry Donovan representing himself as an agent of Murray's Circus has been "doing" some of the Bangor people during the week. While in this city he obtained money and goods on false pretences but made his escape before the law could clutch him.

On the 30th ult., at the Grand Seminary, Montreal, orders were conferred on the following gentlemen:—Deaconship, Rev. H. Meahan, of the diocese of St. John; minor orders, Mr. M. McKenna, St. John, and Mr. W. Carry, of the diocese of Chatham; tonsure, Mr. J. Walsh, St. John, and Mr. J. Maillet, Chatham.

A SWAP.—Shortly after dusk the other night an intoxicated man crawled into the bushes near Lilly Lake and went to sleep. When he awakened he found that his feet were encased in an old pair of boots instead of the "brand" new pair he had on previous to his nap. He inquired very an xiously of a passing party if they had seen any suspicious people lurking about. He has not since been able to find out who effected the exchange.

THE NEW POST OFFICE.—The contract for the building of the new post office has been signed by the Ottawa contractors, Messrs. Jones, Booth and Dodridge. The iron work of the building, which is a seperate tender, has been awarded to R. Flaherty & Co., of this city. The building is to be completed and ready for occupation in December, 1879.

AQUATIC.—Richd. Nagle and John Nicholson, two of our promising young scullers, were to have a meeting last night to arrange a race in the harbor shortly. Hugh Campbell intends to challenge somebody soon. He may be seen almost daily practising in a shell, on Lilly Lake. "Myer" Logan, Straight Shore, is getting a four oared boat in trim for the coming 4th July regatta in Boston. The crew spoken of to man the craft are Lord, Lyons, Britt and Logan. Henry Swift, St. Andrews, has issued a challenge to Alex. McElwee, of the same place, for a single scull race on July 1st., for $10 a side.

PIC-NIC.—The Catholics of Moncton will have a Pic-nic on the beautiful grounds of Peter McSweeny, Esq., Dominion Day. An excursion train will leave St. John Station for Moncton at 7 a. m, returning in the evening. The sports and amusements will be of the usual nature, and a well-supplied refreshment table will be on the grounds. The tickets will be placed at $1.75—less than half the usual fare to Moncton. Great preparations are being made by an active committee to make the day a pleasant one for those who attend, if the weather be propitious. It is expected that a large crowd will go from here. An excursion to Moncton at this season, particularly, will prove enjoyable.

THE Daily News Says, in reference to Portland's proposed New Catholic Church: "Several members of the Advisory Committee, and the Secretary, Mr. H. B Smyth, met at the Bishop's Palace on Tuesday night. The Committee agreed to allow His Lordship to decide as to the site of the new Church. Mr. David Lynch, of the Advisory Committee, stated that he would subscribe $600 towards the new church and said he felt satisfied that other members of the Committee would give similiar amounts or more. His is a splendid donation and his remarks were well received by the other members of the Committee present."

TEMPERANCE.—St. Mary's Society, Cork Settlement, has elected the following officers for the ensuing six months:

John Donovan, President;
Mich. Donovan, Vice do;
Wm Murphly, Rec. Sec;
Dan. Donovan, Fin. Sec;
John Murphy, Treas.;
Thos. Donohue, Sergt.-at-arms;

D. F. Crowley was re-elected Local Deputy for the ensuing year. Mich. Donovan was appointed delegate to the Woodstock Convention. The ex-officio delegates are D. F. Crowley and Dan. Donovan.

The seventh annual Convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of this Province will be held on the first of July next in Woodstock. This Union has during six years been the means of gathering together the Catholic young men of the Province, and by moral suasion endeavors to keep them from the habit of indulging in strong drinks, the cause of so much misery and wretchedness to many. We hope the convention about to be held will be largely attended by representatives affiliated to the body and that by thoughtful active and wise counsel it may be productive of much good. The Convention will be called to order on Monday evening July the first in Saint Gertude's Hall, Woodstock. On the following Tuesday morning the delegates will attend the Mass of the Convention after which they will re-assemble in St. Gertrude's Hall, and the regular business of the Convention will be proceeded with. Any information concerning the establishing of Societies or new admissions into the Union, may be obtained on application to any of the officers or to the Cor. Secretary, Mr. J. P. McGrory, Portland,

SUDDEN DEATH.—Early last Sunday morning, a sailor named Napleson died very suddenly at Mr. Costigan's boarding house, York Point,—cause of death supposed to be congestion of the lungs. At the Coroner's Inquest held on the body, Monday evening, the jury returned a verdict of "death by the visitation of God."

On Thursday morning, a Mr. Jemison, died suddenly while stepping out of his carriage on the Quaco road.

Mr. A. Mundee, a Brussel street liquor dealer, died unexpected, Wednesday morning.

LAYING OF CORNER STONES.—The corner stone of the Bank of New Brunswick, was laid on Tuesday, without any imposing ceremony; that of the Portland Methodist Church was laid on Wednesday afternoon by Lieut Gov. Tilley with appropriate ceremonies, and that of the Odd Fellows Hall, on the corner of Union and Peel streets, on Thursday afternoon, by the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the Maritime Provinces, Gilbert Murdock, Esq. The City Cornet and 62nd Battalion Band of this city, and the 71st Battalion Band, Fredericton, discoursed music for the procession, which was witnessed by a large number of persons. On Thursday the ceremony of laying the corner stone of St. Michael's Cathedral, Chatham, was performed by His Excellency Mgr. Conroy assisted by the Bishops of St John, Chatham, Arichat and Charlottetown, assisted by a large number of clergy from the several dioceses. A despatch to the Globe says:—

"The prelates and clergy, followed by the Christian Brothers and pupils, and a very large concourse of people, went in procession from the Hotel Dieu to the pro-Cathedral, in course of erection, where Mass was celebrated by the Right Rev. Dr. Cameron, assisted by the prelates and clergy. After Mass, a forcible, magnificent and eloquent discourse was preached by His Excellency, Mgr. Conroy, from the seventh chapter of the Gospel of St. Luke, verses 1, 7. Immediately afterwards an address was presented to His Excellency in the name of the Catholics of the Diocese of Chatham, to which he most appropriately and eloquently replied. The procession then re-formed, proceeding to the site of the new Cathedral, where the corner stone was laid according to the touching and beautifully symbolic ceremonial of the Catholic Church. From the steps of a gorgeously decorated altar, canopied by a splendid arch of evergreens, His Excellency imparted the Papal benediction to the kneeling multitude. All then partook of refreshments amply provided in the basement of the new pro-Cathedral by the ladies of the congregation. The occasion will long be remembered by the people of Chatham.

ACCIDENTS.—An engine driver on the Western Extension, named Callaghan, got his foot caught in the cow catcher, Sunday night, and had several toes broken. John Tiernay fell on the railroad track, near the Round House, Saturday night, and got his forehead badly cut. A lad named Payne had one of his legs injured, Monday evening, while attempting to jump on a cart. At Mace's Bay, Charlotte Co., a few days ago, Mr. and Mrs. Whalen, were thrown out of a carriage. Mrs. W. was severely injured. On Tuesday night, two children belonging to Mr. Joseph McKinnon, shoemaker, Sussex, were severely burned by the upsetting of a kerosene lamp. A little girl named Stanton was knocked down by a horse on Main street, Portland, Tuesday night and sustained severe injuries. Mr. Collins, South Bay, was thrown out of his wagon, by his horse taking fright, Wednesday. He was severely hurt. His Lordship Bishop Sweeny who returned from Chatham this morning met with an accident at that place while driving to the train that might have proved more serious than happily it is. We understand that the horse attached to the carriage in which His Lordship was being driven to the station became frightened, overturned the wagon, which was considerably damaged, and threw the Bishop to the ground. Fortunately no bones were broken, but His Lordship received quite a severe shock, and feels some pain in the arm on which he fell. We are pleased to know that Bishop Sweeny is now quite comfortable and will very soon have recovered from the results of the accident. W. H. Keltie, Union street, was thrown out of a waggon on Sydney street and was badly hurt. A little girl was knocked down and badly bruised by the pony team of Murray's Circus while passing the Golden Ball corner, Thursday. Noman Kendrick, a workman in Black's Mill, Weldford Station had his right leg badly cut by a saw. A young man named Burke of the Straight Shore accidentally cut himself with a shoe knife in a down town factory, Saturday.

A young lady named Gordon, present at the ceremony of laying the corner stone of the Portland Methodist Church, Wednesday, fell into a fainting fit.
