At the Hamilton Regatta which took place yesterday Geo. H. Hosmer of Boston won Wallace Ross was second, and Plaisted third. Wallace has been sick lately and no doubt this circumstance accounts for his being unable to obtain first place.

STRIKE.—Last Saturday afternoon the carryall drivers on the Market Square were on strike in consequence of being obliged to submit to more stringent regulations with regard to what portion of the Square they shall occupy. The strike only lasted three hours.

NARROW ESCAPE.—A countryman named Pierce while passing St. Luke's Church, Portland, yesterday afternoon, narrowly escaped being killed. Cause—a passing cow got frightened and butted the waggon; the horse took fright and ran away throwing Pierce out on his head.

BRUTAL.—On Wednesday afternoon a woman named Drummond, rushed into the Portland Police Station bleeding profusely from the throat. She stated that her husband had beaten her and attempted to tear out her wind pipe with his teeth. Drummond was subsequently arrested and at the request of his wife, bail was refused. On Thursday he was fined $20.

ACCIDENTS.—Mellissa Blizzard, an employe in Vincent & McFate's shoe factory, Union street, narrowly escaped death by her hair being caught in the shafting of the establishment, Monday afternoon. Flaglor and Dunlop were assisted by a girl named Lena Sheppard. When the case came up for hearing on Monday, McPherson would not prosecute. So to settle the affair Flaglor and Dunlop pleaded guilty, and were fined $10 each. Sheppard was fined $20.

THE NEW R. C. BUILDING.—Bishop Rogers' new building is rapidly approaching completion. A large portion of the plastering has been done, and part of the outside received a coat of paint. Owing to some delay in receiving the composition, part of the roof immediately over the Brothers' appartments is not yet finished. The work on the chapel was sufficiently far advanced to permit the sevice being held there on Sunday last. The Bishop certainly has performed a great task in the face of all the difficulties, to produce so fine a structure in so very short a time. This although sometimes spoken of as buildings is, while covering space enough for many, in reality only one building after all, comparing the pile with the generality of buildings in this section of the country one is impressed as he wanders from point to point, by a sense of its magnitude, and the harmony and adaptability of design for the various uses intended. After you have climbed to the roof upon a fine morning and reached the Cupola, a view of as grand a stretch of mountain and river scenery is presented to your view as can be obtained on any river on the continent.

It is altogether probable that before winter sets in the building will be again peopled as it was a year ago.—Gleaner.

AN EFFORT TO PROCURE A CHEAP SHIRT.—A young man from the City went over to Portland the other night with the intention of procuring a shirt without paying for it. He entered a store on Main street and after enquiring the price of shirts had several shown him. He said he desired something stylish and wanted to know if there was a retired corner in the store where he could try it on. "I want it to fit me," he said, "because after to-night I will not wear it again for seven years." After an inspection of half an hour he found one suitable, and having a set of studs placed in it appeared happy. While the clerk was tying up the articles he struck a dramatic attitude after the manner of Joe Morgan in "Ten nights in a bar-room while in the delirium tremens and grabbing the clerk by the shirt collar he exclaimed. "Don't you see the snakes writhing. Take them away. My doom is sealed. For the last 24 hours I stood out under a pelting rain storm to escape from their fangs. Now, the time of vengeance has come." He turned to go out of the shop with the bundle under his arm when he was reminded that the shirt and studs had no been paid for. His maniacal gestures departed as he exclaimed. "This parcel is mine I've just paid you two dollars for it." But the game wouldn't work and the tramp departed.

PIC-NIC—The Carleton Serenade Band will pic-nic at Fredericton, some time in September.

Look out for a jolly time at the St. Aloysius Association pic-nic, which will take place at Sheffield, on Tuesday next. Beautiful prizes, which will be awarded the victors in the different games, are on exhibition in Messrs. McCafferty & Daly's window, King street. In addition to the Carleton Serenade Band, a string band will be in attendance. Secure your tickets in time.

The Excursion of the City Cornet Band and Picnic of St. Bernard's Congregation of which Rev. Father Foley is the much respected Pastor, will be sure to attract a large number of people who are anxious to spend a pleasant day in the country. The annual gatherings under the auspices of the Band have always passed off successfully, and it is believed from the arrangements made that this year it will be even more successful than any previously held. At all events, those who attend may rely on it that nothing shall be spared to secure their comfort.

The Father Matthew Association will hold their pic-nic at Rothesay, on Monday, September 2nd. The programme of sports arranged for the occasion is varied and attractive. The Rothesay hall, and beautiful groudds adjoining, which are very suitable for pic-nic purposes, have been secured. Excellent committees have charge of the affair and it is intended to make this one of the most popular pic-nics that have been held this season.

The Carleton Catholic pic-nic, on Wednesday, was a complete success. Over two thousand persons attended. The refreshment tables were very well patronized. The Ladies' Archery prize was won by Mrs. Murry. Alfred Dodge and Charles Quinton carried off the prizes in the Gents' Archery. The Foot Race was won by Peter Anderson, The Boat Race was the principal attraction. Three boats started, as follows: Sand Cove boat—Robert McLaren (bow), Geo. McLaren, Wm. McLaren, James McLaren (stroke); colors, white shirts and red caps. Carleton Boat—James Lord (bow), Edward Craig, John Lyons, George Lord (stroke); colors, grey shirts and pink caps. Straight Shore boat—John Creary (bow), Alexander Brayley, George Britt, Absolom Logan (stroke); colors, pink. The McLaren crew were the winners, Lords second and Logan's third. The arrangements for taking people from the grounds were very bad, many women and children being compelled to walk from the grounds to the floats, a distance, of, some say, three miles. This was the only disagreeable feature of the whole affair, and was probably the fault of the railway authorities.

There will be a pic-nic at French Village, (above Fredericton) on Thursday, Sept. 3rd. It will be held under the auspices of he Catholic Temperance Society there.

The Reception to the Premier and Finance Minister—Liberal Meeting at the Rink.

The Premier and Finance Minister reached this city on Wednesday evening, by special train, accompanied by Mr. Brydges. Besides the Minister of Customs and Mr. Weldon, but few other persons were present to receive them. The Ministers were at once driven to the residence of Mr. Burpee.

On Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, an address signed by Mr. A. C. Smith, as Chairman, and Mr. Lockhart, as Secretary of the Liberal Committee, was presented to Mr. Mackenzie and Mr. Cartwright, to which both gentlemen briefly replied. In the evening a grand mass meeting was held at the Rink, there being probably between four and five thousand persons present. The chair was taken at half-past seven o'clock sharp, by Mr. A. C. Smith, who introduced the Premier. Mr. Mackenzie spoke for two hours and a half and received a very good hearing, except when he said anything derogatory to either Messrs. Tilley or King, when he was hissed and for some time after doing so it was difficult for him to obtain a hearing. He was followed by Messrs. King and Tilley, who, judging from the loud and hearty applause which greeted them on advancing to the front of the platform, particularly Mr. Tilley, appeared to have the majority of the meeting in sympathy with them. The time alloted these gentleman to speak was one hour and a half and their remarks were necessarily brief. Mr. Tilley explained his acceptance of the Governorship and utterly denied that there was anything dishonorable in the whole transaction. He was followed by Mr. Cartwright who was attentively listened to until he made some reference to the private acts of Sir John A. McDonald, when he was hissed and three cheers given for Sir John. The chairman appeared to be very unpopular to a number of the meeting and found it very difficult at any time to obtain a hearing. Taking into consideration the large number of people present, the length of time the majority of them were standing (from 7 o'clock until 2 o'clock in the morning), the meeting was as orderly as could be expected.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING OF THE LIBERAL CONSERVATIVE PARTY.

In response to the invitation extended by Messrs. Tilley and King at the Rink on Thursday evening to the people to meet them at the Institute on the following evening, when they would discuss the questions which had been referred to by Messrs. Mackenzie and Cartwright, one of the largest and most influential political audiences that has ever assembled in that institution, was present. C. H. Fairweather, Esq., occupied the chair. The speakers were Messrs. Palmer, Tilley and King. We regret that we have not the facilities to enable us to lay before our readers a full report of the speeches of these gentlemen. If we had we feel satisfied that if there were any of them who had any doubts as to whether they were the most suitable persona to send to Ottawa at the coming election they would go a long ways towards removing them.

Mr. Palmer defended his position and the acts of his party in Parliament during the last five years, and closed a very able and telling speech by referring to the unjust way which the Government press of this city had treated him.

He was followed by Mr. Tilley, who took up each charge that had been preferred against him by Messrs. MacKenzie and Cartwright, dealing with them in such away as to satisfy any unprejudiced person present, and certainly satisfying the majority of the audience as was manifested by their intense enthusiasm after each explanation.

Mr. King, "another St. John boy," received a very hearty greeting and, was speaking when we left to put the HERALD to press.

CELESTIAL STARS.

THAT AWFUL LETTER.—Mr. Fisher must have had awful sensations on the appearance of that letter. Such an army of words has seldom before been brought out to annihilate one man. The letter was 36 inches long and—0 inches deep. It looked as if it had been written with the butt end of a rail so sharp (!) was it, In every sentence John killed some unfortunate verb or substantive, others he wounded and on their bleeding backs he paraded his bile. Then he could not let the dead rest. Poor, still, dead and buried words he unearthed from the tomb where they had lain for some centuries and dragged them out before the keen-eyed public of the nineteenth century. O, a vulgar writer is the most dreaded of all assailants. Neither god's altar nor a female's private chamber are sacred to him. Like a bull in a china shop, no place is safe from his hoof or his pen. It would not be fair to call John Richards a snake, for the simple reason that his writings show no sting: to say that he writes with other than the but end of a rail, because they show no point. Richards, reflects on Fisher's poverty, and says he has only "a few type and press." Now if he has a "few press" he is not bad off, or even a few presses. He says that he "can't learn Mr. F." anything. No one can learn to, but they may learn from, John meant to say teach to, etc. John also thinks France has now an Emperor, this is not the case. Marshal McMahon is its President.

Fredericton is in a state of alarm Archer, is fidgty, and Fisher is shaking in contemplation of the next letter of John's, The fact is 'twill create such a demand for the Agriculturist that Lipsett shall be obliged to import a dozen hands; 'twill so work upon the peoples mind that the Fisher family will have to leave the Country; Heaven protec us from the power of John Richards, Esq. Answer Amen.

The Exhibition Building has "stopped short," but we hope 'twill soon "go again." The funds are about played out and Chesbrent will not take the responsibility of running it on "his own hook." John Reed seems to have caught the Bile-fever from Richards. Reed is manager of course, and everybody steers clear of him. He is awfully cross, and looks so thin and humpy that one would almost think he had been feeding off himself. His narrow rimmed hat cannot conceal the thunder cloud hanging on his brow. Mr— Reed has good reason for his wrath. The course of certain parties here towards him has been shabby and mean, and speaks volumes for their intelligence.

TELEGRAPH COMPANY.—The Dominion Telegraph Co. has lately established an office here, it is in Mr. McPeake's upper store. Every promise of success is given the Company. Yesterday operators were kept continually busy. A statement of weather probabilities from Toronto posted every day in the office window.

LOCAL POLITICS.—No opposition is at present anticipated should even the other two members Coltor and Thompson resign. Awe of Rainsford will deter Dow from pushing his objects protest the polite and honorable Mr. Frazer. Under some of the latest personal headings from Fredericton.

This city should know how to appreciate the invaluable services of two such correspondents. Candid, square and independent Richards, never, oh, never, shows "pent up spite" or concentrated gall; never white-washes persons or projects when he wants to draw water to his own mill; never makes an ass of himself on public topics; never murders the Queen's noble English, never tries to sting. O, no, he is perfection itself. Then comes Quinn. He never writes—anything—but "personals." This noble pair should be linked to-gether like Castor and Pollux. ton in the Globe. Mr. R. O'Brien's associate, editor Quinn, among general remarks on the weather and the Hotels, somewhere gave his opinion there would be no contest. Richards is of the same opinion, and neither Bill nor John are ever very far astray.

SAMPLES.

QUININE.—Billy Tusaw is in town; he stays in a pig-pen.

Doctor Dow got some little pigs: he keeps them in a puncheon.

Two hens and three roosters paraded before the police court yesterday. Mr. March, the magistrate, owned the fellow with the big comb, John Babbett owned the rest. They are going to buy them at the Queen to make soup.

Hon. W. E. Perley is at the Queen going for that soup.

RICHARDISMS.—Mr. Fred Richards will shortly go to Gibson to take charge of the Custom's office there. Mr. R. is one of our most promising young men. He sings always "by request."

Mr. Fisher is poor, has no brains, have a few type and press; you can learn him nothing, etc, etc.

By the Board of Education.

The Board of Trustees of any School District is hereby empowered to provide from the School Funds under its control Prizes not exceeding a first, second and third prize, in any School Term, for each School or Department, and according to such conditions and regulations as may be prescribed by the Board of Education, provided that no such Prize shall be awarded in respect of proficiency in particular subjects of the School course, or the discharge of particular School duties.—41 Viet. cap. 35, sec. 10.

In pursuance of the above enactment of the Legislature, the Board of Education has been pleased to prescribe the following conditions and regulations—which are to be carefully observed by Boards of Trustees and Teachers—respecting the offering and awarding of the School Prizes therein authorized;—

1. The offer of the Prizes and the conditions of their award set forth below (in Sections 2 and 3) shall be announced to the school, or department, on or before the first day on which it may be in session in any Term.

2. The following shall be regarded as the STANDARD for every member of the School:—Prompt attendance at each school sitting; unexceptionable conduct while subject to the Teacher's supervision, whether in the schoolroom or elsewhere; industrious application in the discharge of every school duty; and excellence of Scholarship in the subjects of prescribed study, according to the pupil's assignments in the course of instruction pursued in the school.

3. The Teacher shall assign a fixed numerical value to the above Standard (say 5 or 10) for each half-day (or for each day) to be available in respect of those pupils only who are present; and the Teacher shall according to his best judgement determine and record at the time what abatement is to be made for any half day (or day) from this standard figure on account of tardiness, improper conduct, want of application or imperfect scholarship. At the close of the calender month the Teacher shall make entry in the School Register (page 6 or 10) of the sum of the Standard figures (or parts of them) retained for the month by each pupil, and the aggregate of these monthly entries shall be regarded as the pupil's School Standing for the Term.

4. At the close of the Term the Teacher shall present a written report, under his signature to the Secretary of the Board of Trustees, stating (1) the names with the School Standing for the Term annexed to each, of the pupils having first, second and third positions; and (2) the name of any pupil who, while a member of the school, or department, was unavoidably absent, and whose actual average daily standing being allowed for such days of absence, not exceeding five in any case, would make his school standing for the Term equal to that of a pupil whose name shall have been reported in the foregoing statement (1.) The Secretary of the Trustees shall keep the Teachers report on the file for a period of at least two years.

5. The Board of Trustees shall award the Prizes to the pupils having the highest School Standing for the Term; and in making the awards the Trustees may, in their discretion, take into consideration, but only within the limitations specified in Section 4, the case of any pupil unavoidably absent from school.

6. The Board of Trustees shall determine the nature and value of all Prizes, and shall exercise a responsible care that no Prize be of a character excluded by the provisions of Regulation 33, or by Section 102 of the School Act.

7. The Prizes shall be publicly presented through the Board of Trustees at, or subsequent to, the close of the Term, at such time and place as the Trustees shall determine; and the Trustees may invite, in their discretion, gentlemen resident and non-resident to present the Prizes to the winners on behalf of the Board of Trustees and the District.

8. The foregoing conditions and regulations are applicable exclusively to schools or departments, conducted by Teachers holding valid Licences under the provisions of Regulation 20 or 33.
