A number of men are to be met with on the street every day who appear to be unable to get work. Strangers should not come here in the hope of getting employment, as building operations a e not as extensive as might be expected.

We have received from P. J. Kennedy, 5 Barclay Street, New York, "President Grant and Political Rings, a Satire," by P. Cudmore, Counsellor-at-law, author of the "Civil Government and the Constitutional History of the United States," the "Irish Republic," etc., etc.

The stock is of first class description and will embrace the leading makes and styles. The readers of the HERALD in Portland may feel assured that a visit to the store will convince them that the goods are A 1 and can be purchased at very reasonable prices. See adv.

A MASSIVE AND HANDSOME Gold Cross with neck chain—the whole said to weigh seventy two pennyweights—was among the display of valuable articles at the jewelry establishment of Mr. Isaac Harris early this week. The Cross was, we believe, intended for His Lordship Bishop Rogers, to replace that destroyed when the Cathedral, Episcopal Residence, College, etc., were burned last winter. The Cross is the handsomest piece of work of the kind ever seen in Miramichi.—Advance.

THE McCarthy inquest is not yet finished at Shediac. On Wednesday, the Sackville Post had the following extraordinary statement which was telegraphed from Alberton, P. E. I.: "A woman named Parker, wife of a brother of Annie Parker, made a statement here to-day before a local magistrate. She testifies that on the night of 12th Oct., her husband and she were in a house at Shediac, and Annie Parker went in to see them. McCarthy came there late at night, opened a window and was crawling in, when Parker hit him on the head, killing him. Parker fled to the States and his where abouts is unknown. Sheriff Sweeny is expected here at once to take the woman to Shediac to testify. The story turns out a canard.

DROWNED.—About five o'clock yesterday morning, word was given to the police that the body of a man was in the mud, about fifteen feet out from Lloyd's Wharf; the tide being out at the time. The man was found lying on his face, part of which was embedded in the mud, and his hands stretched out as if in the act of swimming. The policemen, with assistance, procured some water and oakum and washed part of the body, with a view to identification. Subsequently it was removed to the Dead House where an inquest was held on it in the afternoon. The body, when found, was respectably attired. A watch was found on it which had stopped at 9.55 The drowned man was Charles McKay Fleming, aged about 30 years, son of Mr. George Fleming, and had been away from home since yesterday forenoon. "Found Drowned" was the verdict of the jury.

Climo's ever-popular Photographs, at liberal prices, are made at 13 Charlotte street (Jack's building). His beautiful prize stereoscopic views, (all saved) of New Brunswick scenery, and St. John before the fire, can also be had at above address and of dealers.

PROSPECTUS

"EVENING MAIL,"

WHICH WILL BE ISSUED ON SATURDAY, June 1st.

IT has long been the intention of the publishers of the Evening Mail to issue a daily evening paper in opposition to the present Government at Ottawa, as in their minds Mr. McKenzie's Government, instead of being a benefit to the Dominion, and free from corruption, as every member of it promised at first it should be, has been lavish in its expenditures, creating new offices when there was in reality not sufficient work for the old officials to do, increasing the salaries of high officials and cutting down those of the working man, and committing many blunders too numerous to mention at the present time.

As the management of the paper intend that it shall be free from anything of a low or immoral nature, its contents shall be such that no man will hesitate to take it home to his family, or a perusal of which will bring a blush to the cheek of any right-minded person.

As it is desirable to have but one paper, arrangements have been made with the publishers of the Evening Star to consolidate the Star with the Mail, and therefore there will be no further issue of the Star.

Hoping to receive the hearty endorsement of the public,

We remain,
Yours respectfully,
THE EVENING MAIL PUBLISHING Co.
