NEWS OF THE WEEK.

LOCAL NEWS.

FRIDAY, May 24th, has been proclaimed a public holiday by His Honor the Lieu. Governor.

FREDERICTON is to have a handsome new post office erected on the square below the police office.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Bernard Murphy was founddead in his bed at Mrs Doherty's house, foot of Charlotte street, on Monday afternoon.

OVER THE WHARF.—Patrick Burns' horse with cart attached backed over Lloyd's wharf on Monday. The animal escaped injury.

NARROW ESCAPE.—A lad named McLean, fell into the water near Lynch's ship yard yesterday, and had a narrow escape from drowning.

GEO. MOFFATT, Esq., ex-M. P. for Restigouche, died at his residence, Dalhouse, on Monday last. He had been ailing for some time.

BASEBALL.—The Mutual Base Ball Club of Fredericton will play a match with the Resolutes of St. Stephen at the former place, May 24th, it is said

PERSONAL.—His Lordship Bishop Sweeny, visited St. Joseph's College, Memramcook this week. He returned to town on Thursday evening.

THE St Andrews' Standard says that the Rev. E. Doyle has been appointed Priest of that parish and will officiate fortnightly while still being Priest of St. George.

NEW SOCIETY.—A branch of the Amalgamated Carpenters and Joiners' Society was formed in Good Templar Hall, King street, on Tuesday evening. Over fifty joined.

REMEMBER the City Cornet Band Excursion to Annapolis, on Friday next, May 24th. Tickets are being rapidly disposed of and if the day be fine a splendid time may be expected.

The Liverpool Advance is the name of a newsy, well-conducted weekly paper, published at Liverpool, N. S., E. M. & T. Farrell are the editors and proprietors. We wish the Advance every success.

CHOKED TO DEATH.—A young man about 24 years of age named Hazen Dowlin while taking tea at a friend's house at Stonycreek, nine miles from Moncton, was choked to death by a piece of meat lodging in his throat.

TO-DAY is the 95th anniversary of the landing of the Loyalists. Wonder if those Fort Howe Stationary cannons will belch forth. When used before, panes of glass were broken in some houses on Main street, Portland.

SHOOTING ACCIDENT.—Clarence Knapp while practising shooting at Sackville on Friday of last week, accidently shot a young man named Outhouse who ran between him and the mark and received a very severe bullet wound.

STABBED.—During a scuffle that took place at the corner of Charlotte and Britain streets at an early hour last Sunday morning, a pilot named Robert Reed received a severe stab in the neck. He was taken to the Hospital and will recover.

I. F. S. GIFT ENTERPRISE.—R. O'Brien of the Globe secured the $5000 prize, Burgoyne Campbell, Apohaqui, $1000, W. M. Escott, Montreal, $500, and H. P. Reynolds Lepreaux, $250. These were the principal prizes. Mr. O'Brien's ticket numbered 6,178.

DROWNED.—On Thursday morning John Moran of Halifax, N. S. was drowned between the bell buoy and Partridge Island by the upsetting of a boat in which he and a companion named Inch were pleasure sailing. Inch clung to the boat and was rescued by parties from the Island.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—Michael Sprague, of Fort Howe, an old man of 77 years, attempted suicide on Monday afternoon by inflicting a gash across his wrist. He had been drinking heavily of late and had been making preparations some days previously with a view of ending his life.

BEATEN.—A young man named Hennesey was badly beaten by a sailor on York Point Wharf on Sunday afternoon. Robt. O'Shaugnesy and Fred. Brett were attacked and beaten at the seven mile house on Thursday afternoon by two men named Robt. Watson and Denis Whalen.

IT was rumored last evening that some boys digging in the vicinity of Fort Howe, discovered portions of a skeleton. Having made some enquiries we were unable to trace the report to any reliable foundation, other than that a hoop skirt had been unearthed only that and nothing more!

FIRES.—A slight fire occurred in McAvity & Sons' building, Water street by the explosion of a couple of lamps, Tuesday night. The roof of John McSherry's house, Straight Shore was damaged by fire on Monday. A house owned by John Leaman, High street, Moncton, was destroyed by fire on Thursday. Loss, outside of insurance, $400.

AQUATIC.—Articles of agreement for the coming race between Hanlan and Ross were forwarded to the former by Ross' backers yesterday. There seems to be no doubt but that these oarsmen will come together again about the 31st of July, that date being favored by his backers who seem determined that he shall have another trial notwithstanding the recent apparently easy defeat of Plaisted by Hanlan. The first deposit of $500 is now up. The race will very likely be rowed on the Kennebecasis, stakes $1000 a side; distance 5 miles.

ACCIDENTS.—A lad named Price had his leg jammed by a waggon on board the ferry boat, on Wednesday evening. A carpenter named McDonald while working at Mr. Reed's new cottage on Tuesday had his knee cut with an axe. A little son of Mr. Michael O'Keeffe's, Chatham, while playing at the stove with a lighted stick was badly burned on Friday of last week. A lad named Boyle, Fort Howe, was severely injured by being run over by a sloven on Mill street, shortly after 6 o'clock, Monday evening. Chas. F. Dorman while working in Cruikshank's building, Sydney street, cut his knee with a chisel on Monday. Jas. Sinclair, while out practising in a small boat in the harbor, Wednesday, sprained his arm. A party by the name of Johnson while working at the foundation of the Post office yesterday had his head badly cut.

WAS IT MURDER?—James Darrah, who has relatives in Portland, and who has lived with his wife and family near Welsford, Q. C., recently met his death under peculiar circumstances. Some say that his wife struck him on the head with a billet of wood from the effects of which he died. Other say that he poisoned himself. An inquest was held on Monday to enquire into the cause of his death and from medical testimony givon the jury found a verdict of "Death from natural causes." Since that time new revelations have been made and it is generally believed that Darralf met his death from either of the causes above stated.

A YOUTHFUL FRAUD.—Yesterday a boy, bearing a paper signed "J. W. Knox," giving the boy a begging certificate of character, setting forth that his father was dead, his mother was sick but honest, the boy himself being honesty and integrity personified, put in an appearance on Main street and made a systematic canvass of every shop on the street and every person he met, achieving a considerable amount of success at times. He has been at the business now several years, in St. John and Moncton, getting a fresh certificate every few months. The present recommendation is "brand new" in appearance, having, the boy alleges, been written in Carleton, St. John, yesterday morning by the benevolent "Mr. Knox" who keeps a big store in the direction of Blue Rock, where he sells "apples and things—sugar, books," etc. If there is such a party and if he has given this dead beat a certificate, he ought to be looked after.—Moncton Times.

MR. McLEOD, M. P., SUED.—We understand that Mr. McLeod, M. P. for Kent County, has been served with a writ in the Supreme Court for $2,000, at the instance of Mr. John Little, of Moncton, formerly of Richibucto, and for some time Inspector of the work of construction on the Richibucto Breakwater. Mr. McLeod is sued in this sum for sitting in the House of Commons one day in 1878, in violation of the Independence of Parliament Act, he having been in receipt of Government monies while a member of Parliament. It was said in St. John that Mr. McLeod expected to be sued and was "prepared" for the suit. In what way "prepared" does not appear. One way of being "prepared" is to have a friend ready to serve a writ in advance of the genuine paper, but this can only be done by collusion with the Sheriff or his officers. The writ in question was served on Mr. McLeod in St. John. The action is laid in Kent County. C. A. Steeves, Esq., Moncton, is Mr. Little's Attorney.—Moncton Times.

THE BAZAAR AT THE SACRED HEART CONVENT.—The Bazaar inaugurated in thenew wing lately added tothe Convent of the Sacred Heart, Waterloo street, has had a very successful run of nearly a week, and the attraction is now as great as on the opening night. The ladies in charge of the bazaar are to be congratulated on the success that has attended their efforts in the cause of charity. The different departments are ably presided over by ladies whose presence alone is a sufficient guarantee of the ultimate prosperity of the undertaking. Mrs. Dr. Travis, Mrs. Thos. Furlong, Mrs. Chas. O'Regan, Mrs. R. F. O'Flaherty, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Ramey, Mrs. Duffy, Mrs. Corkery, Mrs. Jennings, the Misses Quinn, Reynolds, Fennel, Millet, Cotter, Maher, Kirk, Lantalum, Lloyd, Lornaad and others, worked with much ardor to make the Bazaar as successful as the most sanguine friends of the undertaking could desire. The Postoffice, Fish Pond, Refreshment and other tables at which the above ladies presided or for which they sold tickets were generously patronized during the entire week from 3 o'clock until 6, and from 7 until 10 p. m. A pleasant feature of the bazaar and one thoroughly enjoyed by the visitors was the really artistic musical efforts of Mrs. Ramey, the Misses Millet and Hatheway. All the lady amateurs well deserved the very hearty plaudits with which their very beautiful renditions were greeted. The prizes offered are splendid ones and whoever wins one or more will be more than pleased. We are pleased to note the success so far attained by the managers of the Bazaar and hope it may be well patronized until the close.

BOLD THIEF.—Says the Globe of yesterday:—

Between 8 and 9 o'clock this morning Mansford Kennedy, of St. Martins, was accosted on Charlotte street by a young man pretty well dressed and having quite a respectable appearence, who enquired if Kennedy knew where "Mr. Wilson's office was." Kennedy replied that he was a stranger and did not know, whereupon the man remarked that he, too, was a stranger. He then took out of his pocket three cards, which he offered to sell Kennedy. He represented that the latter could make money by performing tricks with the cards, and offered them for a quarter. Kennedy, who is about as green as he could be, said he had no change, and the other fellow said he could arrange that satisfactorily. Kennedy then drew from his pocket a roll of notes for the purpose of handing the stranger a one dollar bill. But had hardly had the money exposed to view before the man grasped the roll of notes and darted off. Kennedy followed rapidly. The stranger dodged through the King Square, into Slipp's stable, and thence to Baird's Hotel and out again. When Kennedy was coming out of the hotel he met a tall man who told him he had better not chase the thief further; that he (the tall man) would see about the money. Kennedy did not heed this fellow, but ran on, and finally with the assistance of some boys hunted down the thief, who had run into Hamm's stable. When searched at the police station the fellow had no money, and it is conjectured that he passed the roll of bills to the tall man, before mentioned, who must have been his confederate. The prisoner gave his name as James A. Murray, and said that he belonged to the United States. When the case was called at the Police Court, R. J. Ritchie, Esq., appeared for the prisoner. After hearing Kennedy's statement the Magistrate committed the prisoner for trial at the Circuit Court. Kennedy loses $15 by the transaction.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.—The following preamble and resolutions were adopted at a meeting of the St Joseph's Junior Society, Portland, held on Sunday evening, 5th inst.:

Whereas,—We have learned of the decease of our esteemed friend and associate, Patrick Collins, after a long illness, which he bore with Christian faith and humility, and as it is fitting that we, who have been the companions of his youth and pleasures, should express the sorrow of all our hearts at his passing away from amongst us,

Therefore be it Resolved,—That by his death we have lost a faithful friend who was generous and sympathetic in trial and affectionate in prosperity and gladness, a loved companion, of pure and blameless life, with high honored sentiments of duty. One whose excellence and worth we shall always cherish.

And be it Resolved,—That we tender to his bereaved parents our kindest sympathy with grief at the death of a dutiful son, whose constant care it was to render their lives happy, and to never, until now, give them cause to sorrow; and we pray that the balm of consolation may be speedily poured into their afflicted hearts, and in the fullness of Christian faith that their lamentation may be turned into joy, as the reward of his virtue will be the realization of heavenly happiness.

And Resolved,—That these resolutions be recorded in full on the minutes of the St. Joseph's Junior Society, and a copy thereof be duly presented to the family of our lamented associate.

B. J. CURTON,
J. T. BURNS,
F. McMORROW,
P. McMURRAY,
Committee on Resolutions.
