Acknowledgment.

Will you allow me through your columns to express hearty thanks to friends in Wolfville for kindness shown? A rumor went abroad that I had lost my watch, which had more foundation, in fact, than many other reports which gain even greater currency.

Some of the members of the 1st Horton Church, of which I am the unworthy pastor, conceived the idea that I must be kept up to time in some way, and so three of their number took me greatly by surprise a few evenings ago, by calling at my house and placing in my hands a new and really beautiful gold watch, fresh from "Elgin Nat. Watch Co." with the following inscription very neatly engraved upon it:

PRESENTED TO
by Members of the Baptist Church,
Wolfville, N. S., June 1888.

May the donors be abundantly rewarded, is the wish and prayer of
T. A. HIGGINS.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—Received from C. D. Everett his annual donation of $10 for Home Missions and $10 for Foreign Missions, to be placed to the credit of Germain Street Baptist Church. J. MARSH, St. John, June 5. Treas. F. M. B.

NEWS FROM THE CHURCHES.

LOWER JEMES.—On the Queen's birthday, a social and concert was held at Lower Jemes, in aid of the new Baptist church now being built in that place. The result, financially, equalled expectations; but the concert, with David E. Wright for Chairman, and with the young people of the place for performers, as a literary entertainment, far exceeded expectations, and was considered, by a delighted audience, to be a credit to all concerned. Com.

DORCHESTER.—The church at Dorchester after the fifteenth instant, unless some body is engaged in the meantime, will be without a pastor. The Dorchester church, though organized in 1845, made but little progress until 1850, and its present membership has been largely gathered from families formerly belonging to other denominations. Its members are scattered through the community, and largely surrounded by hostile influence, and in some localities it is looked upon with feelings akin to jealousy. For the latter there is some reason, as Baptists must necessarily be aggressive, and while as much as in them lies they desire to be at peace with all men, they hold to the principles received by them from the Bible with the greatest tenacity. Another difficulty we have to contend with here is that many who are Baptists are not members of the Dorchester church. A few are members of other Baptist churches who have not affiliated with us, others are Free Baptists, and some are Unitarians. Of late years things have been working very harmoniously among the different classes of Baptist and now they are pretty well mixed up in our Sunday audiences, and in our conferences and prayer meetings. Such has been done to consolidate the Baptists of Dorchester, and were it not for the very large numbers we have lost in the last five years by the exodus, our church would now be one of the strongest in the Province; we yet held our place as the second largest church in the parish, the Catholics alone not numbering us, and feel more than ever the necessity of having a minister constantly in the field. The headquarters of the church is Dorchester Corner, and it is here that the most of the work must be done, as it must always be the common centre. The corner has about twenty-five per cent. of the members, and contributes about four-fifths of the minister's support, and let it be said to its credit: pay its share promptly. The ordinary contributions to the support of the minister are $650, and house rent.

The church is about selling its mission house, which is not very conveniently located, and will as soon as possible provide another better situated. The preaching stations of the church are scattered broadcast over the parish, and it has two over the line in the parish of Sackville. The stations are Calhoun's Mills, North Rockland, Centerville, Woodville, Fairview and Dorchester corner, and the church has good buildings at all those places, Calhoun's Mills excepted. This will give you some idea of what our pastor has to do, and it is to be hoped will not intimidate any good brother who is looking for a place in which to work for his Master. We have to regret the resignation of Bro. Young, who is esteemed among us for his piety and ability, and has the entire confidence of the community. The exodus fever seems to have seized him, and we almost regret our proximity to a state that has taken away from us about one-fifth of the members of our church, and is about to take our pastor. It is to be hoped that we Baptists of the Maritime Provinces will some day learn that there is humanity enough among ministers to draw them to a country where they are better supported, and have other privileges not accorded to them here. We want, and we must have a minister at Dorchester as soon as Brother Young leaves. The Baptist elements here have to be consolidated, and the mass to be worked should have a fair share of mental and physical ability. The community is permeated with Baptist principles. Many of those outside of the church are Baptist in belief. CHAS. E. KNAPP, June 1st.

MARSH BAY.—The Rev. D. W. C. Randall is doing a good work at Marsh Bay.

There have been eight baptisms since the Convention. Three of these followed Christ publicly on the 27th inst. One of them was a young man, who has just returned from his studies at Wolfville. The church at home was requested to make special prayer for his conversion. On the same evening the Lord opened his heart; and so soon as he returned, he and one of his sisters followed Christ in baptism. The church has adopted the weekly offering, and has no difficulty in meeting current expenses. In the evening service of the 27th, four deacons were ordained. Rev. E. M. Saunders assisted the pastor in the ordination. Pastor and people are working harmoniously. Mr. Randall has some fears that the sea air will prove too severe for Mrs. Randall's health, and that this may require a change of place. Mr. Randall has firm health, and all his strength is taxed by the large extent of country under his care. He preaches three times each Sunday.

COX.—GABRIEL, C. O.—One person, the head of a family, was baptized on the evening of May 23, by Rev. L. Wallace, into the fellowship of the newly formed Baptist church at Gabarus.

BHILIPATAM, India.—On the first Sabbath in April we had the joy of welcoming a sister into the fellowship of the church. She had come from Visagapatnam, twenty-one miles distant, to obey her Saviour in baptism. At the Conference on Saturday afternoon she told her christian experience and was received. At the close of the meeting we went to the seaside, and there in the presence of a large company of christians, Hindus and Mohammedans, she put on Christ as the word directs. The scene was impressive, and the occasion one of blessing to our christian community. May the Lord bring in many others speedily.

HILLBORO, A. C.—Three have been recently added, by baptism, to the 1st Hillboro church. Our prayer and reading meetings are generally interesting, but many are going away from this locality, to the United States, which is weakening the church very much; yet we hope to struggle on through all the disadvantages and maintain the cause of Christ. We are hoping and praying for a greater outpouring of the Spirit in this parish. May the great head of the church hasten it in his own time! S. W. KESTER, May 30.

FOURCHES, C. B.—Two persons were baptized, on Thursday evening, May 24, at Fourches, by Rev. Isaac Wallace. Many were assembled to witness the impressive rite, including the Rev. Isaac Murray, D. D., Presbyterian minister. The administrator read extensively the Word of God, showing his authority and direction for the observance of the ordinance. He said without any ostentatiousness, "We are indeed the evidence of a weak cause when special pleading is required to sustain it."

PORT HILLFORD, N. S.—Since last reporting two have been baptized into the fellowship of this church. J. J. A.

UPPER PERAZEE, Kings Co., N. S.—Seven persons were baptized and received into the fellowship of the 1st Cornwallis Baptist church, on the 18th of May, by Rev. S. B. Kempton, of Canada. Two Licentiates, Messrs. Rutledge and Baker, have been laboring with this church for a short period during the winter, and they have won for themselves a very deep place in the affections of this people. They have indeed the right men in the right place. Their efforts were blessed of God in the conversion of quite a number of the young people; others are expected soon to obey the Saviour's command and unite with the church. A Mr. Sackhouse, attending the institutions at Wolfville is to spend his vacation with us.

NEWCASTLE, Queens, N. B.—Bro. Anderson writes that 32 have been baptized in the revival at the above place, since its commencement, and still the work goes on in the face of fierce opposition.

JACKSONTOWN, Caroline Co., N. B.—Sunday, May 27th, was a day of joy and thanksgiving; and, because we were taking our farewell from a kind and loving people; joy, because we had the privilege of baptizing three happy believers in the Lord Jesus. May the good Lord abundantly reward our friends at Jacksontown, and Jacksonville, for the many tokens of kindness which we have received during our stay among them. Our earnest prayer is that the Lord will soon send them a pastor worthy of the kindness they are ready to bestow upon their minister. We enter upon our new charge (D. V.) at the Temple church, Yarmouth, second Sunday in June.

LESTER STREET.—Rev. G. White, the pastor elect of Temple church, Yarmouth, preached a very clear and practical sermon in the morning, at the close of which the pastor baptized one candidate, who, together with another received by letter, received the right hand of fellowship after the evening service.

PERSONAL.—Bro. J. M. Parker, having resigned the pastorate of the Salisbury Baptist church, is in a position to correspond with any church desirous of securing a pastor. We are sure our brother will soon again be engaged in his much loved work of preaching the gospel. His address is Salisbury, N. B.

Bro. Webb begins his pastorate at Port Lorne and Hampton, N. S., early this month. He has a broad field. May the Lord give him wisdom and strength.

Brethren DeWolf and White have begun their labors on their new fields—Hampton, N. B. and Temple church, Yarmouth, N. S., respectively. Bro. Ford, expects to begin his pastorate at Centerville, St. John, next Lord's day. Will correspondents please note these changes of address?

NOTICES.—Delegates to Southern N. B. Association paying one full class fare on the Intercolonial and St. Martin's Railways, will be returned free. The St. Martin's train will leave Hampton station Saturday morning on the arrival of the express from St. John, and will be in St. Martin at 10:30 a. m.

SECRETARY.—Delegates to N. B. Southern Association are requested to send their names, at once to J. S. Titus, clerk of St. Martin's church, in order that suitable arrangements may be made for their entertainment during the forth coming session.

Ministers and delegates who purpose attending the N. S. Western Baptist Association meeting in Clarence, June 16, will please forward their names to the undersigned prior to June 10, stating when they may be expected and by what conveyance. Cards will be sent to all delegates informing them when and by whom they will be entertained. Teams will be in waiting on Thursday and following days at Paradise.

station to convey delegates to their places of abode. G. F. MAIRWAIRIO, Pastor. S. N. JACKSON, Asst. Clerk.

The P. E. Island Baptist Association will meet with the Baptist church at Belvedere, on the 6th of July, at 10 o'clock a. m. Delegates expecting to attend are requested to send in their names to the clerk of said church, Joseph Schurman, E. q. Central Belvedere, stating mode of travel, whether by rail or their own conveyance, before the 15th of June, in order that suitable arrangements can be made for their accommodation. I. J. SKINNER, Pastor of Belvedere church.

P. S.—The Baptist churches throughout the Island are requested to have their church letter prepared and sent to the clerk of the Association, Bro. J. E. Leard, Tryon, at least one week, before the day of meeting, in order to save time. I. J. S.

TO W. B. M. A. SOCIETIES IN N. B.—The usual Women's Missionary Meeting will be held in connection with Eastern N. B. Association this year. All members and others interested are earnestly invited to be present and to contribute to make these annual reunions the source of large increase to our mission work.

A. R. E. Sec'y for N. B.—Delegates and ministering brethren who expect to attend the Association at Gasperaux, N. S., are requested to forward their names to the undersigned previous to the 15th of June, and to state whether they come by their own conveyance or by rail. J. Q. VACHON, P. O. address, Gasperaux.

The regular monthly meeting of the Foreign Missionary Board, will be held in the committee room of the Leinster street Baptist church on Wednesday, 6th inst., at 3 o'clock p. m. W. J. BRANTLEY, Sec'y.

AN Ecclesiastical Council has been called by the Lakeville Baptist church, Sunbury, N. B., to meet on Wednesday, June 13, at 2 o'clock p. m., to take into consideration the expediency of ordaining to the work of the Gospel ministry their pastor, Bro. E. H. Thomas (Lic.). Ministers and friends are invited to attend. AMOS THOMPSON, Clerk.

Deaths.—OSLYN.—On the 14th inst, Wm. Oslin Esq., of Aylesford, aged 73 years. He was converted about fifty years ago under the preaching of Dr. S. T. Read, and by him received by baptism into the Baptist church. He was highly esteemed.

GOSWELL.—At the residence of M. S. Porter, Desfield, Yarmouth Co., N. S., May 5th, Elsie Gossell, of membranous croup, aged 8 years 3 months. She was a bright promising child, and her foster parents feel their loss deeply. She was daughter of Andrew Goswell, Wolfville, and was taken to Bro. Porter's home at the time of her mother's death over a year ago. I. V. POSTER, at Wolfville.

McNALLY.—At Benton, Cur. Co., April 28, Naomi, aged 36 years, beloved wife of George McNally, leaving seven children to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate mother. Our sister was a member of the Baptist church.

McCONNELL.—At Port Hillford, at the home of her son, May 21, after a long and painful illness, Mrs. McConnell, widow of the late James McConnell, aged 73 years. Our sister was baptized by the Rev. H. Eggle, in 1874, and united with the Port Hillford Baptist church, of which she remained a consistent and faithful member until her death. She will be missed but we are comforted by the thought that what is lost to us is gain to her.

REAGH.—At Prince Albert, Anna, Co., on the 13th inst, Sarah, wife of Dea. Abraham Reagh, aged 77 years. Mrs. Reagh was a daughter of the late Francis Tupper; she was converted about twenty two years since under the ministry of her uncle, the late Dr. Charles Tupper. Through years of suffering our sister manifested a firm and cheerful trust in the Saviour. She was a husband and six children, and a dear one to all who will be greatly missed in the family circle, but we feel confident that she has left a world of suffering for that peaceful home that knows no pain or sorrow. J. ROWE.

WHITE.—At Digby, May 27th, Margaret R., wife of Dea. Geo. M. White, aged 42 years. Sister White was a native of Cornwallis, she was about eighteen years ago was baptized by Rev. E. O. Read, and united with the church at Cambridge. Twelve years ago she removed to Digby, and, uniting with the church here, maintained a christian life to the last. For upwards of twenty years she was a consistent invalid, at times unable to rise from her bed; but all was borne in a spirit of patience and submission to the divine will, and from her couch of pain she gave wonderful testimony to the sustaining power of Christ. The one great fear of her life was that as death approached, the struggle would be so great her faith would fail, but when the hour did arrive, there was no doubt, no fear in her mind, as she expressed to the writer, "It is only a little brook"; and without a struggle crossed to the better land. Her last words were, "Come quickly, Lord Jesus." Her husband and three surviving children are sustained in the hour of their bereavement by the same Christ whom their loved departed one trusted, and look forward with confidence to a reunion in the hereafter.

GRANT.—At Bayside, Charlotte Co., May 13, Winifred P., infant daughter of James and Jane Grant, aged 1 year, 10 months, 15 days. She was a christian child, and her death was a great loss to her family. Her father, Mr. James Grant, was a member of the Baptist church, and her mother, Mrs. Jane Grant, was a member of the Baptist church. She was a very sweet and obedient child, and her death was a great loss to her family. Her father, Mr. James Grant, was a member of the Baptist church, and her mother, Mrs. Jane Grant, was a member of the Baptist church. She was a very sweet and obedient child, and her death was a great loss to her family.

CUTTS.—Peacefully laid to rest in the cemetery, on Sabbath, May 20th, Daisy B., only daughter of Prudence and the late Hanley Chute, and grand-daughter of the late Richard Sanford. Although so young, scarce eleven years, she has lived a christian life for almost three years. She had the deep thoughts of one of mature age. All felt that Jesus was indeed her teacher. Her words of advice to her dear brother, to her companions in her Sunday-school class, and to her many friends will never be forgotten. May they all take the consolation that Jesus gives, and live to meet her above. Sermon on the occasion by the pastor from Matt. 21: 16.

BELVA.—At Wickham, Queens Co., May 26, after a long and painful sickness, borne with christian patience, and ending in a peaceful departure to be with Christ, Archibald P. Belva, aged 75 years, leaving a widow and child, and five sisters, all of whom were members of the Baptist church. He was baptized in 1839 by Rev. W. H. Beckwith, being at his death a member of Lower Cambridge Baptist church.

PARNER.—At Aranthville, Vio. Co., May 11, Mrs. Ella Parner, aged 26 years, beloved wife of Harvey Parner, leaving her husband, parents and five sisters, all of whom were members of the Baptist church. She was a very sweet and obedient child, and her death was a great loss to her family. Her father, Mr. Harvey Parner, was a member of the Baptist church, and her mother, Mrs. Ella Parner, was a member of the Baptist church. She was a very sweet and obedient child, and her death was a great loss to her family.

GAVEL.—At his residence in Gavelton, May 18, Deacon Jacob Gavel, aged 74. He was a shining light that seemed never to dim, a city star on a hill. He has been my privilege to have known him for twenty years. He was a kind husband, a loving father, a devoted servant of God. His house was a home for God's people. The power of grace to sustain him was manifested until the last moment. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." His funeral took place May 21st. The writer improved the occasion from Isa. 40: 1. Our esteemed Bro. Subbert, Bro. Gagnon, and Bro. Samuel West (Free Baptist) assisted in the services. May the Lord sustain his widow in her heavy bereavement, and bless the providence to his children and grandchildren, and large circle of relatives.

QUINT.—At Upper Kenton, Vio. Co., April 12, George E., beloved son of W. A. and M. Quint, aged 11 years and 10 months. The sorrowing parents feel that it is all well; God took that which was his own. JOHNSON.—At Bayside, Charlotte Co., May 29, Mrs. Nancy Johnson, in the 91st year of her age. She calmly fell asleep and is with Christ, which is far better.

LILLEY.—We are shocked to hear of the death of our dear brother, Randall Lilley, of Berwick. Read writes under date of May 24th: To-day it is our painful duty to commit the grave, the earthly remains of our dear brother, Randall Lilley (Lic). For several years his health has been feeble, but he kept on amid infirmities, faithfully performing his master's work up to within three days of his death, when he was seized with inflammation of the lungs, and on Sabbath morning last he peacefully passed within the vale, where the "inhabitant shall not say 'Prick'." At the age of 35 years he had laid down his life work for the higher service. We all deplore our loss.
