The Home

The Reason.

When Minnie and Mamie are both at play, Everything runs in the smoothest way; Each dear little face is so sunny and sweet, To watch them together is surely a treat.

They never quarrel and disagree, Nor snatch the playthings, nor come to me With pitiful stories, as Jennie and Sue When they play together are sure to do.

I wondered what the reason could be, Since they all are sweet little girls, you see, So I called them up and the case made plain, And asked if they could the riddle explain.

And Minnie looked puzzled, and shook her head, But our wise little Mamie quickly said, With a wee, droll smile: "I think it must be "Cause I let Minnie, and Minnie lets me!"
—Exchange.

Talk Happiness.

Grumble? No; what's the good? If it availed, I would; But it doesn't a bit— Not it.

Laugh? Yes; Why not? 'Tis better than crying, a lot; We were made to be glad, Not sad.

Sing? Why, yes, to be sure: We shall better endure If the heart's full of song All day long.

Love? Yes; unceasingly, Ever increasingly, Friends' burdens bearing, Their sorrows sharing, Their happiness making; For pattern taking The One above Who is Love.

—Joan Sumerset, in Epworth Herald.

The Care of Lamps.

Unfortunately for the busy woman, lamps need more attention than any other means of light, and many women know but little of the best methods of treating them. If lamp chimneys are cleaned with a cloth dipped in alcohol, instead of soap and water the result is better; and if the wicks are soaked in strong vinegar and thoroughly dried before being used, there will be no smoke. The burners will become clogged in the course of time, and ought to be treated to a ten minutes' boiling in a quart of water in which an ounce of washing soda has been dissolved. Wipe with a cotton cloth, and they will be just as good as new. This really ought to be done every month.—The Kitchen.

Enjoy as You Go.

Some people mean to have a good time when their hard work is done—say, at fifty. Others plan to enjoy themselves when their children are grown up. Others mean to take their pleasure when they get to be rich, or when their business is built up on a sure foundation, or the farm is paid for, or the grind of some particular sorrow is overpast.

Such persons might as well give up ever having a good time. The season of delight, which is so long waited and hoped for, too rarely comes. Disease, poverty, death, claim each his victims. The lives of those whom we love, or our own, go out, and what is left?

Then take your pleasure today, while there is yet time. Things may not be in the best shape for that visit you have been so long planning to your only sister. It might be better if you could wait till you had a more stylish suit of clothes, or till the boy was at home from college to look after the place; but she is ready now. You are both growing old—you had better go.

John drives round with the horse. "Jump in, mother," he says. "It is a lovely day. You need the fresh air." Don't say, "I can't go—I was intending to make some cakes," or "My dress isn't changed." Put on your warm coat, tie a veil around your hat, and take your ride. If you don't take such things when you can get them, they are apt to be shy when you want them again.

"Don't say, 'I shall be glad when that child is grown up! What quantities of trouble he makes!" No—enjoy his cunning ways—revel in his affectionate hugs and kisses—they will not be so plentiful by-and-by. Enjoy his childhood. It will look sweet to you when it is gone forever.

Enjoy the littles of every day life. The great favors of fortune come to but few, and those that have them tell us that the quiet, homely joys that are within the reach of us all, are infinitely the best. Then let us not cast them away, but treasure every sunbeam, and get all the light and warmth from it that the blessing holds.—Family Friend.

Manners For Boys.

In the street, hat lifted when saying "Good-by," or "How do you do?" Also, when offering a lady a seat or acknowledging a favor.

Keep step with anyone with whom you walk. Always precede a lady up stairs, but ask if you shall precede her in going through a crowd or public place.

At the street door, hat off the moment you step into a private hall or office.

Let a lady pass first always, unless she asks you to precede her.

In the parlor stand till every lady in the room, also older people, are seated.

Look people straight in the face when they are speaking to you.

Let ladies pass through the door first, standing aside for them.

In the dining room, take your seat after ladies and elders.

Never play with your knife, ring or spoon.

Do not take your napkin in a bunch in your hand.

Eat as fast or as slow as others, and finish the course when they do.

Do not ask to be excused before the others, unless the reason is imperative.

Rise when ladies leave the room and stand till they are out.

If all go together, the gentlemen stand by the door till ladies pass.

Special rules for the mouth—smacking the lips and all noises should be avoided.

If obliged to take any thing from the mouth, cover it with the hand or napkin.

Bed-rooms—never look toward a bedroom.

Always knock at a bedroom door, or at that of any private room.

These rules are imperative. There are many other little things that add to the grace of a gentleman, but to break any of these is almost unpardonable.—Christian Intelligence.

Thanks the Bridge

Carried Safely Across the Chasm of Death by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Robert Moore, of Indiantown, St. John, N. B., lives to tell the tale—Suffered for Seven Years with Kidney Disease—Cured by a Few Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

INDIANTOWN, ST. JOHN, N.B., Nov. 6.
Robert Moore of this place is famous as the man who escaped death from chronic Kidney Disease by means of Dodd's Kidney Pills. He likens Dodd's Kidney Pills to a bridge which has carried him safely over the chasm of death.

He was travelling on a road still traversed by far too many people in this country—the road to the grave from one of the forms of Kidney Disease, including Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Rheumatism, Heart Disease, Dropsy, Bladder and Urinary Affections, Women's Weakness and Blood Poisons. There is only one way of crossing this dark gulf and Mr. Moore speaks of it in the following letter written in answer to a correspondent:

"For seven years I have been a victim of Kidney Disease, at times suffering the most excruciating pain. I had almost considered my case hopeless and had given up medical treatment. One day while I had been to get a plaster to apply to my back, a boy handed me a paper about Dodd's Kidney Pills. I came home. My wife undressed me, for I could not undress myself, and went to bed. Then my wife got a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills at Mr. Hobbs', the druggist, on Main St. I used them and two more, when I was able to go to work.

"If any man misdoubts me let him come to me or any of my neighbors and they or I will soon convince him. I thank Dodd's Kidney Pills, the bridge that carried me over, and lots of others to whom I have recommended them do the same. I wish all Kidney Disease victims could find the relief I have."

SMOTHERING SENSATION.

A Kingston Lady's Experience with Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills in Relieving this Distressing Condition.

"I have suffered for some years with a smothering sensation caused by heart disease. The severity of the pains in my heart caused me much suffering. I was also very nervous and my whole system was run down and debilitated.

"Hearing that Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills were a specific for these troubles, I thought I would try them, and got a box at McLeod's Drug Store. They afforded me great relief, having toned up my system and removed the distressing symptoms from which I suffered. I can heartily recommend these wonderful pills to all sufferers from heart trouble.

The Ravages of Consumption.

The White Plague on the Increase.

A Cure Now Within the Reach of Every Sufferer.

The remarkable increase of deaths from Consumption (tuberculosis) within the last few years is now attracting the attention and earnest consideration and study of the leading medical authorities of Europe and America. And the most strenuous efforts are being made to check its further development. Many eminent men suppose that Consumption cannot be cured, but not so with the great scientist and chemist, Dr. T. A. Slocum, who asserts that this terrible malady has never been thoroughly studied in its various bearings, and says that consumptives are constantly being sent to sanatoriums with the hope of prolonging life for a short time, rather than for the purpose of effecting a cure. Dr. Slocum has made consumption a life-long study, and he claims that not only can life be prolonged, but a complete cure can be effected, even in the last stages. The Slocum Cure is not an experimental remedy; but it is the result of laborious study and practice, each ingredient in its composition having been selected for a special and powerful bearing upon the cause of this dreadful disease. If his remedies (The Slocum Cure) are persisted in for a reasonable time, a perfect and a permanent cure can be effected.

If the reader is a consumptive, or has lung or throat trouble, general debility or wasting away, do not despair, but send your name, postoffice and nearest express office to the T. A. Slocum Chemical Co., Limited, 179 King Street West, Toronto, when three large sample bottles, (The Slocum Cure) will be sent you free. Don't delay until it's too late, but send at once for these free samples, and be convinced of the efficacy of this great remedy.

When writing for the samples, say you saw this free offer in the MESSENGER AND VISITOR.
