PNEUMONIA AND CROUP

"I take my pen in hand to inform you of the great cure effected by your medicines. Some time ago my husband was taken down with lung fever. It came on him with a chill in the night. It happened I had a supply of your medicine in the house at the time. I rubbed his chest and back with the Ready Relief. I gave him a teaspoonful in a little hot water to drink, to help warm and stimulate him, and in about half an hour three of the Ready's Pills. By the time the doctor came the next morning he was much better. The doctor wanted to know what I had been doing. I told him. He said that was good, that they were good medicines. Another case I had was with my little nephew who was staying with me. He was taken with croup. I rubbed his throat, chest and back with the Ready Relief, gave him doses about an hour apart, followed it by a dose of pills. By the next day he was about all right. I have been using this medicine, with my family and my neighbors, for about 50 years, and never knew it to fail, when the directions were carefully followed. I would feel greatly obliged to you to please forward me 'False and True,' one of your publications, for which I enclose stamp, for I absolutely need it at once, if you please. You are at liberty to make use of this testimony as you may think proper."

Yours respectfully
MR. ELIZA DUNN,
Jacksonville, Morgan Co., Illinois,

A Russian squadron has arrived at Chemulpo. It is believed this presages a demand for a concession of land at Masango, and it is arousing uneasy comments in Japan.

Rabbi Isaac M. Wise, probably the most distinguished Rabbi in the Reformed Jewish church, died at Cincinnati on Monday evening of a stroke of paralysis. He was eighty-one years old.

Three little children were burned to death in a fire which destroyed the cottage home of John Brassil, a farm laborer, in East Providence, R. I. Wednesday afternoon. The mother was badly burned and injured in trying to rescue the little ones.

The foreign embassies at Constantinople have sent a collective note to the government declaring in positive terms that they will consent to no increase in the import duties without a previous understanding being reached between the powers and the porte.

In the Nova Scotia Legislature Monday, Premier Murray brought down the estimates. The total amount of probable revenue is $948,905.67, the largest ever estimated in the history of the province. Of this $390,000 will come from royalties in coal and gold.

A body, supposed to be the remains of one of the persons on board the missing steamer Planet Mercury, was found on the beach near Barrington. On two places of the clothing was the name "C. G. Harn." On one arm had been tattooed a double heart and initials "J. M." On the other was a flag and a shamrock in the centre.

Mr. Bond, the premier of Newfoundland, will appeal to the country at the coming election on the question of reciprocity with the United States, advocating a renewal of the Bond-Blain convention, negotiated some years ago by him, which provided for reciprocity between the two countries. Canada objected, thus preventing the convention taking effect.

At Dorchester, N. B. Monday, Thomas Nickerson, an employee of the Intercolonial Copper Company, was arrested by Detective Power, of Halifax, on a charge of receiving stolen property. Several robberies have taken place in Halifax recently and the goods were expressed to Nickerson. He is an old offender, having served at least one term in the penitentiary. A confederate is thought to be in St. John.

A despatch to the Daily Mail from Mafeking, dated Friday, March 10, describes the humerous side of the siege. It appears that the colonials set up bottles, inviting the Boers to shoot at them, and then chafed the enemy when the shot would go wide. Another trick of the colonials is by persistent concertina playing to lure the Boers, excited by curiosity, to raise their heads from the trenches, when they are promptly sniped.

Thomas Cunningham, of Skiff Lake, York county, was found a few days ago in an unconscious condition at the shop of John McCusker, where he had been drinking freely, and died shortly afterwards. Coroner Coburn held an inquest, and the jury decided that Cunningham came to his death from paralysis brought about by exposure while on his way to Canterbury on Feb. 27th ult., and liquor given him by John McCusker, and from lying in an uncomfortable and unnatural position in the shop of John McCusker during the afternoon and night of Feb. 27th ult.

The New York World, in a Pittsburgh despatch, makes the positive statement that the Carnegie-Frick controversy has been settled and a permanent peace established. The despatch adds: "The new Carnegie Steel Company, in which will be included all the old companies directly and indirectly part of the Carnegie interests, will be the largest and most powerful in the world, with an actual capitalization of nearly $200,000,000. This is bedrock value, without one drop of water. And Mr. Carnegie will be at the head of the new company and lead it in a competition for the steel trade of the world."
