STAIRS.—At Temperance Vale, Sept. 12th, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stairs, aged 8 days.

OGILVIE.—At Little River, Halifax Co., N. S., on the 3rd inst., Earl, youngest child of George and Cassie Ogilvie, in the 8th year of his age.

CORY.—At Temperance Vale, York Co., Sept. 6th, of consumption, Mrs. Gardner Cory, aged 66 years, wife of Deacon Gardner Cory. She was a great sufferer especially during the past three or four months, but bore it all patiently without a murmur looking forward to that glorious rest that she felt was in store for us.

RUDOLPH.—James Harvey Rudolph, master mariner, of Canso, died at the Marine Hospital, Port Hawkesbury, C. B., of typhoid fever, Sept. 1st, aged 42. Captain Rudolph was born in Shelburne county and subsequently removed to Canso where he married Annie, daughter of Mr. John A. Williams, whom he leaves with five children. He was a kind husband and father and will be greatly missed in the family circle. May the God of the widow and fatherless strengthen and guide.

BAILEY.—At Fredericton, N. B., July 5th, Gideon Bailey, in the forty-eighth year of his age. Brother Bailey had been suffering from what appeared a mild type of typhoid fever, when an unexpected development of the disease quenched his life in a moment. He came of a worthy family, his father being the late Abram Bailey, one of the Baptist stalwarts of the Grand Lake region. Converted and baptized at the early age of ten years, he adorned his profession by a godly life. Until 1888 brother Bailey gave his interest and influence to the home church at Newcastle, Grand Lake, after which he removed to Little River, where he became, along with his brother Henry, a tower of strength to that struggling cause. They were charter members of that church and it was largely through their efforts that the house of worship there was built and paid for. About three years ago brother Bailey and his family removed to Fredericton, where he won the esteem of all who knew him by his worthy life. He took a deep interest in young men and many of our younger ministers will remember with thankfulness the kindnesses they received from him and his wife, and the ever ready welcome of their hospitable home. Brother Bailey leaves a widow and two sons who cherish in their grief the consolations of the Gospel. Three brothers and two sisters also survive him.

Thanks.

Allow me through the MESSENGER AND VISITOR to thank the brethren and sisters of the Associations and Woman's Aid Societies and likewise the many friends who have written us personally for their kind words of sympathy. I was not aware I had so many friends until in the providence of God we were called to pass under rod. My address in future will be Truro, Colchester county. J. WILLIAMS.

Truro.

SUSSEX, N. B.—Work encouraging. Two members of my congregation are putting repairs on the parsonage which will cost in the neighborhood of $1000. Mr. George H. White and Mr. C. T. White who are paying for this work have shown great liberality towards our work here. They are deeply interested in the welfare of the church and are ever ready to respond when help is needed. May God richly bless them. Last night I baptized two young ladies into the fellowship of our church. W. CAMP.
