TABOR.—After an illness of a year and a half from consumption, Leah Tabor, aged 20 years and 5 months, daughter of Amos Tabor, died April 3rd. She was a most patient Christian sufferer. The influence of her noble life lives.

McNEIL.—At Freeport April 7th, Elizabeth McNeil in the 86th year of her age. Sister McNeil was a member of the Freeport Baptist church and for many years lived a Christian life, her end was a peaceful resting. May God comfort the mourning children and kindred.

FRUDE.—Mrs. Mary Frude died at the home of her son, Charles, May 9th, after a lingering and painful illness. She leaves two sons, a daughter, and several grandchildren. For many years a faithful Christian she has now entered the promised rest.

MOXOM.—At the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Little, Woodstock, N. B., from cancer of the stomach, Mrs. Henry Moxom, aged 73 years, passed away April 9th. She was a patient Christian woman. The burial was at Benton. Two daughters and one son reside in N. B. and two sons and one daughter are in California.

DONALD.—At Upper Blackville, April 30, Nathan Donalds aged 73. Our brother had been ailing for some time, passed peacefully away to be forever with Jesus. He had been a member of the church for many years, and when enjoying health strongly supported the various interests of the denomination. He was kindly ministered to at his brother's Elijah Donalds.

HUNTINGTON.—At her daughters home in Aylesford, N. S. April 15, 1904, Mrs. Ebenezer Huntington at the extreme age of 91. For seventy-four years sister Huntington was an earnest follower of the humble Galilean, having been baptized into the fellowship of the First Cornwallis church, Aug. 22, 1830, by the late Father Manning. Most of our sister's married life, however was spent in the vicinity of New Brunswick where there was given her a family of nine children, of whom only three daughters are now living. Upon the death of her husband, over twenty years ago sister Huntington came to Aylesford to reside with her daughter, Mrs. Amelia Parker who did everything that love could suggest in ministering to the mother in her declining years. During the last two years our sister was at times an intense sufferer, but never was she heard to complain. Patiently she waited for her Master's summons knowing that death would be but the door opening into the presence chamber of her long loved Saviour and Lord. The funeral was held on the following Friday. In addition to a sermon by her pastor brief addresses were given by Revs. J. T. Eaton and A. Chipman, both of whom spoke in the highest terms of the worth and genuineness of our sister's character. As we reflect upon the sweetness, strength and beauty of our sister's life we feel that we have been given an illustration of what Christ can do in the human heart when He is fully trusted and his work is not thwarted by a stubborn will. The interment took place at Pleasant Valley beside her husband and several of her children.

THE LUNenburg CO. QUARTERLY MEETING.

This meeting convened at Farmington, April 25, 26, with seven ministers of the county in attendance, among whom was our venerable brother, Rev. S. March, whose presence always gives inspiration and much valuable aid to our county gatherings. The conference meeting of Monday afternoon led by Pastor Smith was a spiritual preparation for the following sessions.

After the evening devotional service led by Bro. W. R. Barrs, two helpful addresses were presented, viz "The Church's Relation to Missions" by Pastor Schurman, and "Home Missions" by Pastor Freeman, Rev. M. W. Brown, whom we hoped would be present, but was prevented was to have been the speaker on this last subject. The after meeting was led by New Canada's new pastor and many testified to the value of Jesus in their own lives.

On Tuesday morning, the brethren met in the usual pastors conference. A review of "The Fact of Christ" by Carnegie Simpson, prepared by Pastor Morse who was unavoidably absent, was heard with much interest, and was followed by a profitable discussion. A paper on "Methods of Sermonizing" was then presented by the Sec'y.

The business of the Quarterly then took place. The following were invited to seats, Sisters, Miss E. A. Meldrum and Miss Slauenwhite, and Bro. Feener. Pres. Freeman then extended the right hand of fellowship to Bro. Beaman who responded briefly. The reports from the churches revealed some measure of prosperity throughout all the pastorates, especially in the churches at New Germany, Dayspring and Bridgewater. Repairs on church property had been completed or anticipated in many of the sections and additions were reported from nearly all of the churches which had been supplied with pastors during the quarter. Dayspring has received a special blessing. It is to be regretted that Hancock and Mahone are pastorless, but we are glad to learn that the latter church is soon to have the pastoral oversight of Rev. A. F. Brown. The election of officers for the ensuing year was as follows:—Pres. Rev. C. R. Freeman, Sec'y Treas. Rev. S. W. Schurman.

The afternoon session began with a devotional service led by D. A. Mader of New Canada, after which an address delivered with his usual earnestness and spiritual power was presented by Bro. March on "How to promote spiritual life in the church."

Then came the Woman's Session led by Mrs. C. R. Delong, during which encouraging reports, an inspiring programme consisting of papers by Mrs. R. O. Morse, and Mrs. Vege, and readings by Mamie Nass and Mrs. Whitman were heard with much interest and profit. Pastor Beaman then very acceptably addressed the meeting on "The Christian Steward and His Income." Rev. R. O. Morse the assigned speaker have been absent. In the evening after a praise service led by Dea. I. L. De'ong the sermon was preached by Pastor Blackney, after which an after meeting was held by the President. Though the Sec'y was absent during the evening, it was doubtless a profitable close to one of our best quarterly gatherings.

M. B. WHITMAN, Sec'y.

Personal.

Rev. E. O. Read is supplying the church at Lower Granville, N. S. for the summer.

REV. D. H. SIMPSON'S REQUEST.

Touching the request made of me by Rev. D. H. Simpson in the MESSENGER AND VISITOR of May 4 I have simply to say that I have pointed out in a private letter to Mr. Simpson how certain sentences in his first paragraph of "Inspiration Again," can logically refer to no one but myself. I do not deem it necessary to weary the readers of the MESSENGER AND VISITOR with details of my argument.

RUFERT OSGOOD MORSE.

Alfred A. Taylor, of Margaree, says: "One bottle of MINARD'S LINIMENT cured a swelling of the gamble joint, and saved a horse worth $140.00."

Thos. W. Payne, of Bathurst, saved the life of a valuable horse that the Vet had given up, with a few bottles of MINARD'S LINIMENT.
