HELP THE FARMERS.

Agriculture still remains the most important industry that we have in the province and everything possible should be done to make farming more attractive and profitable.

Every encouragement should be given to any plan that will make better roads as the facilities of transportation is so closely allied with the cost of production and of great importance in connection with the farm.

The sections of the country which have the best roads show the most advancement. There is considerable force in this contention.

Billy—The blacksmiths in Newcastle have been very busy since the temperance council was elected.

Johnny—What doing?

Billy—Making hoops for the boys that are forced to go on the keg.

Johnny—Guess they had better send to Chatham for some.

'NOUGH SAID.

Father: Willie, I've broken my suspenders. Do you know where my new ones are?

Willie: No Pop, but Mamma's Harem Skirt came while you were away, and she's gone out in it.
