Mr. Jacob B. Price is ready to do all kinds of shoe repairing.

Erecting New Storeroom.

Mr. P. A. Forsythe, Whitneyville has the contract for building the new store room for the N. B. P. & P. Co. A number of men are now hauling lumber to the mill for that purpose. The building will be 65x70 feet and will covered with felt roofing. Operations will commence in a few days. The building when completed will cost about $2000.

Oranges On Prince Edward Island.

The Guardian's news staff was shown on Saturday a twig of house plant called the othieite with two nicely and by no means small oranges attached. This plant is about two feet high with large oval shaped leaves of an extremely pretty deep green shade and owned by John Hancock of Wood Islands North. The plant is now in bloom and has several oranges attached. — Charlottetown Guardian.

Placing The Buoys

Mr. James Bryenton has placed the buoys in position between the South-West Bridge and Millerton. The placing of the buoys was from instructions of harbor master Captain John Russell. This is the third season that Mr. Bryenton has put the buoys in position. The captains speak very highly of Mr. Bryenton's good work. Some new ones were placed this season. They will prove a great help to navigation.

Fiedler—Baizley

An interesting event was solemnized at Newcastle, on Wednesday mornig at 10 o'clock, when S. J. MacArthur united in marriage Miss Katherine Lulu Baizley to Mr. Otto W. Fiedler. The ceremony was performed at the manse and was very quiet. Mr. William Corbott acted as best man. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. James G. Baizley and is well known. Mr. Fiedler is a native of Saxony, Germany, but has been on the Miramichi for some time. He is the popular proprietor of the Victoria Cafe. Mr. Fiedler is a prominent Oddfellow and is a past Noble Grand of Newcastle Lodge. Mr. and Mrs. Fiedler left on a honeymoon trip to St. John and other cities. The News wishes Mr. and Mrs. Fiedler a long and happy journey through life.
