The tug J. Howard, Captain E. A. Crocker, is towing rafts from here to Chatham for The J. B. Snowball Co. Ltd.

Another Reader For The News

A little stranger arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Matheson early yesterday morning. A girl. Congratulations.

Fires At Upper Blackville.

Fires have been raging the past couple of days at Upper Blackville. The fire was between the railroad track and the river.

More Water Needed.

All the drives on Barnaby River are still hung up for want of water. It looks serious for the lumbermen if the dry weather continues.

Fine Watering Tank.

The road board have placed a fine watering tank near Melver's blacksmith shop. This move will be appreciated by the travelling public.

Starting To Build.

Mr. P. A. Forsyth starts today to build the new warerooms for the N. B. P. & P. Co. Mr. John McKay will be foreman of the work.

Band Practice At Esson's.

The Millerton Concert Band had a splendid practice in the rear of Esson's ice cream parlors last evening. Mr. Esson kindly treated the band boys to some of his delicious ice cream.

Millerton Young Lady Honored.

At a recent meeting of the Y. W. C. A. of the University of New Brunswick, Miss Louise Crocker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Crocker, Millerton, was elected president of that society. This office entitles Miss Crocker to be a delegate to the Muskok conference next month.

Budget Of Estimates.
