S.S. DOROTHY N. REGULAR TRIPS

Boat Has Been Put in Splendid Shape for Present Season.

CAPT. SPURGEON AMOS IN CHARGE

The Newcastle Steamboat Co. steamer Dorothy N. is now making regular daily trips on the Redbank-Newcastle route.

The steamer leaves Millerton every Saturday for Newcastle at 7 p. m., returning leaves Newcastle at 10 p. m. On and after June 21st she will make trips on Wednesdays as well as Saturdays from this port to Newcastle, leaving Millerton at 12.15 p. m. and returning leaves Newcastle at 7.15 p. m.

The steamer has had a complete overhauling during the past winter on the Canada Docks, Chatham. She has been eathed with galvanized iron and re-caulked from keel to decks.

She has been painted inside and out, the cabins being beautifully grained. The ladies' cabin has comfortable cushioned seats provided and everything presents an air of cleanliness. Stationary open air seated are arranged on either sides of the cabins on both decks. The boat is so clean that it is a pleasure for the men to work on board as well as for the pleasure seeker.

Captain Spurgeon Amos, of Derby, who superintended the work of improvement to the steamer, is again her popular skipper, he having had charge of her the season before last. Needless to say she is in good hands and the travelling public will be well cared for.

Mr. Chas. McLean is mate and is an obliging and capable officer.

Mr. Allan McLean, of Newcastle, the engineer, has his pair of compound twin screw engines in splendid working order.
The boat is making splendid speed this season. Mr. Wm. Power "the man behind" the boiler is always found at his post keeping up steam for the slick running engines.

The first excursion of the season will be on Victoria Day, when the boat will take excursionists down the beautiful Miramichi river. She is licenced to carry 135 passengers. See ad. in this issue of News.

MAX AITKEN IS AMUSED

He Has Not Taken Sir Sanford Fleming Seriously.

MR. AITKEN IS NOW IN LONDON.

London, May 15—On his arrival here today Max Aitken, promoter of the Canada Cement Company, was interviewed by the Canadian Associated Press in regard to Sir Sanford Fleming's inquiry in the Canada Cement Company's $13,000,000 alleged misappropriation.

Mr. Aitken exclaimed laughingly: It's a lot of money, I suppose you expected to find some knocking about here. He added more seriously: I have nothing to say, I have ceased treating this gentleman seriously for a long time past."

Mr. Aitken added, he had not been a director of the Cement company for some time.

Thers' nae place like ane's native place Nae place like ane's first hame, It matters nae hoo puir and cauld, Oor love is a' the same.

To the sacred spot hoo'er remote Where light first on us shined, We're drawn by some mysterious tie That nae man e'er defined.
