MILLERTON'S BRIGHT FUTURE

Mr. Michael McDade, of St. John, whose business takes him all over New Brunswick, talking with The Miramichi News said: Millerton and Loggieville are two of the places in the northern part of the province that are making rapid progress. Millerton's great increase and future prospects are attracting the attention of people far beyond the bounds of the province and there is no question that in the near future there will be great additions to its now important paper mill Extract works, saw mills, newspaper and other industries.

Those who think New Brunswick does not afford advantages to people of ability energy and industry should study the success of Messrs. A. & R. Loggie of Loggieville. From a small beginning they have become among the most prominent of Canada's Captains of industry; and in making money for themselves they have many hundreds of well paid officials and employes in the milling, dredging, fishing and other branches of their immense business. Messrs. O'Leary & Montgomery, have also a branch of their immense business at Loggieville and this is under the able management of Mr. Claude Brown.

UNCLE WALT

The Poetic Philosopher.

Be Cheerful.

O laugh and be joyous! Don't fret and annoy us by telling your troubles we've some of our own; we don't want to nurse them or pet or rehearse them, and weary old grouchers should let us alone.

We try to keep smiling in manner beguiling, and just when our faces are stretched into shape, some gloomy old duffer starts making us suffer by telling us stories of hearses and crepe.

We try to be sunny and cheery and funny, we'd kick up our heels like as many mad steers, but always some hoary old skate with a story of trouble and anguish lays siege to our ears.

Our woes—we'd forget 'em; no more would we wet 'em with streams of the briny from sorrowing eyes, if they were exclusive; but people obtrusive are loading us down with their own stock of sighs.

We'd bear our own burden and strive for the guerdon of peace that should come when the battle is over; but always some dub'll come up with his trouble, and stand expound it until we are sore.
