Bad News From Drives.

A gentleman from the Northwest informs the News that there is a poor outlook for the drives. Some firms have taken off their men only leaving enough to look after the supplies. There must be rain and lots of it in the near future or things will be bad for the lumbermen.

Going Some.

Mr. Thos. Duthie, the veteran Miramichi raftsmen brought a raft to the grounds here from the Grey Rapids. Mr. Duthie brought the raft through the White Rapids without any assistance. This is something unusual, even for a young man and Mr. Duthie is climbing up to 80. This is certainly going some.

An excursion will be held on the Dorothy N. Victoria Day. The adv. is on the first page of this issue.
