Dear Sir:

Kindly allow me a little space in your valuable paper to pass a few remarks about the Association Football game, which I: now apparently got a firm hold in this district.

We have now played return matches with each other, and though it gives me great pleasure to say we, The Paper Mill Team were victorious on both occasions,

THE WHITE JESSAMINE

I knew she lay above me,
Where the casement all the night
Shone, softened with a phosphor glow
Of sympathetic light,
And that her fledgling spirit pure
Was pluming fast for flight.

Each tendril throbbled and quickened
As I nightly climbed apace,
And could scarce retain the blossoms
When, anear the destined place,
Her gentle whisper thrilled me
Ere I gazed upon her face.

I waited, darkling, till the dawn
Should touch me into bloom,
While all my being panted
To outpour its first perfume,
When, lo! a paler flower than mine
Had blossomed in the gloom!

I cannot help but speak a few words of praise to the losers. (Millerton)

They played us two good games, and especially the second. We had our work cut out to keep your men from penetrating our defence.

Under the leadership of Mr. Home whose capabilities as a player and captain I have the greatest respect, and his men from goalkeeper to forwards, never appeared to give up their chance of winning in Thursday nights game, and with a little practice and cool headed work they should develop into a very good team. There is one thing however I would advise them not to do, and they would learn quicker and better if they would only keep in their own places, not that our men are free from this fault, but we are trying our best to impress upon them both by speech and practice that it reduces their work considerably, and gives the spectators a better chance of seeing what Association Football is.

The crowd that came to see the game, were as far as I can hear, thoroughly interested in it, but a cheer and a few words of encouragement to their respective side will do a great deal to make them do their best and try to win. Let the men also the ladies give them a cheer "Play up Millerton" or "Play up Paper mill" and then the boys will do their utmost.

We the Paper mill team will be pleased to play you again at any time if they will inform our secretary Mr. A. Mitchell and should we meet again, we shall have to try to beat you, but if you beat us, well I reckon we will take the defeat with the same grace that Millerton have taken theirs.

Finally I should advise the inhabitants of Millerton and Lower Derby to rally round their teams and give them all the encouragement they can. It was a great game on Thursday and I believe every man on the field did his best.

Hoping I have not taken up too much space in your paper, which, by the way I wish every success.

Yours Faithfully,

ALEX. RENSHAW,

Captain N. B. P. & P. Mill Team.
