ARBOR DAY.

Arbor Day will be observed in the public schools this year on the 12th of the present month.

All school children, as well as the teachers and trustees of the schools should form some plans to beautify the school grounds.

What a difference it would make in the appearance of a school to see nice fences around it lined with trees and a few flower beds laid off to make the play ground more pleasant for the coming men and women of our country.

What is more beautiful than a flower? Let the children plant a few flowers, the older ones a tree. Encourage them to plant a tree with their own hands so that in after years they can look back with pride at the little monument they placed there in the happiest days of their lives.

What more beautiful river is there than the Miramichi? Let us assist in keeping that beauty by doing our share on the 12th of May.

BOOM THE MIRAMICHI!

EVERY-YEAR.

The spring has less of brightness
Every Year,

And the snow a ghastlier whiteness
Every year

Nor do summer flowers quicken,
Nor autumn fruitage thicken,
As they once did, for they sicken
Every year.

It is growing darker, colder,
Every year;

As the heart and soul grow older
Every year;

I do not care for dancing,
Or for eyes with passion glancing,
Love is less and less entrancing
Every year.

Of the loves and sorrows blended
Every year;

Of the charms of friendship ended
Every year.

Of the ties that still might bind me
Until time, to death, resign me
My infirmities remind me
Every year.

Ah! how sad to look before us
Every year;

While the clouds grow darker o'er us
Every year,

When the blossoms all are faded
That to bloom we might have aided,
And immortal garlands braided,
Every year.

To the past go more dead faces
Every year.

As the loved leaves vacant places
Every year,

Everywhere the sad eyes meet us,
In the coming dusk they greet us,
And to come to them entreat us
Every year.

"You are growing old" they tell us
Every year;

"You are more alone," they tell us
Every year;

"You can win no new affection,
You have only recollection,
Deeper sorrow and dejection,
Every year.

Yes! the shores of life are shifting
Every year.

And we are seaward drifting
Every year.

Old places changing fret us,
The living more forget us
There are fewer to regret us
Every year.

But the cruel life draws nigher
Every year,

And the morning bar rises higher
Every year,

Earth's hold on us grows slighter
And the heavy burden lighter,
And the dawn immortal brighter
Every year.
