Poetry.

THE LORD'S PRAYER.

Our Lord and King who reign'st enthroned on high,
Father of Light! Mysterious Deity!
Who art the great I AM—the last the first—
Art righteous, holy, merciful and just—
In realms of glory, scenes where angels sing,
Heaven is the dwelling-place of God our King;
Hallowed thy name, which doth all names transcend;
Be thou adored, our great Almighty Friend;
Thy glory shines beyond creation's space,
Named in the book of justice and of grace;
Thy kingdom towers beyond thy starry skies;
Kingdom satanic falls, but thine shall rise.
Come let thine empire, O thou Holy One,
Thy great and everlasting will be done!
Will God make known his will, his power display!
Be it the work of mortals to obey.
Done is the great, the wondrous work of love—
On Calvary's cross he died, but reigns above—
Earth bears the record in thy holy word.
As heaven adores thy love, let earth, O Lord;
It shines transcendent in the eternal skies,
Is praised in heaven; for man the Saviour dies!
In songs immortal, angels laud his name,
Heaven shouts with joy, and saints his love proclaim.
Give us, O Lord, our food, nor cease to give
Us proper food, on which our souls may live.
This be our boon to-day and days to come,
Day without end, in our eternal home;
Our needy souls supply from day to day,
Daily assist, and aid us when when we pray;
Bread though we ask, yet, Lord, thy blessing lend,
And make us grateful when thy gifts descend.
Forgive our sins, which in destruction place
Us, the vile rebels of a rebel race.
Our follies, fruits and trespasses forgive—
Debts which we ne'er can pay nor thou receive.
As we, O Lord, our neighbor's faults o'erlook,
We beg thou'dst blot ours from thy memory's book;
Forgive our enemies; extend thy grace
Our souls to save, e'en Adam's guilty race.
Debtors to thee in gratitude and love,
And in that duty paid thy saints above.
Lead us from sin, and in thy mercy raise
Us from the tempter and his hellish ways;
Not in our own, but in His name who bled,
Into thine ear we pour our every need.
Temptation's fatal charm help us to shun,
But may we conquer through thy conquering Son.
Deliver us from all which can annoy
Us in this world, and may our souls destroy;
From all calamities which men betide,
Evil and death, oh! turn our feet aside,
For we are mortal worms, and cleave to clay;
Thine 'tis to rule, and mortals' to obey.
Is not thy mercy, Lord, for ever free?
The whole creation knows no God but thee.
Kingdom and empire in thy presence fall;
The King Eternal reigns the King of all.
Power is with thee—to thee be glory given,
And be thy name adored by earth and heaven.
The praise of saints and angels is thy own:
Glory to thee, the Everlasting One,
For ever be thy triune name adored.
Amen! Hosanna! blessed be the Lord!

The Striking Age.

Really John Bull may be almost described as a maniac with lucid intervals. He appears suffering under some form of mania or other. A few years ago it was the Railway Mania—a very dangerous phrenzy. Then from time to time comes a Poultry Mania, or one of the similar and milder forms of insanity. The mania now prevailing is one which, if not attended to, may perhaps prove troublesome. This is the Striking Mania. Everybody is striking. The other day it was the cabmen; now it is the Dockyard labourers; the policemen, even, have struck and thrown down their statves. Our mechanics have so far become like machines, that like clocks, as clocks ought to be, they are all striking together.

Should this mania spread, we shall have striking become what might be called the order, but that will be the disorder, of the day. The professions will strike; you will send for your lawyer to make your will, and your messenger will return with non est inventus—struck; or should you ask the legal gentleman a six-and-eightpenny question, you will discover that he has struck for 13s. 4d. The physicians and surgeons will strike for two-guinea fees; the apothecaries for ten shilling mixtures. The clergy will all strike—as indeed some of them, the poor curates, might reasonably do—and pluralists will be demanding forty thousand a year instead of twenty; whilst bishops will hang up the mitre, stick the crosier over the chimney-piece, and hold out against the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for double incomes. In short, almost everybody will strike except the threshers, the smiths, and the pugilists.

With all this striking, though, we had better take care that we are not floored.—Punch.

Beware! Beware! Beware!

Beware of listening to a man who says he "will not detain you five minutes."—Beware of purchasing wine at an auction, which is described as "late the property of a nobleman who has gone to live upon the Continent."—Beware, if you are in a hurry, of getting into an empty omnibus.—Beware of a shop that deals in "Awful Failures!"—Beware of mentioning the name of Ireland in the presence of an Irishman.—Beware of interfering in any quarrel—more particularly a matrimonial one.—Beware of marrying a woman who has "great expectations."—Beware of short cuts when you are travelling; of playing with a man who knows a trick or two at cards; of buying a horse of a friend; of living near a firework gallery; above all, beware of putting your name on a stamped piece of paper, as much as you would beware of steel-traps and spring-guns, or of putting your fingers in the fire.—Punch.

And Ike read, "At Paris the dressmakers, jewelers and milliners have all been occupied in furnishing the trousseau of the princess Wasa." "Stop, Isaac," said Mrs. Partington, raising her finger and glancing at him over the top of her spectacles, "is that so?" He assured her it was. "Well," continued she, and a blush of offended modesty crossed her features, like the sun-flash on a newly reddened barn door, "that may be the way they do things in Paris, but it isn't modest to begin with. A woman has no right to wear 'em. 'Tis agin natur and decency. And what does she want so many of 'em for? She can,t wear but one pair at a time, and here she has got all of the dressmakers making trousers for her, as if she was going to live long enough to wear 'em out. Ah, woman aint what they were once!"

"I HAVE THE READING OF IT EVERY WEEK.—It not unfrequently occurs, when persons are asked if they will subscribe for a newspaper, or if they already take it, that they reply, "No; but neighbor B. takes it, and I have the reading of it every weeek." Such often add, that they like the paper, and sometimes they say they consider it "the best paper they know of." They are benefitted by the toils, perplexities and expenditures of those who receive nothing from them in return. Reader, if you feel reproved, just send in your name and take the paper yourself, not forgetting to pay for it.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A MOST MIRACULOUS CURE OF BAD LEGS, AFTER 43 YEARS' SUFFERING.

Fxtract of a Letter from Mr. William Galpin, of 70, St Mary's Street, Weymouth, dated May 15th, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—At the age of 18 my wife (who is now 61) caugh a violent cold, which settled in her legs, and ever since that time they have been more or less sore, and greatly inflamed. Her agonies were distracting, and for months together she was deprived entirely of rest and sleep. Every remedy that medical men advised was tried, but without effect; her health suffered severely, and the state of her legs was terrible, I had often read your Advertisements, and advised her to try your Pills and Ointment; and, as a last resource, after every other remedy had proved useless, she consented to do so. She commenced six weeks ago, and, strange to relate, is now in good health. Her legs are painless, without seam or scars, and her sleep sound and undisturbed. Could you have witnessed the sufferings of my wife during the last 43 years, and contrast them with her present enjoyment of health, you would indeed feel delighted in having been the means of so greatly alleviating the sufferings of a fellow creature.

(Signed) WILLIAM GALPIN.

A PERSON 70 YEARS OF AGE CURED OF A BAD LEG, OF THIRTY YEARS' STANDING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. William Abbs, Builder of Gas Ovens, of Rushcliffe, near Huddersfield, dated May 31st, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—I suffered for a period of thirty years from a bad leg, the result of two or three different accidents at Gas Works, accompanied by scourbutic symptoms. I had recourse to a variety of medical advice, without deriving any benefit, and was even told that the leg must be amputated, yet, in opposition to that opinion, your Pills and Ointment have effected a complete cure in so short a time, that few who had not witnessed it would credit the fact.

(Signed) WILLIAM ABBS.

The truth of this statement can be verified by Mr. W. P England, Chemist, 13 Market Street, Huddersfield.

A DREADFUL BAD BREAST CURED IN ONE MONTH.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Frederick Turner, of Penshurst, Kent, dated Dec. 13th, 1850.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR,—My wife had suffered from Bad Breast, for more than six months, and during the whole period had the best medical attendance, but all to no use. Having before healed an awful wound in my own leg by your unrivalled medicine, I determined again to use your Pills and Ointment, and therefore gave them a trial in her case, and fortunate it was I did so, for in less than a month a perfect cure was effected, and the benefit that various other branches of my family have derived from their use is really astonishing. I now strongly recommend them to all my friends. (Signed) FREDERICK TURNER.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF A DANGEROUS SWELLING OF THE KNEE.

Copy of a Letter from John Forfar, an Agriculturist, residing at Newborough, near Hexham, May 15, 1850

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR.—I was afflicted with a swelling on each side of the leg, rather above the knee, for nearly two years, which increased to a great size. I had the advice of three eminent surgeons here, and was an inmate of the Newcastle Infirmary for four weeks. After various modes of treatment had been tried, I was discharged as incurable. Having heard so much of your Pills and Ointment, I determined to try them and in less than a month I was completely cured. What is more remarkable I was engaged twelve hours a day in the hay harvest, and although I have followed my laborious occupation througeout the winter, I have had no return whatever of my complaint. (Signed) JOHN FORFAR

AN INFLAMMATION IN THE SIDE PERFECTLY CURED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Francis Arnot, of Breahouse, Lothian Road, Edinbro', dated April 29th, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR.—For more than twenty years my wife has been subject, from time to time to attacks of inflammation in the side, for which she was bled and blistered to a great extent, still the pain could not be removed. About four years ago she saw, in the papers, the wonderful cures effected by your Pills and Ointment, and thought she would give them a trial. To her great astonishment and delight she got immediate relief from their use, and after persevering for three weeks, the pain in her side was completely cured, and she has enjoyed the best of health for the last four years.

(Signed) FRANCIS ARNOT.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:—

Holloway's PILLS.

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND BAD DIGESTION.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. R. W. Kirkus, Chemist, 7 Prescot Street, Liverpoal, dated 6th June, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—Your Pills and Ointment have stood the highest on our sale list of Proprietary Medicines for some years. A customer, to whom I can refer for any enquiries, desires me to let you know the particulars of her case. She had been troubled for years with a disordered liver, and bad digestion. On the last occasion, however, the violence of the attack was so alarming, and the inflamation set in so severely, that doubts were entertained of her not being able to bear up under it; fortunately she was induced to try your Pills, and she informs me that after the first, and each succeeding dose, she had great relief. She continued to take them, and although she used only three Boxes, she is now in the enjoyment of perfect health. I could have sent you many more cases, but the above, from the severity of the attack, and the speedy cure. I think, speaks much in favor of your astonishing Pills. (Signed) R. W. KIRKUS.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF RHEUMATIC FEVER, IN VAN DIEMEN'S LAND.

Copy of a Letter inserted in the Hobart-Town Courier, of the 1st March, 1851, by Major J. Walch.

Margaret M'Connigan, nineteen years of age, residing a New Town, had been suffering from a violent rheumatic fever for upwards of two months, which had entirely deprived her of the use of her limbs; during this period she was under the care of the most eminent medical men in Hobart Town, and by them her case was considered hopeless. A friend prevailed upon her to try Holloway's celebrated Pills, which she consented to do, and in an incredible short space of time they effected perfect cure.

CURE OF A PAIN AND TIGHTNESS IN THE CHEST AND STOMACH OF A PERSON 84 YEARS OF AGE.

From Messrs. Thew & Son, Proprietors of the Lynn Advertiser, who can vouch for the following statement. August 2nd, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—I desire to bear testimony to the good effects of Holloway's Pills. For some years I suffered severely from a pain and tightness in the stomach which was also accompanied by a shortness of breath, that prevented me from walking about. I am 84 years of age, and notwithstanding my advanced state of life, these Pills have so relieved me, that I am desirous that others should be made acquainted with their virtues. I am now rendered, by their means, comparatively active, and can take exercise without inconvenience or pain, which I could not do before.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF THE GRAVEL, AND A MOST DANGEROUS FEVER COMPLAINT.

Copy of a Letter addressed to J. K. Heyden, Esq., Sydney, New South Wales, dated Feb. 25th, 1851.

SIR—A Mr. Thomas Clark, a Settler at Lake George, was for a considerable time seriously afflicted with a Complaint of the Liver, together with the Gravel. His medical attendants, after trying all their skill, candidly told him that his case was hopeless, and any furthur efforts useless In this situation, and when expecting every day would terminate his existence, a friend recommended him to try Holloway's Pills, and as a forlorn hope he did so, the first gave him considerable releif. he therefore persevered in taking them according to the directions, and is now restored to health. He will feel great pleasure in confirming this statement, or even make an affidavit to the same effect, should it be required.

(Signed) WILLIAM JONES, Proprieter of the Goulburn Herald, New South Wales
