Miscellaneous.

Footsteps of Angels.

BY LONGFELLOW.

When the hours of day are numbered,
And the voices of the night
Wake the better soul that slumbered,
To a holy, calm delight:

Ere the evening lamps are lighted,
And, like phantoms grim and tall,
Shadows from the fitful firelight
Dance upon the parlor wall:

Then the forms of the departed
Enter at the open door,
The beloved, the true-hearted,
Come to visit me once more.

He, the young and strong, who cherished,
Noble longing for the strife,
By the road-side fell and perished,
Weary with the march of life.

They, the holy ones and weakly,
Who the cross of suffering bore,
Folded their pale hands so meekly,
Spoke with us on earth no more.

And with them the being beauteous,
Who unto my youth was given,
More than all things else to love me,
And is now a saint in heaven:

With a slow and noiseless foot-step,
Comes the messenger divine,
Takes the vacant chair beside me,
Lays her gentle hand in mine.

And she sits and gazes at me,
With those deep and tender eyes,
Like the stars, so still and saint-like,
Looking downward from the skies.

Uttered not, yet comprehended,
Is the Spirit's voiceless prayer,
Soft rebukes, in blessings ended,
Breathing from her lips of air.

O, though oft depressed and lonely,
All my fears are laid aside,
If I but remember only
Such as these have lived and died.

Dr. Vaughan's first Guinea.

The following interesting anecdote of the Rev. Dr. Vaughan, was related by himself at the close of a lecture on Persia, which he lately delivered at Stepney Meeting Sunday School-rooms.

"May I be allowed," said the Reverend gentleman, "to make a few observations relating to myself. I well remember, when I was very young, possessing for the first time a guinea; I remember too, that this circumstance cost me no little perplexity and anxiety. As I passed along the streets, the fear of losing my guinea induced me frequently to take it out of my pocket and look at it. First I put it in one pocket; then I took it out and put it in another; after a while I took out of the second pocket and placed it in another—really perplexed what to do with it. At length my attention was arrested by a book-auction; I stepped in and looked about me. First one lot was put up; then another, and sold to the highest bidder. At last I ventured to the table, just as the auctioneer was putting up the 'The History of the World,' in two large folio volumes. I instantly thrust my hand into my pocket, and began turning over my guinea; considering all the while whether I had money enough to buy this lot. The bidding proceeded. At last I ventured to bid too. 'Hollo, my little man,' said the auctioneer, 'what, not content with less than the world?' This remark greatly confused me, and drew the attention of the whole company towards me, who, seeing me anxious to possess the books, refrained from bidding against me, and so the 'World' was knocked down to me at a very moderate price.

"How to get these huge books home was the next consideration. The auctioneer offered to send them, but I, not knowing what sort of creatures auctioneers were, determined upon taking them myself. So, after the assistant had tied them up, I marched out of the room with these large books upon my shoulder, like Samson with the gates of Gaza, amid the smiles of all present. When I reached home, after the servant had opened the door, the first person I met was my now sainted mother. 'My dear boy,' said she, 'what have you got there?—I thought you would not keep your guinea long.' 'Do not be angry, mother,' said I, throwing the books down upon the table; 'I have bought the World for nine shillings.' This was on a Saturday, and I remember sitting up till it was well nigh midnight, turning over this 'History of the World.' These books became my delight, and were carefully read through and through. As I grew older, I at length became a Christian, and my love of books naturally led me to desire to become a Christian minister. To the possession of those books, I attribute, in a great measure, any honors in connexion with literature which have been added to my name. I have not mentioned this anecdote" (said the Reverend gentleman) "to gratify any foolish feeling, but to encourage, in those young persons I see before me, that love of literature which has afforded me such unspeakable pleasures, which I would not have been without for all the riches of the Indies."

Prayer and Practice.

'Who was the man who made the last prayer?' said Miss M., who was on a visit to Brockford, and felt the same disposition to attend the prayer meeting there as at home.

'Mr. Hamilton,' said Mrs. Stewart.

'He must be a man of prayer. It is not often that one hears a prayer so appropriate and easy to unite with.'

'Mr. Hamilton has a gift for prayer, especially in public.'

There was something in the tones of Mrs. Stewart's voice which indicated an unfavorable impression in regard to Mr. Hamilton.

'Has he not got a gift for private as well as public prayer?'

'I know little respecting his private habits, but there are some who do not enjoy his prayers as much as they do the prayers of some other men.'

'I should think they could easily pray with him, his petitions are so natural, so suited to our wants, and withal so fervently offered.'

'There are some who complain that his practise does not correspond with his prayers.'

'I hope there are none who do not think him to be a good man.'

'I believe he is generally thought to be a good man, but he is not a very consistent man. He is a very passionate man, and often in a few moments after a very earnest prayer with his family, that they may be meek, and gentle, and Christ-like, he has been known to fall into a violent passion with some of them. It is true that his passion is soon over, and that he is sorry for it; still the effect on the minds of many is very unhappy. Many think it would be better for him not to pray at all in public until he can make his practise correspond better with his prayers.'

Mr. Hamilton is not the only man whose prayers are less edifying than they would be if there were no contradiction between their prayers and their practise.

How is it with the reader? Do you not pray in the social meeting and in your family? Do you not pray for meekness, yet exhibit anger? Do you pray for nonconformity to the world, and yet mingle in its gay scenes? Do you pray for sobriety and a spiritual mind, and yet exhibit a frivolous and trifling spirit? Do you pray for the coming of Christ's kingdom, and yet do nothing to promote that object? Do you pray that the treasury of the Lord may be filled, and yet cling closely to the property God has entrusted to your care?

That such a contradiction should be noticed by men is sad, and the effect produced on their minds disastrous. But let it not be forgotten that this contradiction does not escape the notice of God!

Similitudes from the Vegetable World.

The fragrant white clover thrives, though trampled under foot; it furnishes the bees with stores of pure honey, without asking or receiving the credit of it. Meekness and disinterestedness.

The morning glory makes a fair show at sunrise, but withers as it becomes hot. Excitement without principle.

To cut off the top of the dock does no good; its roots must be eradicated. Sin is dock root.

The thistle has a beautiful blossom, but it is so armed with spines that every body abhors it. Beauty and bad temper.

The alder bush produces fragrant and delicate blossoms, but the farmer abhors it, because if he gives it a foot it will take a rod. Obtrusiveness.

If the grass hopper eat the silk of the corn, there will be no harvest. Irreligious principles in childhood.

If you go into a field of beggar-ticks in autumn, when you come home your clothes will reveal the fact. Vulgar companions.

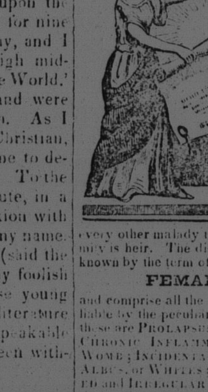
Cranberries hide themselves beneath the moss; he who would find them must look for them. Modest worth.

Not an Enthusiast.

The energy of the manner of the late Rowland Hill, and the power of his voice, are said to have been at times overwhelming.—While once preaching at Wotton-under-Edge, his country residence, he was carried away by his feelings, and raising himself to his full height, exclaimed, "Beware, I am in earnest; men call me an enthusiast, but I am not; mine are the words of truth and soberness. When I first came into this part of the country, I was walking on yonder hill; I saw a gravel pit fall in and bury three human beings alive. I lifted up my voice for help, so loud, that I was heard to the town below, a distance of a mile. Help came and rescued two of the poor sufferers. No one called me an enthusiast, then—and when I see eternal destruction ready to fall upon poor sinners, and about to entomb them irrevocably in an eternal mass of woe, and call on them to escape by repenting and fleeing to christ, shall I be called an enthusiast? No, sinner, I am not an enthusiast in so doing."

A REMARKABLE COLORED MAN.—Samuel Williams, a colored man, has one of the finest farms in Washington county Md. The Hagerstown Herald states that, at the age of 38 years he was a slave in Stafford county, Va., but subsequently purchased his freedom from his own earnings. He then bound himself to years of servertude untill he could purchase his wife and children which he accomplished when he was 50 years of age. Now he owns a farm worth $10,000, and personal property amounting to several thousand more, all earned by his own labour. He is now 75 years of age.

DR. MARCHISI'S
UTERINE CATHOLICON.



THE DISCOVERY OF THE ABOVE PREPARATION HAS ESTABLISHED A NEW ERA IN THE HISTORY OF THE HEALING ART: it is, in truth, one of the greatest Medical Discoveries of the Age, because it will cure more than nine-tenths of a class of distressing diseases incidental to females in every stage of life, and which have heretofore resisted the best efforts of the Medical profession in all countries, to a degree beyond that of almost every other malady to which any portion of the human family is heir. The diseases to which we refer are usually known by the term of

FEMALE COMPLAINTS,

and comprise all the derangements to which females are liable by the peculiarities of their organization. Among these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION and ULCERATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HAEMORRAGE, or Flooding; FLUOR ALBUS, or WHITES; CHLOROSIS; PAINFUL SUPPRESSED and IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted,) of whatever duration and severity. ALL THESE COMPLAINTS can be pleasantly, safely, and certainly remedied by this preparation.

THE CLAIMS OF THIS MEDICINE to the confidence of the public are strengthened by the fact of its having received the approbation and liberal patronage of MANY PROMINENT MEMBERS OF THE MEDICAL FACULTY in the United States, some of whom have voluntarily given letters of commendation. (see pamphlet.) sustaining all that is claimed for the Catholicon as a curative agent.

I am happy to inform you that your Food produced immediate relief. She has never been sick since, had but little heartburn, and the functions are more regular, &c.

DR. WURZER'S TESTIMONIAL.

Bonn, 19th July, 1853.

This light and pleasant Farina is one of the most excellent, nourishing, and restorative remedies, and supersedes in many cases all kinds of medicines. It is particularly useful in confined habits of body, as also in diarrhoea, bowel complaints, affections of the kidneys and bladder, such as stone or gravel; inflammatory irritation and cramp of the urethra, cramp of the kidneys and bladder, strictures and hemorrhoids. This really invaluable remedy is employed with the most satisfactory result, not only in bronchial and pulmonary complaints, where irritation and pain are to be removed, but also in pulmonary and bronchial consumption, in which it counteracts effectually the troublesome cough; and I am enabled with perfect truth to express the conviction that Du Barry's Revalenta Arabica is adapted to the cure of incipient hectic complaints and consumption.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT

A PERSON 70 YEARS OF AGE CURED OF A BAD LEG OF THIRTY YEARS' STANDING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. William Abbs, Builder of Gas Ovens, of Rushcliffe, near Huddersfield, dated May 31st 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—I suffered for a period of thirty years from a bad leg, the result of two or three different accidents at Gas Works, accompanied by scorbutic symptoms. I had recourse to a variety of medical advice, without deriving any benefit, and was even told that the leg must be amputated, yet, in opposition to that opinion, your Pills and Ointment have effected a complete cure in so short a time, that few who had not witnessed it would credit the fact.
(Signed) WILLIAM ABBS.

The truth of this statement can be verified by Mr. W. P. England, Chemist, 13 Market Street, Huddersfield.

A MOST MIRACULOUS CURE OF BAD LEGS, AFTER 43 YEARS' SUFFERING.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. William Galpin, of 70, St. Mary's Street, Weymouth, dated May 15th, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—At the age of 18 my wife (who is now 61) caught a violent cold, which settled in her legs, and ever since that time they have been more or less sore, and greatly inflamed. Her agonies were distracting, and for months together she was deprived entirely of rest and sleep. Every remedy that medical men advised was tried, but without effect; her health suffered severely, and the state of her legs was terrible. I had often read your Advertisements and advised her to try your Pills and Ointment; and, as a last resource, after every other remedy had proved useless, she consented to do so. She commenced six weeks ago, and, strange to relate, is now in good health. Her legs are painless, without seam or scars, and her sleep sound and undisturbed. Could you have witnessed the sufferings of my wife during the last 43 years, and contrast them with her present enjoyment of health, you would indeed feel delighted in having been the means of so greatly alleviating the sufferings of a fellow creature.
(Signed) WILLIAM GALPIN.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF A DANGEROUS SWELLING OF THE KNEE.

Copy of a Letter from John Forfar, an Agriculturist, residing at Newborough, near Hexham, May 15, 1850.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—I was afflicted with a swelling on each side of the leg, rather above the knee, for nearly two years, which increased to a great size. I had the advice of three eminent surgeons here, and was an inmate of the Newcastle Infirmary for four weeks. After various modes of treatment had been tried, I was discharged as incurable. Having heard so much of your Pills and Ointment, I determined to try them and in less than a month I was completely cured. What is more remarkable I was engaged twelve hours a day in the hay harvest, and although I have followed my laborious occupation throughout the winter, I have had no return whatever of my complaint. (Signed) JOHN FORFAR

AN INFLAMMATION IN THE SIDE PERFECTLY CURED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Francis Arnot, of Breahouse Lothian Road, Edinboro', dated April 29th, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—For more than twenty years my wife has been subject, from time to time to attacks of inflammation in the side, for which she was bled and blistered to a great extent, still the pain could not be removed. About four years ago she saw, in the papers, the wonderful cures effected by your Pills and Ointment, and thought she would give them a trial. To her great astonishment and delight she got immediate relief from their use, and after persevering for three weeks, the pain in her side was completely cured, and she has enjoyed the best of health for the last four years.
(Signed) FRANCIS ARNOT.

A DREADFUL BAD BREAST CURED IN ONE MONTH.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Frederick Turner, of Penshurst, Kent, dated Dec. 13th, 1850.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

DEAR SIR,—My wife had suffered from Bad Breast for more than six months, and during the whole period had the best medical attendance, but all to no use. Having before healed an awful wound in my own leg by your unrivalled medicine, I determined again to use your Pills and Ointment, and therefore gave them a trial in her case, and fortunate it was I did so, for in less than a month a perfect cure was effected, and the benefit that various other branches of my family have derived from their use is really astonishing. I now strongly recommend them to all my friends. (Signed) FREDERICK TURNER.

Holloway's PILLS.

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND BAD DIGESTION.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. R. W. Kirkus, Chemist, Prescot Street, Liverpool, dated 6th June, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—Your Pills and Ointment have stood the highest on our sale list of Proprietary Medicines for some years. A customer to whom I can refer for any enquiries, desires me to let you know the particulars of her case. She had been troubled for years with a disordered liver, and bad digestion. On the last occasion, however, the violence of the attack was so alarming, and the inflamation set in so severely, that doubts were entertained of her not being able to bear up under it, fortunately she was induced to try your Pills, and she informs me that after the first, and each succeeding dose, she had great relief. She continued to take them, and although she used only three Boxes, she is now in the enjoyment of perfect health. I could have sent you many more cases, but the above, from the severity of the attack, and the speedy cure, I think, speaks much in favor of your astonishing Pills. (Signed) R. W. KIRKUS

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF RHEUMATIC FEVER, IN VAN DIEMEN'S LAND.

Copy of a Letter inserted in the Hobart-Town Courier, of the 1st March, 1851, by Major J. Walch.

Margaret McConnigan, nineteen years of age, residing at New Town, had been suffering from a violent rheumatic fever for upwards of two months, which had entirely deprived her of the use of her limbs; during this period she was under the care of the most eminent medical men in Hobart Town, and by them her case was considered hopeless. A friend prevailed upon her to try Holloway's celebrated Pills, which she consented to do, and in an incredible short space of time they effected perfect cure.

WONDERFUL EFFICACY OF HOLLOWAY'S PILLS IN CASES OF DROPSY

Persons suffering from Dropsy, either about the turn of life, or at other times, should immediately have recourse to these Pills, as hundreds of persons are annually cured, by their use, of this direful complaint in its different stages, when all other means had failed.

CURE OF A PAIN AND TIGHTNESS IN THE CHEST AND STOMACH OF A PERSON 84 YEARS OF AGE.

From Messrs. Thew & Son, Proprietors of the Lynn Advertiser, who can vouch for the following statement.—August 2nd, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—I desire to bear testimony to the good effects of Holloway's Pills. For some years I suffered severely from a pain and tightness in the stomach which was also accompanied by a shortness of breath, that prevented me from walking about. I am 84 years of age, and notwithstanding my advanced state of life, these Pills have so relieved me, that I am desirous that others should be made acquainted with their virtues. I am now rendered, by their means comparatively active, and can take exercise without inconvenience or pain, which I could not do before.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF THE GRAVEL AND A MOST DANGEROUS FEVER COMPLAINT.

Copy of a Letter addressed to J. K. Heyden, Esq., Sydney, New South Wales, dated Feb. 25th, 1851.

SIR,—A Mr. Thomas Clark, a Settler at Lake George was for a considerable time seriously afflicted with a Complaint of the Liver, together with the Gravel. His medical attendants, after trying all their skill, candidly told him that his case was hopeless, and any further efforts useless. In this situation, and when expecting every day would terminate his existence, a friend recommended him to try Holloway's Pills, and as a forlorn hope he did so, the first gave him considerable relief. He therefore persevered in taking them according to the directions, and is now restored to health. He will feel great pleasure in confirming this statement, or even make an affidavit to the same effect, should it be required.
(Signed) WILLIAM JONES, Proprietor of the Goulburn Herald, New South Wales

DEVINE'S
Compound Pitch Lozenge.

An appeal to matter of fact, and common sense.

IT is that which has so long been sought for, and is in full faith offered to the public as a CERTAIN CURE for and will, in any case where lungs sufficient are left to sustain life, check the ulceration, and raise the patient to health. This is not an idle boast nor is this remedy sent into the market without a thorough trial; but has proved beyond a doubt that what has been asserted CAN BE DONE.

Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup, Costiveness, Asthma, and Consumption,

We do not ask you, reader, to take our word, but those who, but a few weeks ago had given up in despair and are now in the enjoyment of health, and without asking have given us their certificates in favor of this great remedy.

Let all, then, who are afflicted, TRY IT, and if the assertions on each box are not proved after an impartial trial, the price will be returned: when the article is not perfectly satisfactory!

If the Lozenge on being exposed to the air in hot weather should become soft, it is no objection, but rather goes to prove that they are in good condition.

S. D. Fuller & Co., Boston, Proprietors for Devine's Pitch Lozenge, Dr. Corvell's Pain Expeller and Macaronick, a sure cure for the Piles; also, the Yankee Extract, an article warranted to take out all Grease, Oil, Paint, &c., without injury to the finest texture or showing any dust on the part cleansed. All other popular Medicines sold wholesale at the lowest Cash prices.
