PROGRESS OF THE WAR

The outstanding feature of the war reported since our last issue, is the capture of Lemberg in Galicia by the Russians. The battle involved is said to have been one of the greatest in all history, and its results to have been decisive. The Russians also seem to be scoring successes on both sides of the Vistula in East Prussia and West Prussia.

The advance of the German army towards Paris has continued; but Paris now seems not to be the immediate objective, as the advance of the Germain right flank has been diverted into a south-easterly direction, and not direct on Paris. The Allies are impeding the German advance, but are not numerically strong enough to stop it. It is most likely that at the very moment we go to press news will be received that the Germans have actually been checked in France.

The attitude of Turkey is causing some anxiety, as she is being urged by Germany to throw off her neutrality and cooperate with Austria and Germany. German consular officials have been ordered to leave Egypt, where they have been doing their best to stir up an Islamic Holy War. It is said Great Britain has asked the United States government to have ships in Turkish waters to protect christains in the event of such a war being declared.

Cattero is being bombarded on land by Montenegro, and from the sea by British and French war ships, and the fall of this important Austrian naval base is anticipated speedily to follow.

Fresh and continuous evidence is being manifested of the atrocity and barbarity of German military methods in the campaign. "The Goth and the shameless Hun" is now no mere poetical effusion, it is an epithet that will cling with damnable justification.

Persistent rumors tell of Russian troops having been landed in Belgium and France, their route thither being from Archangel via Scotland. The number is said to be over 100,000. It is to be hoped the rumor will be substantiated.

The British nation is proving true to its traditions. We have given much space to the telegraphic report of the speeches of Premier Asquith, Bonar Law, Balfour and Winston Churchill at the Guildhall. It is good reading for all loyal British subjects. Equally good reading is the article we have reprinted from "The Times", by an American writer who gives his impressions of the British people and their temperament and conduct in a great crisis.

We give some figures showing British losses up to the present. The losses of the Germans are said to be over 200,000. They are probably even greatly in excess of this.

Japan is investing Tsingtau by land and from the sea. The German occupation of Kiaochow is doomed,

War enthusiasm prevails throughout Canada, as it undoubtedly does through all the British dominions beyond the seas; but actual information of what the other parts of the Empire are doing is withheld. Though late in the day, we have taken the first opportunity to reprint from the pages of Hansard the speech of Sir George E. Foster at the close of the war session of the Canadian parliament, which assembled on August 18 and prorogued on August 22. It is a speech of a patriot, and its sentiments are the sentiments of the whole Canadian people. If local readers think that too much space is given to what they have already read in the daily papers, we would ask them kindly to bear in mind that the BEACON is the only Canadain paper read by a large number of Canadians living in many parts of the world.

THE PROGRESS OF THE WATERWORKS

We print in this issue a summary of the business transacted at the monthly meeting of the Town Council on Tuesday evening, September 1. We would bespeak a careful study on the part of the ratepayers of the Town of the report submitted by Alderman Magee, chairman of a special committee of the Council to inquire into the cost of an efficient water supply and a street lighting system for the Town. At the committee's request, they were discharged,—it is hoped, with a caution. Those who are obstructing the introduction of a system of water supply continue to score, just as the Germans have continued their advance in the war now being waged in Europe. Both the obstructionists and the Germans may ultimately be defeated. The triumph of right over might must certainly prevail in the end.

Who are the real obstructionists who are withholding from the people of St. Andrews the exact facts and figures in reference to the feasibility and the cost of a municipal water supply system?

THE WORLD AGAINST THE WAR LORD

(N. Y. Evening Post.)

If we dwell as we do on the crime of Louvain, it is because its significance lies in the revelation not of any horrible savagery of nature, but of the character of that militarism which dominates the councils of the Kaiser and of the German imperialist bureaucracy.

To say that in those circles imperialist militarism has become a religion is to put the case too mildly; no religion of the Western world in our time has laid upon its followers a hold like that. Of the German militarist cult, the very essence is the absolute supremacy of its claims over all other human considerations whatsoever. It is this which accounts for the unhesitating and unqualified support given by the Kaiser's government to the Austrian ultimatum to Servia; that this could mean nothing less than the monstrous war into which the world has been plunged was as clear as noonday, but the appalling responsibility did not stay the Kaiser's hand, nor swerve him from his position by a hair's breadth. And the rest is all of a piece. He who wills the end wills the means, is an old maxim; but rarely has it been applied with the machine-like consistency exemplified by the German military autocracy. Louvain is only Zabern writ large; the finger-print of the militarist, with his ruthless motto of Thorough, is on the one as plainly as on the other. It is the profound realization of this fact which, above all other things, accounts for the almost utter absence of symbathy with Germany in this conflict.

CAMPOBELLO DOES HER SHARE

A splendid picnic in aid of the Red Cross Society was held at Campobello Island on Thursday last. Heavy thunder showers accompanied by rain in the early morning threatened to cause a postponement of the event. By ten o'clock, however, it had completely cleared away and the sun was shining lovingly on the calm waters of the harbor. Soon all was a scene of activity and gaiety, accompanied by the sweet strains of music by the Lubec Brass Band. All the yachts in the harbor were dressed with bunting, the flags of the Allies were everywhere floating to the gentle breeze, and a little further out the grey hull of the United States destroyer "Patterson" gave a fitting back ground to the brilliant pageant.

The water sports began at 11 a.m., and were keenly contested. The programme was lengthy, including dinghy races, Indian canoe races, motor boat races, swimming and high diving contests, concluded by a magnificent race between two whale boats from the "Patterson." It is needless to state that the crew of the "Patterson" were the recipients of hearty Canadian cheers when landing at the dock.

Leaving the water front the crowd wended their way to the Picnic grounds at the Tyn-y-coed hotel. No expense had been spared in decorating the grounds, which were beautiful to behold. Here delicious chowders and refreshments were served until 2.30. Then the land sports began. For two hours hotly contested races for boys and girls were carried on. A match game of base ball between the team from the "Patterson" and the "Campobello All Stars," was won by the local team. The Campobello men also won an exciting tug-of-war contest with the jolly U. S. tars.

In the evening a Grand Ball was held in the Inn Casino, which was largely attended. A feature of the dance was an exhibition of the Indian War Dance, given by twelve members of the Passamaquoddy tribe in full war paint and feathers.

The net proceeds of the day and evening amounted to nearly $400, which were handed over to Vice Admiral Basil Cochrane, R. N., to be forwarded to the British Red Cross Society.

Campobello Island has done herself proud in this matter, and has set a worthy example for other small places to follow. The committees in charge are to be congratulated on the excellent manner in which the events were carried out. The success of the affair, however, is in a large measure due to the great assistance given by our American summer colony, who gave both time and money freely. While the President of the United States has declared the neutrality of his government and people in the war, we of Campobello are conscious of the fact that there is no neutrality of heart and sympathy, and in that respect our American summer visitors are our Allies in the truest and best sense.

In addition to the amount raised by the picnic for the British Red Cross, the ladies of the island, including the American tourists, have now ready a box of clothing for the Canadian branch, which is worth two hundred dollars.

OBITUARY

HARRY B. SHAW

Mrs. M. N. Cockburn received a telegram on Wednesday last, containing the sad news of the death of her brother Mr. Harry B. Shaw at Nanaimo, B. C., that day. The deceased was the second son of the late Joseph Shaw who was well known in railroad circles in this Province, during the days of the old New Brunswick and Canada Railway Company regime.

Harry B. Shaw was born in St. Andrews 48 years ago, and went to British Columbia when a very young man, and was in reality a pioneer settler in that Province. He knew Vancouver when a small village of only a few houses. When the Klondike gold fever turned the heads of so many people into the frozen regions of the North, Mr. Shaw was among the number who sought wealth in that way, and endured hardships in what proved a fruitless search, in his case at least. During that trying experience, his health became impaired, and he has never since enjoyed good health.

The deceased married Miss Agnes Chisholm of Boston, who survives him, with two sons, Joseph Hayes Shaw, and John Melville Shaw, and one daughter Mrs. J. E. MacGregor of Nanaimo, B C. He is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. M. N. Cockburn of St. Andrews, and Mrs. J. E. Evans of Vancouver, B. C., and one brother J. Hayes Shaw of Portland, Oregon.

CAPTAIN JOHN SIMPSON

The death occurred at an early hour on Friday, of Capt. John Simpson at the age of 72. The Captain had been in ill health for over a month, but his death came very suddenly. He was a native of Deer Island and was twice married. His first wife was a Miss Cook of Deer Island by whom he had two children. His second wife was Miss Sarah Ross, of this place. He is survived by a widow, a son, Aaron of Fairville, and a sister, Mrs. Jos. Kilpatrick. Saturday evening the Rev. G. H. Elliott, Rector of All Saint's Church held a funeral service at the home of the deceased. The choir of All Saint's was in attendance and rendered the favourite hymns of the deceased. On Sunday morning the body was taken to Deer Island and laid beside the remains of his first wife and little daughter. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. The deceased was connected with the Eastern Steamship Company for many years. The last few years he was pilot on the "Governor Cobb." During his service he made many friends, and his genial personality will be greatly missed on the route.

GILBERT S. WALL.

St. Stephen, N. B., Sept. 4—Gilbert S. Wall passed away suddenly at his home this morning at the age of eighty years. He was about town yesterday, and last week had returned from a pleasant visit with friends in Westmorland County. Mr. Wall was for many years a prominent business man of this town, having been engaged in the book and stationery business, but retired from business a few years ago. He was a member of the Methodist Church, and a member of its trustee and quarterly official boards. He leaves two sons, Harry L., and John N. Wall, conducting business in this town, and one daughter, Mrs. H. H. Johnson, of New Glasgow, N. S. The funeral will take place from his late residence on Sunday afternoon.

—St. John Telegraph

The death occurred suddenly Saturday evening of Miss Margaret Stoop. The deceased, who was a daughter of the late Hugh Stoop, Esx., was seventy years old. Miss Stoop had been down town at ten o'clock that evening and was apparently in good health. She is survived by one sister, Miss Bella and a brother, James both of St. Andrews. The funeral was held Monday afternoon by the Rev. Wm. Eraser, pastor of Greenock Church. The pall-bearers were the Messrs. Richard Keay, Albert Shaw, Eber Polleys, Herbert Lamb.

We regret to have to record the death, at Oakland, Cal., of Millie (née Hooper), aged 31 years, the beloved wife of Albert P. Whitten, and sister of Mrs. Minnie Campbell and Capt. A. T. Hooper. She is survived by her husband and four children, three girls and one boy. Mrs. Whitten was a native of St. Andrews.

THE MASSACRE OF THE MACPHERSON

FHAIRSHON swore a feud
Against tbe clan M'Tavish;
Marched into their land
To murder and to rafish;
For he did resolve
To extirpate the vipers,
With four-and-twenty men
And five-and-thirty pipers.

But when he had gone
Half-way down Strath Canaan,
Of his fighting tail
Just three were remainin'.
They were all he had
To back him in ta battle;
All the rest had gone
Off, to drive ta cattle.

'Fery coot!' cried Fhairshon,
'So my clan disgraced is;
Lads, we'll need to fight
Pefore we touch the peasties.
Here's Mhic-Mac-Methusaleh
Coming wi' his fassals,
Gillies seventy-three
And sixty Dhuinéwassils!'

'Coot tay to you, sir;
Are you not ta Fhairshon?
Was you coming here
To fisit any person?
You are a plackguard, sir!
It is now six hundred
Coot long years and more,
Since my glen was plundered.'

'Fat is tat you say?
Dare you cock your peaver?
I will teach you, sir,
Fat is good pehaviour!
You shall not exist
For another day more;
I will shoot you, sir,
Or stap you with my claymore!'

'I am fery glad
To learn what you mention,
Since I can prevent
Any such intention.'
So Mhic-Mac-Methusaleh
Gave some war-like howls,
Trew his skhian-dhu,
An' stuck it in his powels.

In this fiery way
Tied ta faliant Fhairshon,
Who was always thought
A superior person.
Fhairshon had a son
Who married Noah's daughter,
And nearly spoiled ta Flood,
By trinking up ta water.

Which he would have done,
I at least pelieve it,
Had ta mixture peen
Only half Glenlivet.
This is all my tale:
Sirs, I hope 'tis new t'ye!
Here's your fery good healths,
And tamn ta whusky duty!

LINEN AND THE WAR

YARNS to make Linen are largely the product of Belgium, France and Russia; and in consequence of the War these sources of supply have been cut off.

The leading Scottish Linen Manufacturer in Dunfermline writes to say that his stock of yarns will be finished in three months; and the great firm at Randallstown, Ireland, is refusing all new orders.

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY NO CHANGE IN PRICES

In April and May we personally selected and bought about twice our usual supply of LINEN, and the goods all came safely to hand.

Our prices were made up from the Manufacturers' Lists issued last winter, and we are making no advance whatever on those prices, which will hold as long as our stock lasts.

Our present stock of LINEN is of greater variety than before, and is of the same quality as we have invariably sold hitherto.

Our NEW CATALOGUE is ready and will be sent to anyone applying for it.
