POETRY.

EXTRACT from the RISING VILLAGE, just published, with other poems, by OLIVER GOLDSMITH, Esq. a descendant of the celebrated author of the same name.

Oh, heaven-born faith! sure solace of our woes,
How lost is he who ne'er thy influence knows,
How cold the heart thy charity ne'er fires,
How dead the soul thy spirit ne'er inspires!
When troubles vex and agitate the mind,
By gracious Heaven for wisest ends designed,
When dangers threaten, or when fears invade,
Man flies to thee for comfort and for aid;
The soul, impelled by thy all-powerful laws,
Seeks safety, only, in a Great First Cause!
If, then, amid the busy scene of life,
Its joy and pleasure, care, distrust, and strife;
Man, to his God for help and succour flies,
And on his mighty power to save, rely;
If, then, his thoughts can force him to confess,
His errors, wants, and utter helplessness;
How strong must be those feelings which impart
A sense of all his weakness to his heart,
Where not a friend in solitude is nigh,
His home the wild, his canopy the sky;
And, far removed from every human arm,
His God alone can shelter him from harm.

While now the Rising Village claims a name,
Its limits still increase and still its fame.
The wandering Pedlar, who undaunted traced
His lonely footsteps o'er the silent waste;
Who traversed once the cold and snow-clad plain,
Reckless of danger, trouble, or of pain,
To find a market for his little wares,
The source of all his hopes, and all his cares,
Established here, his settled home maintains,
And soon a merchant's higher title gains.
Around his store, or spacious shelves arrayed,
Behold his great and various stock in trade.
Here, nails and blankets, side by side, are seen,
There, horses collars, and a large tureen;
Buttons and tumblers, fish-hooks, spoons and knives,
Shawls for young damsels, flannel for old wives;
Woolcards and stockings, hats for men and boys,
Mill-saws and fenders, silks, and children's toys;
All useful things, and joined with many more,
Compose the well-assorted country store.

GENTLEMEN'S VADE MECUM.

EMBRACING DRAMATIC LITERATURE—SPORTING—THE TURF—FASHIONS—AND VARIOUS SUBJECTS OF INTEREST AND AMUSEMENT.

About the first of January, 1835, will be commenced in PHILADELPHIA, a new periodical, bearing the above comprehensive title. Its contents will be carefully adapted to the wants of that portion of the public who patronize DRAMATIC LITERATURE, the TURF, SPORTING, and the FASHIONS. From the growing wealth and increasing population of the United States, and the near assimilation of the national appetite with whatever promotes the Rational recreations of Life, it is presumed that this Journal,—possessing, as the projector of it will, ample means to diversify its pages, and a determination to render them subservient to the formation of a correct taste in all matters relating to its design, cannot fail to meet with a liberal and reliable support from an enlightened community in every quarter of the country. The difficulty of selecting out such a plan as might be fancifully strewed with any of the charms of novelty to ensure it popularity and encouragement, has been not the least embarrassing obstacle which the projectors of this work had to surmount in its inception. Feeling confidently assured, however, that its success is certain, when its character becomes properly known, they have already incurred considerable expense in forming correspondents over the Union; and have also ordered regular supplies of the best selected English periodicals to assist in procuring materials for its columns.

It is not altogether feasible, when a new publication is contemplated, to present in detail to the public its prospective attractions. It is necessary, nevertheless, that its principal features should be drawn out, as it is by them that its merits, if it has any, shall be judged. This is the more readily accomplished the publishers being satisfied that whatever industry and a watchful zeal can effect in completing the filling up, will be done, and that they never will be found deficient or neglectful in the prosecution of this enterprize, and in striving to produce a beneficial and profitable result to themselves and to others.

THE DRAMA.—Will form a material portion of the Gentleman's Vade Mecum. It is intended to publish it accurately every week, one entire play and farce—to be selected with a single eye to their merits alone as productions of literature, will be executed in all cases by native productions when they can be obtained. Independently of this, carefully executed original criticisms, carefully executed criticisms upon the performances and reputations of the various companies and individuals engaged in their service, will be inserted, besides Biographical Sketches, Anecdotes and Fun Many of the most eminent performers of the present and preceding generations are still living, and can furnish many interesting reminiscences.

THE TURF.—A lot of forty cuts will be kept of all the Running and Trotting matches in this country and England. Biographies and correct Portraits of celebrated running and trotting Horses will be published once a month. Especial attention to the breeding, management, training and the success of this important branch of the sports of the field will be carefully selected.

SPORTING.—Under this division will be enumerated accounts of shooting, Archery, Pedestrian Feats, Gymnastic Exercises, Aquatic Excursions, Fishing, Gaming, &c. with Anecdotes of noted Dogs.

GENTLEMEN'S FASHIONS.—A quarterly review will be presented, explanatory of the various improvements and changes costumes worn in the fashionable circles constantly undergo; by which it will be rendered an easy task for drapers and tailors at a distance, to suit their customers with the most approved colors and modern style of dress, at the earliest possible periods. Provided sufficient encouragement shall be given by this portion of the public, a full length engraving, illustrative of the same, will also be prepared and published.

MISCELLANY.—Although the purposes of our sheet may appear to be confined to the four leading subjects which have been stated—we deem it proper to say, that there will be, in addition to these, a considerable space allowed for Miscellaneous matters—such as Tales—Poetry—an Epitome of News—List of Hotels in this city, and places of Amusement—Statistics—the Grain Market—Agriculture—Prices of Stock—List of Broken Banks—Counterfeit Note Detector—and all other matters, regarding which an interest may be supposed to exist at home or abroad.

This work, then, as will be seen by the above explanation of its probable character, is particularly designed as a companion for the patrons of the Turf, the Drama, Sporting, the Fashions, &c. &c. It will prove, also,—as it is publication of facts will be authentic.—"ready Reference of Reference for Travelling Gentlemen, and should consequently be kept in every hotel in the United States. It is worthy of notice that its patrons, in the course of one year, will be furnished with fifty two popular Plays and Farces—the price of which, separately, at any of our book stores, would be at least THIRTY-TWO DOLLARS! Here there is an absolute saving of ten dollars in the purchase of a well-stored Dramatic Library—to be had for an unprecedented small sum!—not taking into consideration the multiplied variety which is to accompany it without additional charge. Tailors who desire to procure early and correct information of the changes in dress, will find this an invaluable guide.

THE GENTLEMEN'S VADE MECUM, &c. will be published every Saturday, on fine imperial paper, of the largest class, at three dollars per annum, PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.

By enclosing a FIVE DOLLAR NOTE to the publishers, post-age paid, two copies of the paper will be forwarded to any direction ordered, for one year. It is respectfully requested that those who desire to subscribe for this Journal will forward their names immediately—the terms will be strictly adhered to.

PUBLICATIONS.

LILLY WAIT & Co. BOSTON.

To Parents, Teachers, School Committees, and all who feel an interest in the Improvement of Youth.

It is only one year since Parley's Magazine was commenced. During that short period the number of subscribers has increased to 20,000 and the work has received, every where, the most unqualified approbation. It has found its way to thousands of families, and while it has entertained the social circle, its unobtrusive lessons have, we hope, often had a salutary influence on the Juvenile mind and heart. It has also found its way to the school room; and many classes of young pupils have been cheered twice a month by the welcome voice of the teacher bidding them to lay aside, for a few days, the class book which they have read over and over, perhaps twenty times, and read the pages of Parleys Magazine.—The demand for the work, to be used in schools, is rapidly increasing. Encouraged by such unexampled success, the Publishers resolved to render it still more worthy of so liberal a patronage and not to remit their exertions till they see it introduced into families and schools, through the whole length and breadth of the United States.—In this view they have secured the aid of the late Editor of the Juvenile Rambler; who has the advantage of many years experience, not only as a writer for the youth, but as a Teacher.

Among the topics which we propose to present in this volume are the following

I. Natural History—Beasts, birds, fishes, reptiles, insects, plants, flowers, trees, the human frame, &c.

II. Biography Especially of the young.

III. Geography Accounts of places, manners us toms, &c.

IV. Travels and Voyages, in various parts of he world.

V. Descriptions of the Curiosities of Nature and Art, in the United tates, and in other countries.

VI. Lessons on Objects around Children in the Nursery, Parlor, Garden, &c. Trades and Employmen.

VII Particular duties of the young—to Parents Teachers Brothers, sisters, &c.

VIII. Bible Lessons and stories.

IX. Narratives—uch as are well authenticated Original stories.

X. Parables Fables and Proverbs, where the morals obvious and excellent.

XI. Poetry adapted to the Youthful capacity and feelings.

XII Intelligence Embracing accounts of Juvenile Books, societies, and Remarkable Occurrences.

Many of these subjects will be illustrated by numerous and beautiful engravings prepared by the best artists, and selected not only with a view to adorn the work, but to improve the taste, cultivate the mind, and raise the affections of the young to appropriate and worthy objects. We would make them better children, better brothers, better sisters, better pupils, better associates, and in the end, better citizens.

May we not ask the co-operation of all who receive this Circular, in the great work of forming the youthful mind and character? Will you not lend us your aid and influence, in endeavouring to introduce to the American schools, and parlours, and fire sides, the stories and lessons of Parley's Magazine?

The yearly subscription being but one DOLLAR our friends will perceive the impracticability of keeping open so many thousand accounts. It is therefore indispensible that we should require payment in advance.

The price of the Magazine is $1 year six copies for $5, twenty copies for $15, or twenty five quarterly parts for $5. Payment in all cases to be made in advance.

Subscriptions for the above received at the Office of the STANDARD.

LADIES BOOK,

A Monthly Magazine, containing Tales, original and Selected, Moral and Scientific Essays, Poetry, from the best Authors, the Quarterly representation of Ladies' Fashions,—adopted in Philadelphia colored. Music of the newest styles &c. &c.

Published regularly on the first day of every month
At No. 3, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, PHILADELPHIA.

Embellished with a beautiful and extensive variety of engravings, from original and selected designs, both coloured and plain, with two engraved title pages, and two distinct indexes, (intended to perfect separate volumes in the year) also, a choice collection of Music, original and selected, arranged for the piano or guitar, with nearly 650 pages large octavo letter press, and only

$3 PER ANNUM.

Each number of this periodical contains 45 pages of extra royal octavo letter press, printed with clear, new, and beautiful type, (arranged after the manner of the London "La Belle Assemblee,") on paper of the finest texture and whitest colour. It is embellished with splendid Engravings on copper and steel, executed by artists of the highest skill and destination and embracing every variety of subjects. Among these are illustrations of Popular Legends, Romantic Incidents, Attractive Scenery, and portraits of Illustrious Females. The number commencing each quarter contains a picture of the existing Philadelphia Fashions, designed, engraved and coloured expressly for this work, by competent persons especially engaged for that purpose. The Embellishments of this character which have appeared in former numbers, are confessedly superior to any which have been furnished in any other similar American publication, and from the arrangements which have been made, there is every reason to believe they will be improved in the coming volumes. In addition to the Embellishments just referred to, every number contains several Engravings on wood, representing foreign and native scenes, curious and interesting subjects, Natural history, Entomology, Mineralogy, Conchology, Humorous incidents, Ornamental Productions, Embroidery, and other needle work, Riding, Dancing &c. besides one or more pieces of popular Music, arranged for the Piano or Guitar.

Every six numbers of the work form an elegant volume suitable for binding and with these are furnished gratuitously a superbly engraved title page and a general index of contents. The Terms of the Lady's Book are $3 in advance. Persons remitting Ten Dollars shall be entitled to four copies of the work. Persons remitting Fifteen Dollars shall be entitled to six copies of the work, and additional copies of the two engravings. Persons procuring Ten New Subscribers, and forwarding the cash for the same, besides a discount of fifteen per cent, shall be presented with a copy of the third volume of the work superbly bound.

RE-PUBLICATION

OF THE
LONDON, EDINBURGH, FOREIGN, AND WESTMINSTER
QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

Plan of the Work.

The numbers of each work are published separately, and form an exact reprint of the original copies. They are issued as soon after they are received from Europe, as is consistant with their proper publication.

Price for the whole series, comprising the regular numbers of the London, Edinburgh, Foreign, and Westminster Reviews, $8 per annum.

To those who take less than the whole, the terms will be as follows:—

For three of them $7 per annum.
For two " 5 "
For one " 3 "

These subscriptions are invariably to be paid within three months of the time of subscribing From this rule there will be no deviation.

Subscribers at a distance must enclose at least one half of a year's subscription, in advance, otherwise a second number will not be sent—the terms being so low as not to justify any hazard in obtaining payment.

The cost of these works when imported is $32 Of the three at present republished, two of them alone, the London and Edinburgh, cost $10. The Westminster, not being re-publish, ed, can only be obtained at the importing price, $8 per annum, or $2 per number. The Foreign Quarterly is re-published in weekly parts in connexion with two other periodicals. When obtained separately, its cost is the same as the Westminster.

TO MAIL SUBSCRIBERS.

Mail subscribers will be furnished with the numbers of this publication free of postage, upon the following terms, to wit:

For either of them $4 per annum.
For two 6 "
For three 8 "
For four 10 "

The publisher is only enabled to do this by its saving the expense of agencies, consequently communication must be made with him personally FREE OF CHARGE.

It will be seen by these conditions, that the subscriber who receives all four of the Quarterlies, will obtain them for $6 exclusive of postage, or $2 cheaper than he otherwise could, the postage being about $4 per annum, or 25 cts. on each number that is forwarded upwards of one hundred miles.

☞ Postage will not be paid on any number unless payment is received for at least one year's subscription in advance, according to the terms, as here given.

☞ No letters will be taken from the post office; unless sent free of charge.
