ALBION

PROSPECTUS OF THE FOURTH VOLUME OF
A JOURNAL OF THE NEWS, POLITICS, AND LITERATURE OF EUROPE.

The fourth volume of the New Series of THE ALBION commenced on the first Saturday of the present year, 1836.

This Journal, which embodies the News Politics and Literature of Europe more particularly of Great Britain, has been established nearly Fourteen Years and has obtained a reputation and circulation far surpassing the most sanguine expectations of its founders. This flattering encouragement has enabled the Proprietor, on three separate occasions, to improve, enlarge, and embellish the work, and to throw into its pages such an increased quantity of political, literary, and scientific matter, as to render it, in the estimation of its friends, one of the most efficient weekly journals in the English language.

In its details the ALBION will be found to embrace Notices and copious extracts from all the new publications of value issuing from the British Press, the Debates in both Houses of Parliament, with the most remarkable speeches at length—and the general intelligence of the British Empire, the Continent of Europe, and other parts of the globe. Hints highly pertinent will be found in the most amusing and agreeable Tales of the British Periodicals, which are so remarkable for their lively and sparkling tone and so conducted with a diligence and care that has drawn forth the most unqualified approbation. Any thing that tends in the remotest degree to shock female delicacy, or to offend national affection, is carefully excluded; by which course this paper has become an inmate of the most respectable and intellectual families, and may be found in the Drawing Rooms and on the tables of the most literary persons on the North American Continent.

Poetry, History, Biography, Music, and the Drama receive distinct and proper attention, while Travels, Voyages, and Geographical Discoveries, Voyages, and Notes and Comments are faithfully recorded. The Wit of Anecdotes of the great European World,—the Lord Edward Parisian Fashions, and a weekly summary of the Miscellaneous intelligence of the day complete the message.

Every weekly volume contains about five and twenty pieces of new and fashionable English, French, Spanish, and Italian Music, together with frequent Maps, Plans, Sketches, and Diagrams, illustrative of subjects treated of in the general scope of the work. At the end of each volume a handsome Title Page and copious and well arranged Index to present to each subscriber.

The ALBION is published every Saturday morning in the Quarto form, on a large imperial sheet of extra fine paper printed with beautiful type, and forming a flat paper printed with beautiful type, and forming at the end of the year a handsome Title Page and copious and well arranged Index to present to each subscriber.
