NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

On the 1st of July 1837. will be published beautifully printed on good paper and stitched in a wrapper, extra large royal octavo, the first number of a

NEW PERIODICAL WORK
ENTITLED
THE GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE.

EDITED BY WILLIAM E. BURTON, PHILADELPHIA.

The announcement of a new Periodical, in the present state of affairs, may create some feeling of surprise, but having contemplated an operation in the nature of a very popular monthly publication, "Every Boy's Album," the proprietors deem it best to proceed in the perfected arrangements, and produce a periodical embodying the most whole some points of the old work, but conducted with sufficient energy and talent to ensure the success of their new arrangements. The respectable and extensive subscription list of the Album, to which this work is designated as a successor, will at once place The Gentleman's Magazine in a circulation equal to the Monthly Work issued in the United States of any other monthly work in the Union; and guarantee the continuance of its publication with the certainty of payment to the enterprise of the proprietors.

The contents of the Gentleman's Magazine will in every respect, be answerable to the meaning of the title. We do not pretend in our literary pursuits to fly as the eagle's soar, above the ken of men, nor shall we be content with merely skimming the surface of the ground; our pages will not be filled with abstruse predications, nor shall we display "caviare to the million." In short we do not mean to be profoundly learned, nor philosophically dull. We wish to produce a gentlemanly, agreeable book—an epitome of life's adjunctives—a literary melange, possessing variety to suit all palates and sufficient interest to command a place upon the parlor table of every gentleman in the United States.

In the varied and ample range of contents attached to each number of the Gentleman's Magazine original articles will be found, from some of the most celebrated writers of the day—essays, humorous and dramatic—graphical descriptions of men and manners—fine and spirited translations of the choicest portions of the Literature of Continental Europe—critical notices of the principal works of original and biographical merit—and the principal scenes in the Dramatic World of London. The current literature will be reviewed in full, and liberal extracts made from rare and valuable works. An original copy right can not otherwise to be obtained, will be given, with the music, in every number.

The Gentleman's Magazine will contain seventy two extra sized octavo pages, of two columns each forming, at the close of the year, two large and some volumes of one thousand seven hundred and twenty eight columns, each column containing One hundred more than an octavo page of average proportion. Several engravings will be given in the course of the year; and the proprietors pledge themselves that the Gentleman's Mag zine shall be

THE CHEAPEST AND THE GREATEST
Monthly Work issued in the United States.

The terms subscription to the work in advance will be, the publishers hope to offer the following inducements for Clubbing the advantages of which proposition can remain in force for a few months only. The subscription to the Gentleman's Magazine will be for a single copy to be carefully transmitted by mail, payable in advance—but a five dollar bill will produce two copies to the same direction, or a club of ten dollars will command five copies.

All letters, postage paid, addressed to CHARLES ALEXANDER, Arcadian Buildings, Franklin Place Philadelphia, will meet with the earliest attention.

☞ Editors occasionally inserting this prospectus, and forwarding a marked paper, will be entitled to an exchange.

Subscriptions for the above Work received at this Office.
