all the cavi our of these dreary regions.—From the beginning of March till the 15th of that month a continuation of storms impeded their progress, and forced them to encamp so frequently that their food was nearly gone when they were over 100 miles from their journey's end. On the 17th a most furious snow and sleet storm arose and enveloped them in a plain five miles from any shelter. The guide and one of the party gained a small wood, another gentleman was thrown down and covered by a cloud of drifting snow, and the third was left behind in a kind of sheltered place, being unable to proceed. The guide and stronger traveller went forward next day and arrived in a couple of days at the American Company's trading house, Lake Travers; having subsisted on a dog, which they killed for this purpose. Men were immediately despatched for the two persons left behind; who found one of them dead and frozen. His name is Parys, a Pole and formerly an officer in the Polish army. He fought in all the great battles of the desperate Polish struggle. On the fall of Warsaw he went to England, and last Spring he went to the United States. He was about 37 years old. The person who perished in the snow drift could not be found, although the search was kept up for several days. He was a youth of twenty one; his name Hayes, a native of Glenmire, County Cork, Ireland. He lived at Lachine, Lower Canada. This narrative is given that the melancholly fate of these unfortunate travellers, may by its means, become known to their friends and relatives; and however poor the consolation to those of Mr Parys, it may be some satisfaction to learn that he was decently interred near the Fur Company's establishment at lake Travers.

Died.

At Newton-Stewart, on the 24th ult., Mr. Peter Ker, formerly of the Island of Grenada—much regretted by his relations and friends.

Resolved, That the following address be printed for circulation in the County.

TO THE

INDEPENDENT ELECTORS OF CHARLOTTE COUNTY.

Gentlemen,

The lamented death of our late revered Monarch having caused a dissolution of our Provincial Parliament, you will be again called on to exercise your elective franchise.

We have had on all past occasions of the kind too much mere party work. The exigencies of the time call for the enlightened co-operation of all good men.

In the ensuing Session matters of the gravest importance will come under the consideration of your Representatives. The Casual Revenue will be a bone of contention, particularly with the wealthy and influential members of St. John and its dependencies, and unless our Representatives do, in a manly and able manner, meet the question, the interests of Charlotte, must unquestionably suffer. Let us therefore, Brother Freeholders, in the exercise of our high privilege, evince our sense of its great importance, by selecting men who are influential,—of enlarged and liberal views—of an energetic and persevering character—men, who besides having a deep stake in the Agricultural, Manufacturing and Commercial interests of the County, not only have the mind to comprehend, but the ability and the will, in every situation, against the powerful and the designing, nobly to sustain these your great interests. And where can we meet with a man, who in himself combines all these qualifications in so high a degree as

JAMES RAITT?

We, therefore, as a Committee, publicly chosen to act until his hourly expected return takes place, do offer him as a CANDIDATE for your support, under the firm conviction, that by the choice of such a man, you will maintain your high character for intelligence, and best serve the growing interests of our flourishing County.

We have the honor to remain,
Gentlemen,
Your Obed't Servts.
35tf. THE COMMITTEE.

To the INDEPENDENT ELECTORS of the COUNTY OF CHARLOTTE.

GENTLEMEN,

By the late dissolution of the General Assembly your public servants are discharged, and you are again called to perform the important duty of choosing such persons as you think proper to be your Representatives.

As a candidate for your favour at the approaching Election, I beg to refer you to the Journals and Debates for a record of my public proceedings—you will there, and there only, be able to ascertain what has been my true political course, and will, I trust, decide accordingly.

I remain Gentlemen,
Your faithful Servant,
JAMES BROWN Jun.

St. David, Sept. 5, 1837. 35 ti.

Mr. Porter from the committee named in the preceding resolution, stated that the committee had seen Mr Hill, and that he was willing to be put in nomination.

On motion of Mr. William Todd, That this meeting learn with much satisfaction the response of Mr Hill to its call, and that we pledge ourselves to use all fair and honourable means to secure his Election.

On motion of Mr Robert Todd, That the thanks of this meeting be given to Mr Hill for his past services as a member of Assembly.

TO THE FREE AND INDEPENDENT ELECTORS Of the County of Charlotte.

Gentlemen,

In compliance with the request of many of my friends in different parts of the County, I have been induced to offer myself a candidate for your suffrages, at the ensuing General Election.

A residence of nearly sixteen years among you, and a strict attention to those great sources of wealth and influence—Agriculture, Lumbering and Commerce, (in each of which I myself have been engaged,) have intimately connected my interests with your own, and have enabled me to form a correct view of that system of Legislation which would be most conducive to the prosperity of this great and flourishing county; and my well known connection with this part of the Province gives you the best assurance that I will watch over your interests with unceasing vigilance, and with that honest independance which has ever marked my whole conduct, if I should be so fortunate as to be the object of your choice.
