

AND COLONIAL CONSERVATIVE

SUBJECTS

KIRWAN'S LETTERS

[illegible]

"I was one day viewing the friends the city of Vienna, admiring the beauty of the surrounding country."

...the Superior, the snow Alps, the wide
...from bottom to top. "Where," said I, "is
...one Protestant church to be erected?" We were
...moving along at the moment a beautiful promenade
...the city, and I said to myself, "This is the
...pastor day to be the finest street in that capital
...Christianity." "In this very street," was the
...selected. The question led to most interesting
...contribution as to the progress of free institutions
...giving, and nobles, and Parliament to secure free
...nation to all to worship God as they deem best.
...During the deep-interesting and eloquent
...ment: "Our English and American friends
...come to see us. We are glad to see them. We
...right views and right institutions; but they often
...unwillingly, do us great injury. They go back
...to their own country, and there they do
...We know of the matter is by means of a
...current agent from Wiseman of London, High
...of New York, for the withdrawal of all privi-

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]