

His father, now far advanced in years, and some twenty summers the senior of his wife, had recently subsided on the pension list; and as about that time the regiment was ordered "down country," to Bangalore, old Yousaf Khan--a native of this place--resolved to accompany us all fairly out of the Nizam's territories, where solitary travelling