ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., JUNE 15, 1901.

THEY WILL BE WELCOME.

His Worship Mayor Daniel informed the Globe yesterday that he had received a letter from the British Naval and Military Veterans' Association of Massachusetts, stating that they will come to St. John to greet the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall.

The Sun some days ago announced that they were coming, with a large party of friends, and the letter therefore merely confirms what was already known. The receipt of the letter is none the less good news, and the Star hastens to give it the publicity it deserves.

The visitors would nowhere receive a warmer welcome than in the city of the Loyalists, and if they spend a couple of days here will doubtless go home again with happy recollections of the city and its people. In their letter to the mayor they say:—"We wish to show that in the United States there is a body of men who have served in every branch of H. M. service, and have not forgotten the old flag." Men of that sort are always welcome in St. John.

SUMMER DAYS.

This is the outing season. The Star has been telling of some fortunate people who have lakes and club houses and all facilities for sport with rod and fly; and of others who find pleasure on streams that are free to all.

This is the season when the streets of the town grow tame and uninteresting, and we long to get back to nature. Happy are they who are able, even for a brief season, to lay aside their cares and go where the fish lurk in tempting pools or the flowers bloom in the waving fields. The cool darkness and restful silence of evenings spent in the country, away from the rattle of cars and the glare of electric lights, is so sweet a pleasure that one envies those who are able to go away from the city every evening to some suburban spot, where nature has spread her bounties with a lavish hand.

Morris K. Jesup, who was one of the New York delegates to London, says the New Yorkers' one trouble was that the English would insist upon calling them millionaires, while in reality there were only two millionaires in the delegation—Morgan and Carnegie. As a result Mr. Jesup added they were "snowed under with begging letters and callers desirous of filling British pockets with American dollars." Mr. Jesup's investigation of the natural history museums has convinced him that the New World has nothing to learn from the Old World. Happy Mr. Jesup.

The news from the lumber drives above Grand Falls is not re-assuring. The water is falling rapidly, and the last rise only brought the logs along a few miles. While a good deal of lumber is in safe waters a large portions is hung-up or in a doubtful position. The recent driving, too, has been very expensive. On the whole, the lumbermen who operated on the headwaters of the St. John last winter are in what is termed hard luck.

In Massachusetts one may see street railway lines running along at one side of the highway, and the condition of the latter has nothing whatever to do with the running of the former. In villages and towns, of course, it is necessary to take the middle of the street. If the St. John street railway company is prepared to meet the city in a fair and equitable arrangement, the extension out along Douglas Avenue need not be delayed.

All is not gold that glitters. The talk about gold buttons for New York's police force was simply talk and nothing more. The police commissioner asserts that there is to be no gold at all about the buttons. They are simply fine gilt with the name New York in prominence. They are to cost less than the old ones, too, so the force can save their nine dollars.

President McKinley is getting many compliments because of his determined assertion that there will be no third term for him, but perhaps the prettiest compliment of all is that tendered him by the New York Mail and Express, which says:—"President McKinley will take his third term in the hearts of his countrymen."

The valued Telegraph announces in very large type that it is not a sensational paper. But this morning it has on its first page a double leaded article with glaring headlines which no other journal in these provinces would be so indecent as to publish.

The Millicete Philosopher of the Sun's evening reprint is most enjoyable. The people laugh at him rather than with him as they remember the fable of the frog who tried to swell himself into the size of an ox. The frog exploded in the operation, it will be remembered.

(The simile is ill-applied. The only explosion hereabouts occur periodically in the Telegraph building, when editors are scattered like chaff. The time may even now be near at hand for another fatal croak.

AN AWARD OF $17,000.

Crown Will Likely Appeal in the J. A. Likely Case.

Dr. Stockton had a despatch from Ottawa yesterday announcing that Judge Burbidge had awarded J. A. Likely $17,000 for the property taken over by the Intercolonial and involved in the recent exchequer court suit. There remains to be settled a claim for land of which the ownership is disputed, but which Mr. Likely says was his. The arbitrators' award, which Mr. Likely did not accept, valued Mr. Likely's interest at a little over $11,000. For the portions settled by this judgment he receives $17,000, together with six per sent interest from August, 1898, and costs. For another piece of land taken over, Mr. Likely accepted the award of $15,000, so that exclusive of interest, he has received $32,000 for property so far adjudicated upon.

There were 28,100 square feet and the $17,000 would come to a fraction over 60c. per square foot. Mr. Likely claimed $2 per square foot. The valuators' award, which Mr. Likely refused to accept, was 50c. per square foot for a part, and 25c. per square foot for the rest, making $11,600 in all. The valuators were J. McGregor Grant, M. B. Edwards, and F. G. J. Knowlton. The crown will in all probability appeal to the supreme court against Judge Burbidge's decision.

With regard to the other block of land for which Mr. Likely received $15,000, it was a fraction over 8,000 square feet and the arbitrators were D. J. McLaughlin for Mr. Likely, Arthur Adams for the government, and T. H. Estabrooks for the third.

In the first case referred to E. H. MacAlpine appeared for the crown and Dr. Stockton and H. H. McLean for Mr. Likely.

PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

OTTAWA, June 14.—At the Presbyterian General Assembly this morning a committee was appointed to prepare loyal addresses to the King and governor-general. A committee was appointed to deal with the matter of the revision of the book of forms, not however to suggest any radical departure from the practices of the church. The resignation of Dr. Proudfoot from the staff of Knox College, Toronto, was accepted, and Rev. Halliday Douglas, of Cambridge, Eng., appointed to succeed him at a salary of $2500 per year. A motion that a Canadian be appointed was voted down. Principal Grant submitted the report of Queen's University, which he said led the way and first opened the doors to all creeds and sexes. Rev. Dr. Campbell, agent of the century fund, reported receipts of $1,025,000 and said he believed it would reach $1,500,000. He believed further that the day was not far distant when the church would raise annually $1,000,000 for the advancement of Christ's cause. The question why only $15,000 had been granted from the century fund to Dalhousie College, while other educational institutions of the church would each receive $40,000 was discussed at some length and Dr. Pollok suggested that the century fund ask for an appropriation of $50,000 to help in sections such as those at Halifax and Ottawa. At the evening session foreign missions were discussed.

ST. JOHN CO. W. C. T. U.

St. John county W. C. T. U. met in Union hall, north end, yesterday afternoon and evening. Mrs. Long of Fairville lead the opening exercises and Mrs. (Dr.) Grey occupied the chair. The report of the general secretary and of the several societies showed a year of active work, visiting the sick, distributing aid, visiting the Home for Incurables, the hospital, the Little Girls' home, aiding the Glad Tidings mission and extending funds to aid the needy during a very hard winter. Mrs. Hanselpacker and Mrs. Baisley referred to the matter of the memorial fountain. Satisfactory reports were received from Carleton, Fairville and St. Martins. Mrs. Retallick spoke of Sunday school work, which was also discussed by others. Mrs. Grey addressed 12 little girls who have been formed into a "Y" union in connection with the north end society. Mrs. S. D. Scott explained what was being done with regard to the Frances Murray memorial. At the close of the session the delegates were entertained at tea in the building and a public meeting was held in the evening.

Fisher, of the Central Methodist church, Moncton, will preach the re-opening sermon on Sunday morning and Rev. R. S. Crisp, of Wesley Memorial, will preach afternoon and evening.

POLICE REGULATIONS.

Some Announcements Made—They Will Go Into Operation July 1st.

At the adjourned meeting of the common council yesterday, the remaining police regulations were taken up. Section 5, giving the chief power to reduce an officer from one rank to another was struck out.

Section 6 was amended so as to read: Men on appointment to the force must be between the ages of 22 and 35 years. They must be citizens and rate payers, and must be at least 5 feet 9 inches in height.

The applicant must present a satisfactory medical certificate of his physical fitness for the position with his application.

Section 7, in regard to pay while off duty was struck out.

8. Ten days holidays in each year shall be allowed to each member of the force with full pay. The rotation shall be determined by the chief of police.

Section eight was adopted after being amended so as to read "may" instead of "shall," and with the addition of the words, "with the consent of the chairman of the board of public safety," after the words "with full pay."

9. Members of the force are at all times to conform to and obey all lawful orders promulgated from time to time by the chief of police which are not inconsistent herewith.

This section was adopted.

Ald. Armstrong moved that section 10 read: These rules may be changed from time to time at the will of the common council.

The original section 10 was adopted:

10. Applicants for appointment to the police force and present members of the force before promotion must, and present members of the force are expected to signify their assent to these rules and to be governed thereby by signing before appointment or promotion, or now, as the case may be, a declaration as follows:

I have read the foregoing rules and agree that my appointment upon the Saint John city police force, and my promotion therein, is in every way subject to the terms thereof, and I agree to be governed thereby.

Dated day of A. D. 19.

The report was adopted as amended, and will be put into force July 1st.

SENT UP FOR TRIAL.

MONCTON, June 14.—John Dujay, the young man employed in the express office at Shediac, charged with stealing a bag of gold being sent by express from Eastport to Mr. Guptil, the Point du Chene fish dealer, was this morning committed for trial.

C. P. R. TRACKMEN ORDERED OUT

MONTREAL, June 14.—The C. P. R. management having failed to reply to the final demands of the committee of trackmen, Grand Master Wilson, of the Brotherhood of Railway Trackmen, has ordered a strike over the whole road from the Atlantic to the Pacific, to begin Monday next. The order affects over 3,000 men.

KING'S DAUGHTERS.

The session of the King's Daughters was concluded yesterday afternoon.

The recording secretary, Miss Edith S. Stewart, reported the results of the meetings and entertainments during the year. The receipts from the Evangeline concert had been $219.74. The different circles had been assessed for payment on the mortgage the following amounts: Ministering, $50; Doorkeepers, $20; Lend a Hand, $15 Opportunity, $15; Boys' Own, $1; Pastors' Helpers, $5, and individual members, $9. Great credit was given to Mrs. C. E. McMichael and Mrs. John Dean, who, in the illness of the president, Mrs. Davidson, had done noble work for the society. The secretary announced that it had been decided to hold a dominion convention here on July 1st, when Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Dickinson were expected to be the speakers.

The house-keeper of the Guild reported that the receipts from board during the past year had been $1,234.55 and the expenses $857.35.

The following committees reported progress; Entertainment committee, Miss Hanington; Hospital, Miss Pratt, and Spiritual, by Miss Dean.

The Doorkeepers' Circle reported, among other things, an increase in the Aberdeen work. Encouraging reports were also received from the Pastors' Helpers and Opportunity Circles.

The annual election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. C. E. MacMichael; 1st vice-pres., Mrs. H. A. Ellis; 2nd vice-pres., Mrs. John E. Dean; 3rd vice-pres., Mrs. Tuck; 4th vice-pres., Mrs. W. H. Purdy; 5th vice-pres., Miss A. M. Iddles; 6th vice-pres., Mrs. John Wade; 7th vice-pres., Mrs. John Bullock; treasurer, Miss C. A. Pratt; recording secretary, Miss Edith Stewart.

SUCCESSFUL ADVERTISING.

The mere appearance of a business-man's name and address in every issue of a leading newspaper will do much to increase his trade. Every business man, however, is able to give facts about his establishment which will encourage people to deal with him. To state such facts clearly (varying them day by day) in conspicuous type in a newspaper like The Star is the principle secret of successful advertising.

REV. J. F. BETTS.

Rev. J. F. Betts, the late pastor of Queen's Avenue Methodist church, at New Westminster, accompanied by Mrs. Betts and Master Charlie, left on Wednesday's express for his new field of labor in Grand Forks, B. C., says a letter of June 7th. A large number of friends were at the depot to bid them farewell. Walter and Miss Winnie Betts are students at the Columbian College, and will not leave for Grand Forks until after the examination. Rev. Mr. Betts was formerly of the N. B. and P. E. I. conference.

THE IDEAL MAN.

(N. Y. Herald.)

Even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.—Matthew v., 48.

In the long past of human history there has been but one ideal man. He came, He startled the world. He disappeared. His stay was just long enough to drop a few seed principles into unwilling and barren soil, but they took root, grew into a forest of stately trees, and now our social order and progress thrive under their grateful shade. Never has a man said so little and accomplished so much. Every thought was a revolution; every word shook the earth like the blasting of rocks for the material of a new foundation.

The Christ stood at a point which was a half way station between the animal man of the past and the ideal man of the future. Humanity began as a rival to the brute; it will end as the rival of angels. By slow degrees it has achieved an upward climb, and every step has brought it closer to heaven. The untold millions who have fallen by the wayside will continue the journey in another life. Generations have been snuffed out like a candle, only to be transferred to larger opportunities and a better environment. We also shall drop our earthly work to complete it in the immeasurable eternity toward which we are surely drifting. Without that etrnity this life would be a grim disaster, but with it we use to-day, if we are wise, as a stepping-stone to an endless series of tomorrows.

The dignity and grandeur of the soul's possibilities are beyond the reach of the imagination. Every age pushes us forward into a wider development. Every experience, whether it is filled with smiles or tears, with leisure or struggle, is intended and is fitted to give us new strength for the new outlook which it unfolds. The divine consciousness is always present that we can do more and be more. A glowing ember from the altar of God is in the soul, and though it now slumbers it will some time be fanned into a flame. The earth may for a while enchain our attention, for it is a fascinating novelty to be alive, as the traveller toward the mountain top may rest satisfied with the prospect which stretches before his wondering eyes; but there is an inward voice which tells us that we must keep our steady way until the summit is reached, and that the toil will be repaid by what is waiting for us there.

What you are now is as nothing to what you will be, and you can never find perfect rest until the throne of God is in sight. When, therefore, you think of the soul's capabilities, of this earthly life as the dedication of a book to be hereafter written; when you see that the laws of the universe, stern and implacable, are nothing more than the strong hand of a father who restrains his child from inflicting an injury upon himself, then you are in harmony with the divine order, then you get a glimpse of true religion, then you are working side by side with the Christ. To know what God wants and to discover that you can never be happy until you also want it is to learn the secret of usefulness and contentment.

We are too perfunctory in our religion. We think to buy heaven by an obedience which is often irksome. We imagine that it we believe certain doctrines our belief will offset a selfish life. It is not belief that saves. There are no dogmas in heaven, but love only. Creeds are well enough as a pastime, but the serious business of life is to be your better self in spite of temptation and to grow larger and nobler with every decade that flies into the past. Growth is the watchword of the soul.

That kind of manliness which knows how to keep its cheer in adversity as well as in good fortune, which cares for nothing except its own preservation and increase, which looks on unsullied honor and integrity as the only priceless jewels earth can offer—that kind of manliness and womanliness is another name for godliness, and the only religion which knows no change is securely based on it. You may be rich or you may be poor; it is a mere incident. But if you are true, faithful, loyal to your destiny, seeking to be of service to the world because it is God's world, you belong to Christ and He belongs to you. You may weep or you may laugh, you may sit in the sunshine or the shadow, you have what money cannot purchase—a peace, a serene joy, a poise, a self-possession which are a foretaste of the eternal life.

THE BIRCHES.

(Fredericton Gleaner.)

A party of city gentlemen, J. H. Hawthorne, J. Palmer, J. S. Campbell, R. S. Barker and S. Dow Simmons and C. J. B. Simmons of Gibson, are building a summer camp on the bank of the river, on a beautiful knoll about four miles above the city. Workmen are now at work on the house, which will be of logs, and it is expected to have it ready for occupancy by July 1st. The resort has been designated The Birches because of the fine grove of those trees in which the camp is located.

HALIFAX MAN KILED.

A fatal accident occurred at the Vancouver, B. C., Engineering Works on Thursday, June 6th, when a machinist, named T. R. Spinke, was crushed to death under a six-ton boiler. The deceased had only been in the city five days. He had his ticket as a member of the International Machinists' Union and is supposed to have recently come from San Francisco; but he is a native of Halifax, N. S.
