THE ST. JOHN STAR is published by THE SUN PRINTING COMPANY (LTD.), at St. John, New Brunswick, every afternoon (except Sunday) at $5 a year.

ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., JULY 15, 1901.

OLD FORT CUMBERLAND.

The visitor to old Fort Cumberland, the Beauséjour of the French regime, is oppressed with a sense of shame that nothing has been done to preserve this ancient stronghold, which Judge Morse of Amherst described in his address to the visiting Foresters last week as the first and finest fortress of France in that region.

OUTING DAYS.

(The Star will be glad to receive communications for this column, relating to fishing resorts, fishing parties, fisherman's luck, and that sort of thing.)

UP TORIQUE WAY.

There has been excellent salmon fishing on the Torique this season. A gentleman who lives up there told the Star a few days ago that the number of applicants for fishing privileges was so large that the wardens had great difficulty in locating them.

AN ERRING BROTHER.

The St. John Star man is happy. He has found two recommendations for a St. John fog and he feels reconciled. It improves the complexion of the St. John ladies and keeps down the dust.

AMET 'AN SPORTSMEN.

(Frederic A Herald, Saturday.) Dr. A. L. Wheeler of Bryn Marr, Penn., and C. S. Ingram of Washington, D. C., arrived here by the late train last evening and left this afternoon by the Canada.

DR. S. W. PROWSE.

A son of Hon. Senator Prowse A. point to the Faculty of Manitoba Medical College. A recent addition to the list of the faculty of the Manitoba Medical College is the name of Dr. S. W. Prowse.

TO BUILD UP A TOWN.

A writer in an American paper puts in terse sentences some wholesome truths about the duty of citizens in building up their town.

BACK TO NATURE.

What Was Once a Settlement of Fifteen Families.

Only Two Remain—Deserted Farms—The Incendiary's Torch—A Place of Memories.

Hammond Vale, a dozen miles from Sussex, is a lovely green valley, with smiling farms and a generally thrifty appearance, though it is perhaps a settlement of less importance than in years gone by, when more lumbering was done in that section and before the location of the railway had given greater influence to the neighboring town of the Kennebec.

NETTING TROUT.

(Summerside Agriculturist.) There is reason to believe that Dunk River is being shamefully netted, and legitimate fly fishing thus destroyed.
