THE TRANSVAAL DISASTER.

The disaster which has overtaken Col. Benson's column in the Transvaal is both a surprise and a shock. Occasional reverses are inevitable, but the one recorded today is exceptionally severe. The British must have been taken completely by surprise. Evidently the lessons of the early part of the war have not yet been taken fully to heart. The need of skilled scouts in such warfare as this is emphasized by every such occurrence as this attack upon Benson's column. The Boers know the country so well and can move so quickly that only the greatest vigilance can guard small British columns from surprise and disaster. A more vigorous prosecution of the struggle by Kitchener will undoubtedly follow this blow. The stubborn opposition of the Boers must be beaten down. Their ranks are being daily thinned by death or capture. There can be but one end, though it seems so long in coming.

UNITED STATES GRAIN CROP.

It is estimated that the wheat crop of the United States will be this year 650,000,000 bushels. Last year the crop was 620,000,000 bushels and that of the year before 647,000,000 bushels. This year's crop is about 100,000,000 bushels more than the average. The corn crop however is less than 1,200,000,000 bushels, and it is said that at least 2,000,000,000 bushels are required to meet the ordinary needs of the country. A statistical figure out that the loss in corn amounts to about $300,000,000, which the increased crop of wheat would offset to the extent of $100,000,000. Of the 650,000,000 bushels of wheat, probably nearly 60,000,000 will be needed for seed purposes, and the local consumption will be about 300,000,000 bushels. Making allowances for the extra demand for wheat because of the shortage in corn, there would still be between 250,000,000 and 300,000,000 bushels of wheat available for export.

SOUND DOCTRINE.

In the course of a thoughtful article on current civic and political conditions the Saturday Evening Post deals with those who place "the dollar mark before good citizenship." This writer points out that votes are bought by other means than the actual payment of cash, and that there are men who will support corrupt factions for the sake of trivial concessions. Urging the need of more of conscience in politics the article concludes—

The big things, the enduring things, the cleansing reforms, the noble and uplifting lives, come only from that zealous and jealous sentiment that clings to right because it is right, and to principle because it is principle. When a man begins to bargain with his conscience he sells his character to his lower self. When he compromises in convenience or in comfort he sells out just as truly as does the ignorant person who accepts money—and his conscience is all the greater because his sense of responsibility is larger. There does seem to be in all the walks of life—in our great universities and our public schools—in our shops and our department stores—in our homes and in our offices—the need of direct, vigorous and undiluted education in the higher duties of conscience and character. With such training we shall come to a time—possibly in the far future, but we shall come to it—when great cities will not look upon violation of Sunday laws and of other ordinances as perfectly excusable merely because many people prefer matters changed, or rather mismanaged, in that way. We shall come to a time when a man will be as careful with his vote as he is with his oath on the witness stand. We shall come to a time when there will be a vast majority of good citizens for the sake of good citizenship of our cities, and we shall not see vice protected at the expense of virtue.

A bill to provide for the creation of a department of commerce will be brought before the next session of a United States congress. There is a strong feeling in favor of creating such a department because of the great volume and steady increase in the foreign trade of the country. It is believed that the president is favorable to the organization of the department and that the bill will pass both the house and senate with little opposition.

FREDERICTON NEWS.

(Gleaner, Friday.) Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Fenety, who have resided at Linden Hall since their marriage, have taken A. R. Tibbitt's fine residence, on York street. Mr. and Mrs. John D. Nichol, who came here several months ago from Ontario, and have resided in the Edgecombe house on King street, are removing to Chicago. Fred P. Colter of the post office staff, and William Long will stand the civil service examinations to be held at St. John, commencing Tuesday, Nov. 12th. J. W. Hamilton, the new manager of the Bank of British North America arrived here upon the noon train from Montreal, accompanied by Mrs. Hamilton and their two children. L. H. Barthe of Deseronto, Ont., has

G. H. Flood, of C. Flood & Sons, St. John, is in the city today. The Messrs. Flood are contemplating opening a branch of their business here, at the store just vacated by John Owens. The annual social given by the B. Y. F. U. to the Baptist students in the city was held last evening in the Baptist vestry, which was prettily decorated for the occasion.

The amount to the credit of depositors at the Fredericton branch of the government savings bank now amounts to considerably over three quarters of a million dollars. The total value of goods entered for consumption at this port during the month of October is about $1000 less than for the corresponding month of 1900, while the duties collected are over $1500 more. There were eleven deaths in the city last month, and in addition two deaths at the hospital of patients who had been brought here from outside the city. There were very few arrests in the city last month and only five fines for drunkenness were imposed. Eight arrests were made for intoxication upon the public streets. The total receipts at the police magistrates court were $22, of which $200 was collected in Scott Act fines. The grocer who sells Union Blend Tea sells something he can recommend to his most exacting customer with a certainty that it will have his approval. Goods of this sort are profitable to both buyer and seller.

CALLED REV. E. W. KELLEY. The members of Lennox Street Baptist Church met last evening for the selection of a pastor. There was a large attendance and they unanimously decided to extend a call to Rev. E. W. Kelley of Bermuda, a former pastor of the church. A. Wilson acted as chairman. It was decided to cable Mr. Kelley, and a reply is expected on Monday. Baby's cold may be cured in a night by using Vapo-Cresolol, which has been extensively in use for twenty-four years. THE LIQUOR HABIT.

Rev. J. A. McCallen's Lecture. On the occasion of a lecture delivered before a large and appreciative audience in Windsor Hall, Montreal, in honor of the Father Matthew anniversary, Rev. J. A. McCallen, B. S., of St. Patrick's church, and President of St. Patrick's Total Abstinence Society, paid the following grand tribute to the value of Mr. Dixon's new discovery for the cure of alcohol and drug habits. Referring to the physical crave engendered by the inordinate use of intoxicants he said: "When such a crave manifests itself there is no escape unless by a miracle of grace, or by some such remedy as Mr. Dixon's cure, about which the papers have spoken so much lately, and if I am to judge of the cures which it has effected under my own eyes I must come to the conclusion that what I have longed for twenty years to see discovered has at last been found by that gentleman."

THE NEW PRESIDENT. A Prayer. The following poem, by Clinton Dangerfield, is reproduced, by permission, from advance sheets of the November Century.

Not for the silent chief whom Death Gently and sedulously keeps Within a splendid calm, naught mars His well-won laurels when he sleeps.

Rather for him who now stands Half started on a slippery height, Like a strong falcon which some hand Unboded rudely, whom the light of Floods unforeseen, but who shall prove A wide-winged strength! For him we pray!

Give him such wisdom swift and keen He shall restore us Yesterday! ELLON, Georgia.
