WHY NOT!

(From the London Chronicle.) A writer in the West End, describing an interview with M. W. M., said that gentleman "farwelled." It is the poet's prerogative to increase the vocabulary, and the following is an attempt in that direction.)

I garbled in the evening shade, And birds around me sang; Indoors my friends, as sounds betrayed, Ping-ponged.

'Twas then that Jones came bearing by— His steed was newly shod— He cordially "bulloo"-ed, and I "How-dood."

He told me how his meadows grassed and how his poultry egged; His views how hopes should be glassed I begged.

So he opined, till I tried, And backed him from the theme, And then of butting cows inquired, And cream.

While thus we conversed, Time With rattles footstep cased, It darkened, we heard the Vesper chime From yond.

At last we felt that we must part, "Farewell, my friend," I cried, And he with anguish at his heart, "Good-bye-d."

Danger Next Door.

Perhaps it's diphtheria, or scarlet fever. Keep your own home free from the germs of these diseases. Prevent your children from having them. You can do it with our Vapo-Cresolene. Put some Cresolene in our vaporizer, light the lamp beneath, and let the vapor fill the sleeping room. Have the children sleep in the room every night, for it's perfectly safe, yet not a single disease germ can live in this vapor. Ask your doctor about it.

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists everywhere. A Vapo-Cresolene outfit, including the Vaporizer and Lamp, which should last a life-time, and a bottle of Cresolene, complete, $1.50; extra supplies of Cresolene 50 cents and 100 cents. ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., MAY 14, 1902.

THE TREE PLANTING.

Thanks to the energy of the H. M. S. Polymorphian club trees are being planted along the Marsh Road. Every citizen of St. John, old and young, should feel a proprietary interest in these trees, and regard it as a person al matter should any one of the trees be injured by a careless hand. It was said by some when the same club undertook to make the Haymarket square a pretty breathing spot that children would destroy their work, but it has been found that the young people are proud of the square and like to see it presenting an attractive appearance. Experience with Rockwood Park, and even with the Old Burial Ground and Fernhill has shown that all persons are not thoughtful, and that some are really actuated by a spirit of reckless vandalism. But this can be very largely overcome by education. If the citizens think about it and talk about it, and back up their opinions by actual participation in some form of beautifying the city and its surroundings, there will arise a general feeling of pride and an ambition to see St. John excel in this important particular. Those who plant trees are working for the future as well as the present. May their work grow and prosper.

BRING BACK THE DREDGE.

Before another steamship berth can be provided on the West Side of the harbor there is dredging to be done. This work, it is conceded by all, should be done by the federal government, and there is no likelihood of its being done by anyone else. It is therefore useless to meet and discuss the question of wharf construction unless it is known that the government will attend to the dredging. What steps have been taken by the supporters of Mr. Blair and Col. Tucker to strengthen their hands in the demand they must make on Mr. Tarte? That minister has turned down the dry dock, despite Mr. Blair and Col. Tucker. Since he has done so he should not refuse to do the necessary dredging for one additional wharf. Does St. John want it—or not? If the dredging is to be done it is high time the most forcible and emphatic representations were made to the minister of public works, and especially to Mr. Blair and Col. Tucker. They are our representatives, and should have with them in this matter the unanimous voice of the citizens.

Referring to the Morgan shipping combine, the London Canadian Gazette says:—"These Morgan manipulations should ensure the early completion of the Canadian Atlantic fast mail project. The word is with the Canadian government, and Ottawa has, we believe, but to speak the word which will bring into existence this long-desired link in the imperial chain of communication between east and West."

Says the London Telegraph of May 1st:—"Thirty-nine fresh cases of small-pox were notified in London up to seven o'clock last night. There are 1,488 patients under treatment in the various hospitals. Ten more cases of the disease were reported at Edmonton yesterday, bringing the total number, since the beginning of the outbreak, to 450. Eleven fresh cases have been notified at Tottenham this week."

R. L. Richardson, ex-M. P. for Lisgar, the stormy petrel of Manitoba politics and journalism, is now interested in a movement to form a new party, which shall elect enough candidates to hold the balance of power in the Manitoba legislature. The new organization is called the Political Reform Union, and it is said an effort will be made to get Rev. Mr. Silcox, of Winnipeg, to run as a candidate.

Mr. Geo. Robertson returns from Ottawa a disappointed man. He has labored incessantly to forward the dry dock project, and after waiting for many weeks at Ottawa has been compelled to return without being able to accomplish that for which he went, and in which he was supported by a delegation from this city.

The flower beds on the squares continue to offer healthful exercise and amusement to the dogs of the town. No other city is half so considerate.

S. W. KAIN AT GRAVENHURST. S. W. Kain of St. John has been appointed customs officer at Gravenhurst, under survey of Toronto. He is now in Toronto, receiving instructions from the customs department. He will be officer at Gravenhurst during the summer to look after tourists' baggage. Mr. Kain has been on sick leave for some months.

At last night's meeting of the Exhibition executive, the terms of the horse shoeing competition were discussed at considerable length.

THE VOLCANOES.

TWO THOUSAND DEATHS IN ST. VINCENT.

FORT DE FRANCE, Island of Martinique, May 13.—Business here is suspended. The people of the city have assembled in the churches and the cathedral, where special services are being held for the St. Pierre dead, has been thronged since daylight. The United States government tug Potomac leaves here tonight for the island of St. Vincent, where conditions are reported to be worse. La Soufriere, on St. Vincent, was in full eruption May 10. A stream of stones and mud half a mile wide was then issuing from the volcano. Stones two inches in diameter fell twelve miles away. At Kingstown, the capital of the island, the ashes were two inches deep. Seven hundred dead were reported Sunday, May 11. It is estimated that the total number of deaths on St. Vincent reaches 2,000. Most of the victims are said to be Carib Indians. Seven estates on the island have been burned to ashes and it is authoritatively reported that two earthquakes occurred there. It is believed the submarine cables in St. Vincent have been broken by the disturbances. The present volcanic eruption on St. Vincent is the first since 1812. The northern section of the island is depopulated. Provisions are needed here for 100,000 people immediately. A ship load of lime is also needed at St. Pierre for sanitary purposes. The stench there from the dead bodies is overpowering. Mont Pelee was still erupting smoke and fire at a late hour last night.

STRANGE INCIDENTS AT ST. PIERRE.

Many strange and incomprehensible incidents are recounted of St. Pierre. The charred remains of a woman with a silk handkerchief, unburned and in perfect condition, held to her lips, have been found there. The charred bodies of young girls have been found, but of the shoes they wore were unburned. In addition to the specie already secured, jewels to the value of one million francs ($200,000) were recovered from the bank at St. Pierre yesterday. The Italian consul at Barbados has recovered the body of his daughter, who was visiting in St. Pierre at the time of the disaster. Margaret Stokes, the nine-year-old daughter of the late Clement Stokes of New York, who with her mother, a brother, four years old, and sister, three years old, was on the ill-fated British steamer Koraima, is in the hospital here. The child is not expected to live. Her nurse, Clara, King, tells the following story of her experience: She said she was in her stateroom when the steward of the Koraima called out to her: "Look at Mont Pelee." She went on deck and saw a vast mass of black cloud coming down from the volcano. The steward ordered her to return to the saloon, saying, "It is coming." Miss King rushed to the saloon. She says she experienced a feeling of suffocation, which was followed by intense heat. The great part of the Koraima broke up in flames. Ben Benson, the carpenter of the Koraima, who is now in the hospital here severely burned, assisted Miss King and Margaret Stokes to escape. With the help of Mr. Scott, the first mate of the Koraima, he constructed a raft with life preservers. Upon this Miss King and Margaret were placed. While this was being done, Margaret's little brother died. Mate Scott brought the child water at great personal danger, but it was unavailing. Shortly after the death of the little boy, Mrs. Stokes succumbed. Margaret and Miss King eventually got out of the raft and were picked up by the steamer Koraima. Mata Scott also escaped. Miss King did not sustain serious injuries. She covered the face of Margaret with her dress, but still the child was probably fatally burned.

The only woman known to have survived the disaster at St. Pierre was a negro named Fillette. She was found in a cave Saturday afternoon, where she had been for three days. She was still alive, but fearfully burned from head to toes. She died in the hospital here.

A gardener at the village of Morne Rouge, seven kilometres distant from St. Pierre, saw, at the moment of the disaster, seven luminous points on Mont Pelee. He says he had the impression of being violently drawn towards the volcano by a powerful current of air. Then the mountain opened, according to the description of the gardener, and flung tornadoes of fire over St. Pierre.

ROBBING THE DEAD.

PORT DE FRANCE, Island of Martinique, May 13.—The United States government tug Potomac, which came to Martinique from San Juan, Porto Rico, cruised along the coast of the island yesterday afternoon. She encountered an inky-black column of smoke, which made it necessary for her to go five miles out of her course. Words fail to describe the present situation at St. Pierre. A small detachment of French troops is making efforts to enter the dead, although the government seems to be strikingly unconcerned as to what is done in this direction. The looting of the dead has begun already.

While coming to Port de France, the Potomac picked up a boat containing five colored and one white man, whose pockets were filled with coin and jewelry, the latter evidently stripped from the fingers of the dead. Lieut. E. B. McCormick, the commander of the Potomac arrested these men and turned them over to the commander of the French cruiser Suchet.

BRITISH ADMIRALTY'S WHOLESALF OFFER.

PARIS, May 13.—Sir Edmund J. Monson, British ambassador here, has notified M. Delmas, French minister of foreign affairs, that the British government has placed all its available resources, ships and otherwise, in the vicinity of Martinique at the disposal of the French authorities. A cablegram received here from Senator Knight (president of the legislature of Martinique), who escaped from the St. Pierre disaster) says he has succeeded in reaching the island of St. Vincent, where he has the interment of 400 of the victims of the volcanic eruption.

WANTED.—A case of Headache that KUMFORT Powders will not cure in from ten to twenty minutes.

BRITISH COMMONS.

LONDON, May 13.—In the house of commons last night, Sir Henry Fowler, liberal, challenged the government to deny that the new duties on wheat and flour were not the first step towards preferential treatment of the colonies. He said it was impossible for a British minister to now refuse to reciprocate Canada's preferential tariff by saying that it was against British policy to reply, "We only want to be put in the same position as Great Britain, for we are all members of the same empire, with common interests." "In fact," Sir Henry Fowler added, "this may be the commencement of a great zolverein or the British empire."

Mr. Rowlock, representing a large working class constituency in New-castle-on-Tyne, said that the tax would make it impossible for Mr. Chamberlain to inaugurate a preferential policy. The Westminster Gazette tonight warns the ministers that their attitude gives away the best reply to the colonial demands for preference.

THE LAW SOCIETY.

The annual meeting of the Law Society was held yesterday afternoon in the equity court chambers, and there was a large attendance. The president, J. D. Hasen, M. P., gave a most interesting address on the legislation passed at the last session of the local legislature. Mr. Hasen referred to all the bills passed and outlined briefly their subsequent effect. The following council was elected: A. O. Earle, J. D. Hasen, Hon. Wm. Pugsley, A. P. Barnhill, W. H. True-man, D. Mullin, G. C. Coester, A. R. Stockton and A. J. Trueman. It was moved by A. P. Barnhill, seconded by Mr. Mullin, that students be charged five dollars for the privilege of using the law library, subject to conditions made by the council. An amendment was passed doing away with the fee, but confining the privileges of students to regulations made by the council.

MILITIA ORDERS.

OTTAWA, May 13.—Militia orders say the 10th and 15th field batteries of Field Artillery will carry out their annual training and gun practice at Sussex on a date to be notified later. Eighteen rounds per battery will be issued. The Garrison Artillery will have its annual training, the 1st Regiment at Halifax, 3rd at St. John, 4th at Charlottetown, and the Sydney C. B. company at Sydney. Major Sircom, 63rd, is appointed president of the board of examiners for military district No. 2, vice Col. Humphrey, who is relieved from duty in consequence of the pressure of other duties. Capt. Creighton, 66th, is appointed a member of the board.

MEMORIAL MOVEMENT.

The members of the North End W. C. T. U. met at the residence of Mrs. Baileys, Douglas avenue, last evening, to consider plans regarding the laying of the corner stone of the memorial monument on Coronation Day. Henry Rilyard and J. Fraser Gregory were appointed a committee to interview officers of the local militia regarding the construction of the ceremony with military honors. Either his worship the mayor or his honor the Lieutenant-governor will officiate. Refreshments will be served on the grounds. The design of the monument has not yet been definitely decided upon.

FAREWELL TO REV. W. W. CRAIG.

The social evening arranged by the Y. M. A. and Y. W. G. of Trinity church as a farewell to Rev. W. W. Craig, which was held last evening, proved a great success, a large number of the congregation attending. There was a choice musical programme, including vocal solos by Miss Knight, Miss Shute and N. L. Brennan, selections by Trinity orchestra, and a quartette by Misses Knight and Shute and Messrs. Brennan and Ruel.

F. J. G. Knowlton on behalf of the vestry made a short address, expressing the great appreciation of Mr. Craig's work in the parish, and extending to him their best wishes in his new field of labor. The pastor, Rev. Canon Richardson, followed, and expressed his regret at losing so faithful and earnest a fellow-worker, and he then made the following presentations to Mr. Craig: From the Gleaners' Union, 5 volumes of The Cambridge Greek Testament; from the Y. M. A. and Y. W. G., 2 volumes of The Englishman's Hebrew and Chaldee Concordance; from himself, 1 volume of The Englishman's Greek Concordance, and from the teachers and officers of the Sunday school, an Oxford parallel Bible, of the authorized and revised versions, with references and atlas, beautifully bound in Alaska leather.

Mr. Craig made a very feeling reply, in which he extended his warm thanks to the various donors of the books and to all his friends who had extended good wishes to him.

At the close light refreshments were served and the evening brought to a close with the National Anthem.

Mr. Craig will leave for Montreal on Thursday afternoon, followed by the good wishes of hosts of friends, not only from the congregation of Trinity, but from the various churches in this city where he has been a willing assistant in the services at various times. The vestry of Trinity church also presented Mr. Craig with a cheque for a substantial amount a few days ago.
