WORST FEARED.

Probable Loss of Expedition that Was Seeking the South Pole.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—A Paris despatch to the Times says: "It is greatly feared that the Antarctic expedition commanded by Dr. Charcot, which started more than a year ago for the discovery of the South Pole, has been completely lost. It is known to have encountered a terrible storm in April last year, and has not been heard of since, nor have any traces of its movements been discovered by Uruguay, which sent out a party to its rescue."

TWO BIG FIRES.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—Fire early today swept through the seven story brick building occupied by the Central Electric Company, 24-70 Fifth avenue, causing a loss estimated at nearly $400,000. The large floors filled with electrical appliances made ready fuel for the flames.

LORAIN, O., Feb. 11.—The Baltimore and Ohio R. R. shops were destroyed by fire last night entailing a loss of about $100,000. Six locomotives in the erecting shop will be almost complete wrecks. Three hundred men are thrown out of employment.

Fifty Thousand Men Have Abandoned Work in the Sosorie District.

LODZ, Russian Poland, Feb. 11.—The governor in an interview with the correspondent of the Associated Press this morning, said: "My official reports from Sosovie show that thirty-three persons were killed and thirty-six wounded, eighteen of whom were seriously hurt, in the conflict at the Katherine Iron Works on Thursday. The trouble began when a large body of striking miners tried to force the furnace men of the iron works to put out the fires and join the strike. The mob became violent, broke down a fence and forced an entrance into the works which were guarded by two companies of infantry. The officers ordered the crowd to leave, but they refused. Suddenly a striker drew a large knife and rushed at an officer. The soldiers then fired on the mob, which immediately fled, leaving the dead and wounded."
