TO INVESTIGATE
NEW YORK LIFE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Senator W. W. Armstrong and one other member of the Legislative Insurance Investigating Committee, probably Mr. Tulley, will meet today Charles E. Hughes and James McKeen, the committee's counsel, to talk over some of the plans for the inquiry into the affairs of the New York Life.
It was said the committee had decided to take up this company first, but the reason could not be learned.
Mr. Hughes said yesterday it would be several days before any definite programme was ready for publication.
Orlando P. Norman said last night the plans for the organization of a new life insurance company to deal in non-participating policies had not yet reached a stage which warranted him in discussing the subject. He admitted the announcement of the organization of the company was premature, from the point of view of those who are promoting it.
