

ST. JOHN STAR.

VOL. 5, NO. 285.

ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, AUGUST 5, 1905.

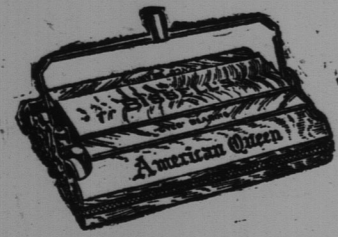

TEN PAGES

ONE CENT

No shoe leather ever need be worn this in "hunting for work." Make a Star Want Ad. your proxy. You can "hunt work" by proxy.

WEATHER: — Southwesterly breeze, fair, showers Sunday.

Carpet Sweepers.

The Bissell Grand Rapids Sweeper with 700 bearings is the acme of perfection in carpet sweepers. No house should be without one.

No Dirt. No Dust. Price $3.00

W. H. THORNE & CO., Limited, MARKET SQUARE, ST. JOHN, N. B.

HUTCHINGS & CO.

Are Showing some New Styles in White Enamelled Iron Bedsteads. Mattress and Bedding Warerooms, 101 to 107 GERMAIN STREET

SNAPS Oil Stoves.

Summer not over, many warm days yet to come. If you act quickly you can get an excellent Oil Stove for very little money. One Burner, German make, complete with Kettle, now $5.00. Two Burner, German make, now $6.00. Three Burner, German make, now $7.50. One Burner, American make, now $4.50. Two Burner, American make, now $5.50. Many other sizes, including Wickless Blue Flame.

Emerson & Fisher, Ltd. 25 GERMAIN STREET.

We Sell

Watches, Diamonds, Silverware, Jewelry of all kinds, Clocks, Etc. Only the highest quality of goods fully warranted, at lower prices than we should. We open an account with you and allow you to test our goods before paying for them.

Rogers' 1847 Teas, $2.75 Dozen.

DAVIS BROS., 56 Prince William Street (under Bank of Montreal.)

OUR STORES ARE OPEN TONIGHT.

Did You Ever

step into our Union Street Store and look over our bargain lots of Boots and Shoes laid out on Counters? It will pay you. See the Men's White Canvas Shoes formerly sold at from $1.50 to $2.50 a pair, clearing out at

75c. a Pair.

UNION STREET STORE. Waterbury & Rising,

S. ROMANOFF,

Successor to B. Myers, 695 Main Street. We sell goods cheaper for equal qualities than any other house in the city. At no time during the coming months will there be an opportunity to make a dollar go as far as now, in the great Reconstruction Sale. Another extraordinary chance on Ladies' Suits from $8.50 up to $15.00. Colors consist of brown, blue, grey, black, latest make and finest quality. Selling prices, the $8.50 and $15.00 suits for $11.00. You will make $4.00 in ten minutes by buying your suit here. A BIG RANGE IN SILK WAISTS—A $5.00 Waist for $3.50, a $2.50 for $2.50—this week only. A fine assortment in LUSTRE WAISTS, in Brown, Blue and Black; latest makes. SATTEEN WAISTS at very low prices.

S. ROMANOFF, 695 Main St. CLOSE AT 7 TODAY. St. John, N. B., August 6th, 1905

440 Men Wanted

TO BUY SUITS AT FACTORY PRICES. We have 440 Men's Suits in stock that must be cleared; it is a rule here nothing ever from one season to another. These suits are suitable any time of year, but we want to start the fall trade with all new stock. You can buy these suits cheap now.

The Special Suit Prices Are

$3.95, $5, $6, $7.50, $8 and $10.

J. N. HARVEY, Men's and Boys' Clothier, 199 and 201 Union St.

CONFESSED MURDER AFTER 23 YEARS.

Worried by Conscience He Got Drunk and Told

And Though He Afterwards Recanted His Confession He Was Found Guilty and Must Hang.

(Special Cable to the Star.) LONDON, August 5.—A murder twenty-three years ago has just been the subject of a trial at Durham Assizes when upon his own confession John Appleton, aged fifty, a miner was charged with the death of William Ledger, a blacksmith called "Fitz Mac," near Durham in July 1882. Appleton in a long and detailed statement accused himself of the crime at Yarmouth in March 23, saying that he and another man, Henry Barnshaw, now dead, while tramping for work, met a man and thinking he had money they knocked him down with sticks. After killing him they concealed his body in a dyke. They took a silver watch and chain and some sweets from his pockets. They put the watch in a drain, pledged the chain in Newcastle for 4 s., and tore up the ticket. The crime had worried him ever since, and he purposely got intoxicated in order that he might sew up enough courage to make the confession. The body of Ledger was actually found at the time in a field off the main road. At the time of the trial the accused went into the box and denied having committed the murder. The jury, however, found a verdict of guilty, and Justice Grantham in passing sentence of death said that for many years after the murder the prisoner had lived a very respectable life.

NEW HYMN BOOK FOR CHURCH OF ENGLAND.

(Special Cable to the Star.) LONDON, August 5.—A new hymn-book for the church of England compiled by a committee with its music arranged by Dr. Vaughan Williams will be printed at the Clarendon Press at Oxford and published by Messrs. Frowde in the autumn of the year. It will contain about 400 hymns, including many which have never been published before.

The new edition of Hymns Ancient and Modern has not been a very brilliant success and yet there was certainly room for improvement in the old hymnal. Many religious bodies are putting out hymn books and first rate hymns can therefore be discovered in Julian's Dictionary by the hundred; and the difficulty is to select the best editors to avoid excluding really good hymns in their compilations. Certain hymns like Bishop Ken's evening hymn will be printed in their entirety for the first time; and to the old office hymns printed in the Anglican and Modern compilation are now added the best of the hymns of the last complete. The vexed question raised last year concerning "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing" is solved by printing both forms of the hymn.

CAUGHT PHOTOGRAPHING PORT ROYAL'S DEFENSES.

(Special cable to the Star.) KINGSTON, Jamaica, Aug. 5.—F. Clarke, the American doctor who was arrested charged with a breach of the official secret service act by taking photographs of the defenses of Port Royal has pleaded that he is innocent of any intentional wrong doing. He claims that his action was entirely without political or military significance. Dr. Clarke has been a resident of the island for four months. He is a graduate of Harvard and is well educated.

DR. JAMESON GOING HOME FOR HEALTH.

(Special cable to the Star.) CAPE TOWN, Aug. 5.—Under medical advice Dr. Jameson will probably proceed home shortly on a brief visit in order to complete the cure begun last year.

EIGHT YEAR OLD FIREBOYS.

ISLAND FALLS, Me., Aug. 4.—Two eight-year-old boys playing with matches were responsible today for a fire destroying three complete sets of farm buildings, including those owned by their parents. The total loss is estimated at $1,500, on which there is an insurance of only $1,500. The boys, who were sons of Jos. Downing and Edward Jarvis, were playing back of Mr. Downing's large barn, containing twenty-five tons of hay, when a pile of straw became ignited and the structure was soon in flames. The fire spread rapidly to the adjoining buildings on the three farms owned by Mr. Downing, Mr. Jarvis and Mrs. Mary Emerson. In addition to his house and ell Mr. Jarvis lost two large barns and a stable. His loss was $2,000, with $1,500 insurance. Mrs. Emerson's loss was $2,000.

Messrs. A. L. Goodwin will have on Monday a car load of bananas that will be sold cheap also a car load on Tuesday of California fruit, pears, peaches and plums.

RUSSIAN FAMILIES TORN ASUNDER; LIKE CIVIL WAR.

Sharp Cleavage Between Liberals and Autocrats--

Battle Near in Manchuria--Roosevelt Receives Jap Envoys First.

(Special Cable to the Star.) ST. PETERSBURG, August 5.—The line of cleavage between the supporters of the Autocracy and the supporters of the Zemstvo is sharp. There are reports of divisions in the different families, of coolness between brother and sister, mother and son, of prayers to leave the service and of young officers forbidden to visit their homes on account of their advanced views. The situation is in many respects similar to that of the American Civil War, when families were divided and brothers often fought with opposing armies.

ANOTHER BATTLE NEAR. TOKIO, Aug. 4.—It is reported that the advance guard of the hostile forces south of the Tumen river are within rifle range. An early conflict is regarded as inevitable.

RUSSIAN DESTROYERS HIT JAPANESE SHIP. TOKIO, Aug. 4.—It is officially reported that two Russian torpedo destroyers appeared off Chung Ching, on the northern coast of Korea, at forty minutes past four o'clock this morning, firing on the Japanese steamer, the Keshio, a small merchant steamship.

Sixty shots were fired, seven of which hit the port side of the engine room and bridge, killing the captain and one boy and wounding two of the crew. The destroyers then ceased to fire and steamed toward Vladivostok at five o'clock. The Keshio was able to continue her voyage and escaped.

THE ENVOYS RECEIVED. OYSTER BAY, Aug. 5.—Everything is ready for the official reception by

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL EDITION OF THE BIBLE.

(Special cable to the Star.) LONDON, Aug. 5.—Though nearly three hundred years have elapsed since the English Bible was first given to the world, it is still the most beautiful in which it has exercised its unrivaled and fundamental influence upon English life. English scholars and English statesmen have been proud to have their names associated with the Bible, and the form in which it has been printed up to the present time it has never been worthy printed. Though other works have been given appropriate settings, the Bible has until the present moment to receive that splendor and dignity of external shape which one would have thought would have been its birthright from the day on which the translators rested from their labors. But at last after many years the change of national neglect must now be withdrawn. Mr. Cobden-Sanderson's magnificent edition has been completed, and though from its unavoidable costliness it must needs be a treasure for few besides the wealthy, there remains nothing which lavishly expense, technical perfection of impression, and a reverent and minute carefulness could add to this noble work of presenting the English Bible in a form final and complete. It is issued in five folio volumes, and bound simply in white vellum, and lettered with due plainness, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies. Every great library and collector must have a copy of the "Doves Press" Bible, and the number of copies which will remain to suffer the ordinary bargain and sale of the booksellers might not be counted almost on the fingers of one hand. After so gigantic a success, it is sad to learn that the promoters of what is really a great national undertaking should have lost money by reason of their public spirit. But it really is so, though Mr. Cobden-Sanderson has suffered no trace of this unfortunate issue of his enterprise to the perfection of the pages with which the work is marked all the way from Genesis to Revelation. The work is the same, but there the resemblance stops. Old lines glow with new meaning and new reverence, and the glory of a book today. Every cathedral, every college and every important chapel is making its demand for a copy of an exceedingly limited number of copies.