

Swell Cheviot Suits Ready To Wear.

How times have changed! A few years ago a ready-made suit could be distinguished from one made-to-order "a mile off".

But now we can show a suit, ready to put on, that would do credit to any good merchant tailor in town.

If your fancy inclines towards Blue Cheviot we have a swell line of suits—S. B. and long and short D. B. Coats. The cloth is made for the 20th Century people by the renowned Sir Titus Salt concern in England—none better. The quality is such as is usually sold at $18 the suit, our price is $16.

Black Cheviot Suits in similar styles and cloth at the same price.

Special Black Cheviot Suits at $12.

LOCAL LEGISLATURE.

FREDERICKTON, Mar. 20.—The house met at three o'clock.

Hon. Mr. Tweedie in answer to Mr. Hasen showed of what the $23,000 advanced to the New Brunswick Coal and Railway Co., as appears at page five of the auditor general's report, is a loan made under the following circumstances:

When a change of management took place it was found that there were large amounts due by the company for wages and materials in the construction of the line from Chipman toward Fredericton, and that a considerable sum would be required to improve the road bed and to repair and renew bridges and work upon the Central Railway between Chipman and Norton; also for additional locomotives, snow plow and other rolling stock.

George McAvity consented to take charge of the railway with W. C. Hunter as superintendent only on condition that the necessary amount would be furnished for these purposes. After considerable hesitation and a thorough audit of the accounts of the company as well as a careful examination of the road, and being satisfied that unless the advance was made the operation of the railway would stop, in view of the certainty which the government felt it will be taken over and operated as a part of the G. T. P. system as well as the fact that the object of assisting the road was to develop the coal areas, the property of the province, the opinion of the executive council was that it would be disastrous to the public interests if the undertaking was to be allowed to collapse, and accordingly arrangements were made with the bank to make the necessary advances upon the understanding that the requisite legislation should be asked for during the present session. The loan is to bear interest at 5 per cent, and is to be a charge upon the railway rolling stock and earnings.

Hon. Mr. Tweedie in reply to Mr. Hasen said: J. V. Angell has been appointed superintendent of the provincial hospital at a salary of $2,500 a year and living expenses; the appointment is for one year. No remuneration has as yet been paid to the physicians who examined the patients in the hospital. No bonds were deposited as security for advances on hospital accounts.

Several other questions were answered and the time for introducing private bills was extended to Monday. Mr. Hasen directed the attention of the house to the fact that the Winding Ledges Dam bill, which the central legislature had passed in 1933, was again before parliament. He understood that the government was taking some action in the matter and he thought that the house might well re-affirm the resolution passed by them the year before last. Nothing had occurred since then to change the opinion of the public generally.

Hon. Mr. Tweedie said that the government had already had the subject under consideration and the Hon. Mr. White will go to Ottawa to oppose the bill. The bill would interfere with treaty rights, with a charter granted to another company, and with the rights of the public generally.

KING'S DAUGHTERS.

The King's Daughters Guild held their quarterly meeting last evening. Reports were submitted by the special committees, the house committee, the opportunity and ministering circles, the doorkeepers' circle, and others.

The various reports showed the work to be progressing very satisfactorily. The King's Daughters have met this winter some of the hardest problems they have ever had to face, but by unsparring effort on the part of the members they have come out ahead.

Everything was reported in good order at the home. Miss Redden, the new matron in charge since Christmas, has the house pretty well filled with boarders.

What was considered the most important work of the quarter was the establishment of two night schools for boys, which have been well attended throughout the winter, and have given satisfactory results. The evening school for girls held in the guild has also been well attended and made good progress in their studies under Miss Annie Smith and Miss Sutherland.

The general secretary, Miss C. A. Pratt, has done a good deal of strenuous work during the quarter, visiting sick and attending to the numerous calls for employment, relief and for misde. The Bible Society, which has been conducted during the last quarter by Miss Cameron, has been exceptionally well attended.
