ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., JULY 13, 1905.

A DEFENCELESS TREASURY.

A cartoon in an Upper Canadian paper represents the Canadian treasury weeping a goodby to J. Lorne McDougal, who is leaving it unprotected amid great dangers.

A better depiction of the situation today would be hard to find. For twenty-eight years, Mr. McDougall, as auditor general, has stood between the treasury and the grafters. Appointed by Sir Alexander McKenzie he served through the eighteen years of Conservative rule faithfully. At times he was too censorious in his criticisms, too finicky and trivial in his methods but his errors were always in the direction of safety and no Conservative ever attempted to lessen the powers allowed under the Audit Act, of which he took full advantage.

But when the time came again to do the work Sir Alexander McKenzie appointed him to do—protect the treasury from Liberals—his troubles began. He found every obstacle put in the way of his duty, found himself confronted by improved tricks of graft, by influences and pressure he never felt before. In the face of these he found himself, under the present Audit Act, powerless to protect adequately the money of the people. He asked for an amendment but got no response. The government even refused to appoint a commission to enquire if amendments were necessary. He threatened to resign—still no response Now he has resigned, as clearly forced away from his post as if he had been seized by masked men and thrown out of the window.

Mr. McDougall is only sixty-nine years old and as fit for good work as he ever was. But because he will not consent to stand beside the public safe with his eyes bandaged and his mouth gagged, he must go.

The cartoon referred to fancifully represented the treasury as shedding tears. It is the people, whose money that treasury holds who should be weeping at J. Lorne McDougall's departure. For those who are forcing him out are not doing so for nothing and what they make we must pay.

LIBERALS AND IMPERIALISM.

Are the Liberal leaders indifferent with respect to British connection or are they deliberately plotting to separate this country from the empire? The recent history of the party compels belief in one theory or the other.

There has been the persistent refusal of the government to contribute anything to the maintenance of the Imperial army or navy; there was the so evident reluctance with which the popular clamor was acceded to and Canadian soldiers allowed to go—at the British taxpayer's expense—to South Africa; there was Laurier's refusal to join with the leader of the opposition in a resolution approving the Imperial objects of Mr. Chamberlain's preferential policy and there is the more recent action which will soon result in the withdrawal of the last British soldier from Canada and probably of the British navy from Canadian waters.

Are any of these things calculated to knit Canada more closely into the empire? Are they not rather apt to loosen the bonds, to make Canada gradually more independent, to develop little-Canadianism, as distinct from Imperialism?

And if they are, what is the object of those who are forcing Canada along these lines?

Three times as much bonus for immigrants from the scum of continental Europe as for the agriculturalists and artisans from Great Britain—that is what the Liberal government is paying and that is a fair indication of their attitude toward all things British.

The morgue on King St. East, as at present conducted, is disgusting and unsanitary and the protest of the people of that vicinity is well founded. A properly equipped and managed repository for unidentified bodies with disinfecting and cooling facilities is not open to so much objection, but that unventilated, filthy, foetid room on King Street with no water and no accommodations, save dirty tables is a dangerous neighbor.

The Dominion of Canada closed the fiscal year at the end of last month with a net debt of $251,092,625, which was $5,954,450 in excess of the debt of the year before. There is an increase of $860,000 in revenue for the year, an advance of $5,550,000 on the current expenditure, and of $1,880,000 in the capital expenditure. But the expenditure accounts are not all in, and something will be added to these generous figures. —Sun.

SCYTHE SONG.

Mowers, weary and brown and blithe,
What is the word methinks you know,
Endless over-word that the Scythe
Sings to the blades of the grass below?
Scythes that sing to the grass and clover,
Something, still, they say as they pass;
What is the word that, over and over,
Sings the scythe to the flowers and grass?

Hush, ah hush, the Sythes are saying,
Hush, and heed not, and fall asleep;
Hush, they say to the grasses swaying;
Hush, they sing to the clover deep!
Hush—'tis the lullaby Time is singing—
Hush, and heed not, for all things pass;
Hush, ah hush! and the Scythes are swinging
Over the clover, over the grass!
—ANDREW LANG.

SPIES FOLLOW LAWSON.

Author of Frenzied Finance Says He Is Being Tracked in His Western Speaking Tour.

FAIRBURY, Neb., July 12—Thomas W. Lawson informed his audience at Fairbury Chautauqua yesterday that three spies employed by his enemies are following him through the West, watching his utterances and the temper of his audiences. Mr. Lawson said that he knew the men, their names and all about them and that he felt that he could have no higher tribute to the effectiveness of his work than that it was thought worth while to take such measures.

Fairbury was much alive to the opportunity of seing and hearing Mr. Lawson. A crowd of curious citizens gathered about his car and he shook hands with more than eight hundred men and women, some of whom said they had come five, six and seven hundred miles to see him. Several citizens with automobiles and a brass band took Mr. Lawson and his party to a circus tent in which the Chautauqua meetings are held. Half of the audience were women.

Mr. Lawson had partly recovered his voice and spoke in a low conversational tone. He said:—

"I have come out West on a very simple message. I said in Kansas on the evening of my first talk that I had come for the sole purpose of endeavoring to plant a simple, tiny kernel of truth. Whereupon, one of our great reformers of the East, District Attorney Jerome, of New York, in an enthusiastic effort to give me a good send off, called my attention, on the eve of my effort to root up the ground to get that kernel in, that it was a poor joke on the West that a fellow from Boston should come out here to plant anything, much less one kernel. And the papers also called attention to the fact that the West had already been planted with a kind of kernel I proposed to distribute.

"My mission to the West is to try to show the people just where the enormous surplus over and above what they have consumed for their existence has gone.

"My enemies and those who may suffer through my work call what I have to say 'rot.' After I got through talking in Kansas City one of the papers said:—'Why, there is nothing new there. That is the old Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska populism.'

"I don't know whether it is or not, for I have been so very busy in my lifetime doing those things that I know about that I have not had much time to spend hunting up other people's business, which I did not see had any connection with mine. Now it may be that what I have been saying and am going to say is the old populism of the West. If it is it must be pretty good stuff.

"If it is the old populism, then Wall street and Standard Oil and the rest are about to learn for the first time that Western populism is the hottest stuff that ever struck them.

"John D. Rockefeller isn't such a bad fellow—he is as good as he knows how to be, but nothing but death will save him from the hands of a receiver when once I get to him."

The greatest enthusiasm of the day was shown when Mr. Lawson called on the people of Kansas to keep their eye on him, and see whether he made good his boast to drive Wall street back to its place as a market for legitimate trading.

MESSENGER BOY HURT.

Thrown From His Bicycle and Dangerously Injured—Same Boy Was Badly Hurt Last Year.

Herbert Fleet, a Western Union telegraph messenger boy, is in the hospital in a very critical condition as a result of a bicycle accident this morning.

Young Fleet is no stranger to the hospital, having spent some weeks there last fall, when for eleven days he lay unconscious as the result of a fall from Leonard's wharf, when he received a slight fracture of the skull. It is his head that is again injured, and Dr. Sheffield, who was nearby when the accident happened, and who ordered the lad removed to the hospital, cannot yet tell how serious the accident is.

Young Fleet was riding at a rapid pace along Prince William street in the direction of the Western Union office, when in front of the Imperial building his wheel collided with Samuel Johnston, a painter, who was crossing the street. The lad was hurled through the air over the handle bar of the wheel and struck on his head. Johnston was knocked down and for some time was in a semi-unconscious state, but soon recovered and was able to go back to work. He bled considerably at the nose, but otherwise was uninjured.

The messenger boy was carefully carried into Tilley & Fairweather's office till the ambulance arrived. His screams as he regained consciousness attracted a large crowd. Everything that could be done to alleviate his sufferings was done at once.

DIVIDENDS.

In another column will be found the semi-annual dividend notice of the B. C. Permanent Loan and Savings Company, showing that a dividend at the rate of nine per cent. per annum upon class "A" permanent stock has been declared for the past half-year.

Sergt. Smith, who for some time has been in the city instructing the different companies of the 3rd Regt., C. A., left on return to Quebec last evening. The officers of the Artillery had applied to have Sergt. Smith remain here until the end of the present month, as he has done excellent work and his lectures have proved of much value to all. But there is a shortage of instructors in Quebec, and also a much larger number of men than formerly. So the department decided that Sergeant Smith must return.

Another homeseekers' excursion left St. John last evening for the west, and as usual, P. E. Island sent proportionately the largest number. Of one hundred and seventy-five who took the train from here, seventy-five were from the island and came on the five o'clock train last evening. There were sixty from Nova Scotian I. C. R. points, and New Brunswick points east of Moncton, twenty from sections reached by the D. A. R., and the remainder were from the North Shore. From St. John to McAdam thirty others were expected and there would be more than two hundred people on the train bound for Western Canada when it left McAdam.

STRIKE FUNDS SHORT.

Contributions to Chicago Strikers Falling Off—Another Effort to Spread the Struggle is Being Made.

CHICAGO, July 13.—The executive board of the Chicago Federation of Labor has abandoned the solicitation of funds on behalf of the striking teamsters. Hereafter all contributions from unions affiliated with the federation will be received by the finance committee of the teamsters' joint council. Contributions from unions affiliated with the federation have dwindled from $12,000 a week early in the strike, to less than $4,000. The department stores' drivers made a strong effort last night to spread the struggle. After the meeting officials of the union announced that a special meeting of the baggagemen and parcel delivery drivers will be held tonight to vote on a strike against parcel delivery concerns that collect for the Chicago Cartage Company, which is making deliveries to strike-bound firms.

COLD STORAGE

The local Board of Trade have received a copy of a letter sent to the consul general of the Netherlands in Toronto from the Bureau Voot Handelsinlichtingen, Amsterdam, announcing the establishment of a cold storage system in Amsterdam and the intention of establishing one on Rotterdam. The letter asks that merchants be notified to this effect. Full particulars can be had by applying to De Administratic Van Net Algemeen Nederlandsch Expeitblad, Amsterdam
