TWO YEARS FOR HENRY T. WALSH.

South African Soldier Sentenced for Theft.

He Defended Himself and Checked the Judge—Another Charge Against Him Was Not Pressed.

(Special to the Star.)

HAMPTON, N. B., July 18.—In the Kings County court today Henry T. Walsh, the prisoner sent up for trial by Stipendiary Magistrate Morrison, of Sussex, on a charge of stealing a watch and chain on July 1st, the property of David H. McNutt, proprietor of the Central Hotel, Sussex, was brought before his honor, Judge Wedderburn, and elected to be tried under the speedy trials act.

On being arraigned he pleaded not guilty and conducted his own defence.

A new charge was brought against him for stealing on July 2nd, one revolver, one knife, and two pairs of golf stockings, the property of Stanley Lawton, proprietor of Heath Hall, Hampton. The witness in the first cases were David H. McNutt, William McLeod, Sergeant James W. Campbell, Samuel Webber and David Komiensky. The accused cross-examined the witnesses, but failed to elicit anything to his advantage. He made no defence, and produced no witnesses, but appealed to the court for leniency on the grounds of his services to king and country in South Africa, as well as the militia of Canada. He tried to awaken sympathy by stating that his sister was the wife of a banker in South Africa and that he had a wife and child in New York, to whom he was going when arrested.

Judge Wedderburn, in pronouncing judgment, said the case had been clearly proved against him by a strong statement of facts. He was sorry that the honor and honesty which he claimed to have carried into the camp of Mars, in South Africa, was not taken by him into the camp at Sussex. As to his wife and child—if his statement is true, he (the judge) felt for them, for it is such as they who suffer by the misdeeds of those who should love and protect them. He proposed to act leniently and sentenced him to the penitentiary for two years, with hard labor, expressing the hope that he would come out resolved to live an upright and honorable life. The second charge would not be pressed at the present time.

The prisoner thanked the judge in sarcastic tones and indulged in a little display of fireworks, upon which his honor ordered his removal to gaol.

Court then adjourned.

FIELDING DOESN'T FAVOR MAILS LANDING AT SYDNEY.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, Ont., July 18.—This morning McKenzie, of Cape Breton, made a strong presentation of the superiority of North Sydney over all other points as a leading spot of British mails for Montreal and the west, as establisher by the recent preliminary test of the Virginian's run. Chiefly he held that the new idea would give the maritime provinces the British mails from one to three days quicker than they now come via New York.

Fielding said the great success of the experiment was the wonderful run over the I. C. R. from Sydney to Montreal, but he pointed out this saving only applied to boats running south of Cape Race, and was not possible in the season when mail steamers have to run via the Straits of Belle Isle.

J. J. HILL DENIES QUEER REPORT.

NEW YORK, July 18.—That the Vancouver, Victoria and Eastern, the new road which the Great Northern interests intend to build in British Columbia is to be made part of a new trans-continental line through Canada, as was recently reported, has been emphatically denied by James J. Hill in an interview published by the Times.

"Such a suggestion is nonsense," said the capitalist, "there is no plan. A large part of the territory in British Columbia and in Northern Washington is practically indentical in character and distinguished in no way one part from the other, except by the drawing of an imaginary line. The new road will cross and re-cross the frontier, following the streams that run through the territory. It will furnish means of transportation to a rich, low grade ore country."

SUICIDE AT SYDNEY.

HALIFAX, July 18.—An employee of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company, Edward Robinette, threw himself before a train at Sydney this morning. The train passed over his body killing him instantly. The reason for the suicide is not known.

REFORMERS WOULD DEPOSE THE CZAR.

Popular Movement on Foot to Give the Crown to the Infant Czarevitch---Peace Negotiations.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 18.--12.05 p. m.—A sensational rumor current here today is that a large party of the Zemstvoists and Doumaists at Moscow are in favor of the proclamation of the deposition of Emperor Nicholas and the establishment of a regency for the Grand Duke Alexis Nikolaievitch (the infant son of the emperor and heir to the throne) under four grand dukes.

AND CZAREVITCH.

It is alleged that for this reason the meeting of the all-Russian Zemstvoist and Doumaist congress which was to take place tomorrow at Moscow has been prohibited.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 18.—(Noon) —M. Witte had a final interview with Emperor Nicholas at Peterhof today. Foreign Minister Count Lamsdorff was present showing the complete harmony of view between M. Witte and the foreign minister. M. Witte leaves St. Petersburg for Paris tomorrow, accompained by Mme. Witte. At Paris they meet their daughter, who is the wife of the secretary of the Russian legation at Brussels. Mme. Witte has no intention of joining her husband later in America.

GIRLS OUT ALL NIGHT.

Arrested Early This Morning—Policeman Gave Them a Bad Record But They Say They Are Good.

The prisoners' bench seated three prisoners this morning one ordinary drunk who was fined $8 or thirty days, and two young girls who gave their names as Ethel Snodgrass, age 19 and Bessie Goldsworthy, age 17. They were charged with lying and lurking in an alley off Peters street, between five and six o'clock this morning, and not giving a satisfactory account of themselves. Both girls were very respectably attired wearing caps and each carrying an umbrella.

Officer Crawford said he had seen the girls for the last two months walking the streets night after night, at a very late hour. Last night officer White saw them on Brussels street after midnight and this morning about five o'clock, witness came across the two girls in an alley at the back of the Globe laundry on Waterloo street. He had also seen them previously talking to one of the night porters at the Victoria Hotel. When arrested they gave wrong names and stated they were waiting for the Snodgrass girl's sister. Officer Crawford said he knew Ethel Snodgrass to be a woman of bad character. She had a child last winter, and had to go to the Alms house. She mixed up with a very bad class of people. As regards Goldsworthy, he only knew that she had been walking the streets for some time past.

Snodgrass who was crying denied that she was a "desperate" character, on the other hand, she said she bore a good reputation. The reason they went up the alley was that Goldsworthy's hair came down, and they wanted to do it up. Witness said her sister worked at the Victoria Hotel and that she (her sister) and a girl named Kate Carr had been walking about all night, whilst Goldsworthy and herself had simply gone out to try and find them.

Bessie Goldsworthy, who was also shedding tears, also stood up for her character and said officer Crawford was the only one in the police force who came after them. Witness saw "Bill White" on Brussels street late last night when she and Snodgrass were standing by the latter's door at 10.30.

Goldsworthy went on to bear out Snodgrass' statement as to the hair, and also said that Snodgrass' sister, who went by the name of Alice Berry, and who worked at the Victoria Hotel, was walking about all night in company with the girl Carr, and that witness and Snodgrass were out trying to find them.

His honor remanded the prisoners until tomorrow at 10 o'clock for the presence of officer White, and gave orders for them to be placed in separate cells.

Mrs. Lizzie McVane, 104 Brittain street, charged John Power of the same address with assault which took the form of spitting at her. It appears there was a quarrel between children of the two families which in the end involved the parents. Mr. Power denied the offence, and called his wife in support of his denial. After hearing both sides of the story his honor dismissed the charge.

N. B. DOCTORS MEET.

Every Part of the Province Represented — Only Routine Business Was Transacted This Morning.

N. B. DOCTORS— z z z z z z

The twenty-fifth annual meeting of the New Brunswick Medical Society was commenced this morning in the council chambers. Dr. A. R. Myars, of Moncton, president of the society, took the chair.

Those present were: Drs. A. R. Myers, Moncton, (president); J. McNicol, Bathurst; L. R. Murray, Sussex, (secretary); F. H. Wetmore, Hampton; T. D. Walker, St. John; A. F. Emery, St. John; Jas. Christie, St. John; R. G. Day, St. John; S. Skinner, St. John; G. R. J. Crawford, St. John; J. H. Scammell, St. John; E. T. Gaudet, St. Joseph, N. B. (vice-president); W. A. Christie, St. John; J. G. Nugent, Briggs Corner, N. B.; J. C. Mott, St. John, (trustee); Geo. A. Hetherington, St. John; O. J. McCully, St. John; G. A. B. Addy, St. John; D. E. Berryman, St. John; Thos. Walker, St. John; A. J. Murray, Fredericton, N. B.; F. M. Brown, Centreville, N. B.; C. H. L. Johnston, St. John; P. R. Inches, St. John; A. B. Atherton, Fredericton, N. B.; A. G. Addy, St. John; Geo. G. Corbet, St. John; C. F. Purdy, Moncton; Geo. G. Melvin, St. John, (treasurer); Walter W. White, St. John; W. L. Ellis, St. John; G. C. Vanwart, Fredericton; J. W. Daniel, St. John; J. M. Deacon, Milltown; H. G. Folkins, Norton.

It was resolved at the commencement of the meeting that the order of business be changed, so as to alllow of a larger number of members being present to hear and take part in subsequent discussion on certain papers to be read.

A letter from the National Council of Women of Canada, dated Toronto, July 11th, was read, saying that at the request of the Ontario Association of Graduate Nurses, who are trying to secure official registration of nurses, the National Council of Women would be glad to know the opinion of the N. B. Medicial Association on the matter.

The matter was referred to a small committee to report at this afternoon's session.

Some of the members present asked why the council's report for the year had not been printed and circulated amongst the members as promised last year.

Dr. Walker said the council were not compelled by law to make any report at all and as they had only just met to consider it themselves there had been no time to print it.

Dr. T. D. Walker at this juncture asked that the press present be not allowed to report the discussion, saying that the corresponding secretary would furnish reports for the press. He was not against the press, but he thought it best for the secretary to supply the reports.

This resolution being put to the meeting met with practically no support.

Dr. Atherton moved that the question of the council's report be referred to a committee to report this afternoon. This was carried unanimously.

It was agreed that the election of five new members to the council be held this evening at 8.30 o'clock.

The president then delivered his address, which was received with applause and referred to a committee.

The registrar's report showed that the following have passed the professional examination in June last and are entitled to have their names entered in the medical register:

C. T. Allen, Great Shemogue; L. G. Bourret, Rogersville; B. H. Dougan, Harvey Station; J. A. Gillis, Metapedia; J. S. Bentley, Truro; Margaret E. Douglass, Stanley; W. J. Scott, Montreal; B. W. Robertson, St. John; L. deC. MacIntosh, Hartland; S. O. McMurty, Montreal; A. Stuart Loggie, Chatham; M. E. McKay, Cape Breton; Ernest Rominel, Alma; Alex. S. Lamb, Little Shemogue; Aug. Martin, Campbellton; Daniel P. Maloney, Melrose; Wm. B. McVey, Rothesay; W. S. Saunders, Hawkshaw.

The following have passed the preliminary examination: N. A. Farris, White's Cove; W. E. Gray, Campbellton.

A paper was then read by the vice-president, Dr. Gaudet, on Surgical Diagnosis.

The meeting adjourned at this stage till this afternoon.

JEWESS WEDS A N. Y. MILLIONAIRE.

Romantic Career of Rose Harriet Pastor.

Brilliant and Beautiful Hebrew Girl Worked Herself Up From Whitechapel Slums to High Position.

STAMFORD, Conn., July 18.—The wedding of Miss Rose Pastor to John C. Phelps-Stokes, son of Anson Phelps-Stokes, which took place at noon today in the pretty little church at Norton, was exceedingly modest in its appointments, although among Norton people it was regarded as the social event of the season. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Louis French, the rector of St. Luke's, assisted by the groom's brother, Rev. Anson Phelps-Stokes, Jr., of New Haven, secretary of Yale University. There were no bridesmaids. Mrs. Henry Rauh, of Indianapolis, formerly Miss Ways, of Cleveland, was matron of honor. The ushers, all of whom were relations of the groom, were his brothers, I. N. Phelps-Stokes and Harold Phelps-Stokes, and his brothers-in-law, Robert Hunter and John Sherman Hoyt. The best man was Kellog Durland, one of the youngest of the resident workers at the university settlement in New York. The bride wore a simple dress of white mousselin de foie. Oak lawn, palms and daisies were used in the church decorations.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at Brick House, the country residence of the groom. Norton is about a mile from the church. Nearly one hundred guests were present, including members of the two families and intimate personal friends of the bride and groom.

It is the intention of Mr. and Mrs. Stokes to go abroad for a vacation of about two months. Upon their return they will take up their residence on the lower east side, New York, where they will continue the settlement work in which both have been engaged.

COUNTY COUNCIL WON'T PAY CORONERS.

Think Their Bills Are Too Extravagant.

Views Held When Entirely Unnecessary—Bill from the Asylum is Also Strongly Objected To.

The regular quarterly meeting of the municipal council is being held this afternoon in their chambers, and there is an average attendance. Outside routine business there is little of public interest beyond the fact that the finance committee consider that the coroners' bills are excessive and recommend that they be cut down.

The recommendation of the committee reads: "The committee had under consideration the bills of Coroner Roberts for holding three views, $12.00, and a bill of Coroner Berryman for holding one view, $4.00. In the opinion of the committee these views were unnecessary. They therefore recommend that these bills be not paid."

The committee consider that many views of bodies are made when they are entirely unnecessary, frequently being made in cases of sudden death where a physician has been in attendance, and oftentimes where death was due to simple accident, the causes of which were so manifest that the enquiry was nothing but ridiculous. The finance committee, of which Dr. William Christie is chairman, say this must stop.

The report further reads:

"The committee further recommend that a discount of five per cent. be allowed on all taxes for the present year if paid on or before the first day of November.

"The committee also had under consideration a bill from the commissioners of the Provincial Hospital for the maintenance of forty-five pauper lunatics, amounting to $1,798.57, and it appearing that this amount is much larger than that paid in past years the committee referred the bill to a special committee to investigate and report, and in the meantime no action be taken by the council in the matter."

JOHN T. LINKLETTER ARRESTED AS FIREBUG.

The police today arrested John T. Linkletter, a boy aged sixteen years, on suspicion of setting fire to Mrs. Mary Carleton's house on Southwark street.

The police have been working on the case since Sunday and have strong evidence against the prisoner who is also suspected of setting the other fires which have alarmed that locality.

Dr. Roberts has not yet fixed the date and time for the inquest on little Richard Logan, who was run over and killed last evening, but it is expected it will take place tomorrow evening.
