FOOTBALL PLAYER'S NECK

BROKEN; DELIBERATE ATTACK.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The American says: With a broken neck, the result of what is charged to have been a deliberate attack upon him by opponents on the football field, Leo McNally lies at death's door in a hospital at Bridgeport, Conn. The doctors say he cannot live. McNally was a member of a team of semi-professional football players known as the Thunderbolts, playing left end. The Thunderbolts met a team named the Berkshires at Newfield Park baseball grounds, Bridgeport, yesterday before 2,500 persons.

A call upon the emergency hospital brought Surgeon Krauss, who found that McNally had a comminuted fracture of the third vertebrae of the neck with a complete paralysis of the body. At St. Vincent's hospital, to which the victim was taken the following day, he did nothing. McNally regained consciousness for a time late in the evening, and pleaded with his nurse and doctor that the police took no action against the members of the Berkshires team.

A TWO-FOR-ONE SHOT.

When you use Ozone use "Celery King" with it. Whatever kind of Ozone you buy you will find "Celery King," which is a companion remedy to Ozone.

The purest form of Ozone is "Solation Ozone (the coupon kind)." Each bottle contains about twice as much for your money as other brands, besides which each bottle contains a coupon entitling you to a package of "Celery King" free. This is a great advantage as you save money on the Ozone and also get the "Celery King" free which you would otherwise have to buy.

No other brand of Ozone contains these coupons. "Solation Ozone (the coupon kind)" is fifty cents and one dollar at your drug store, including the coupon for the package of "Celery King." Take no other and if your druggist does not carry it write to the Public Drug Co., Bridgeport, Ont.

GERMAN LOSSES IN AFRICA.

BERLIN, Dec. 1.—The Militair Wochenblatt, the army organ, publishes this morning the losses of German troops operating against the insurgents in German Southwest Africa. The total number of men in the field is given as 15,000. Of this number those who were killed or who died of wounds were: Eighty-three officers, 175 non-commissioned officers and 953 privates. The total loss, including wounded, is given at 151 officers, 397 non-commissioned officers and 1,334 privates.

FAMILIAR LINE.

"The Moaning of the Tied."

DR. SCOTT'S White Liniment

Is perfection in a family remedy combining strength and unparalleled healing qualities.

For external use it is superior for Bruises, Burns, Canker, Neuralgia, Lame Back or Side, Muscular Rheumatism, Sprains, Strains, Chilblain, Stings and Frost Bites.

THREE IMPORTANT REASONS

Why intending purchasers of a Piano should buy from

The Nordheimer Piano Co.,
LIMITED,
28 CHARLOTTE STREET.

1st—Because if you want quality we have the best in the city or province.

2nd—Because you buy direct from the manufacturer and save dealers' profits.

3rd—Because when you purchase a STEINWAY & SONS PIANO or a NORDHEIMER PIANO you get a piano worth its price. And you are sure that the same style piano only has ONE price and is not sold at three or four different prices in your vicinity or elsewhere.

RUSSIA MUST PAY
JAPAN $25,000,000.

TOKIO, Dec. 1.—General Baron Kuribayashi, who commanded the Japanese fight army in Manchuria will leave Port Dahl tomorrow for Japan. The balance in favor of Japan for prisoners' expenses is estimated at $25,000,000. It is believed that this sum will be devoted to the development of the interests of Manchuria.

LOUBET DECLINES RE-ELECTION.

PARIS, Dec. 1.—In the course of an interview published this morning M. Loubet states categorically that he will not accept a re-election to the presidency as he considers a renewal of the democratic country. The president says that his retirement will absolutely conclude his public career in any capacity.

QUEEN ALEXANDRA'S AID FOR THE POOR.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—Queen Alexandra has not given up her interest in behalf of the unemployed, and has sanctioned a unique plan to raise more funds for them. This will be in the shape of a series of Christmas books which will be entitled "The Queen's Christmas Card." It will consist of poems, stories, sketches, drawings and illustrations by persons prominent in the world of art and literature of Great Britain. Algeon Charles Swinburne, Alfred Austin, the poet laureate, Thomas Hardy, Marie Corelli, Hall Caine, George Meredith, Arthur Wing Pinero, Alfred Assolant, Edna St. Vincent Millay, Wm. Holman Hunt, Sir Edward John Poynter and Sir Edward Elgar are among those who will contribute. The production of the book will be practically gratuitous. It will sell for half a crown, and the proceeds will be devoted to the Queen's unemployed fund.

BARGE FOUNDERED; FOUR DROWNED; ONE A WOMAN.

BOSTON, Dec. 1.—The foundering of the new steel barge Delaware, and the loss of four persons on board was reported here today by the tug Scranston, which had been towing the Delaware from New York.

The barge went down in a heavy sea at 8:30 o'clock last night, about eight miles from Minot's light.

Those lost were Capt. John B. Mulsey, Mrs. Mulsey, his wife; engineer of the barge, Cook of the barge.

LOTS OF 'LONGSHORE' WORK.

There are now in port seven large ocean liners—two Dominion liners, the Allan liner, the West India boat, the Head liner and the C. P. R. steamer. The members of the Longshoremen's Association are doing what laboring work is required, and about 300 or 400 men were at work today. There were also a large number of laborers awaiting work along Water street and in the union hall. It is expected that three of the steamers will have sailed by Sunday.

AN ADIEU TO ABERDEEN.

(This was copied from an old scrap book found recently, the writer's name being obliterated by age.)
Beloved Bon Accord
Thou art not the less adored
Though the pleasures of your season I have gone.
Though now I'm far away,
I shall ne'er forget the day
That I left you for the city of Saint John.

It was hard for me to stand
And review my native land,
As the vessel bore me onward from the shore,
Restraining flowing tears
And subduing rising fears
That I might not tread its heather any more.

I will not soon forget
Though I do not now regret
That I've wandered from your bonnie deen and don.

There are those who would to me,
But it's worth your while to see
All the grandeur of a river like Saint
John.

We are famed for granite blocks,
While the ships that leave our stocks
Are the finest that the world can afford.
And our modelled squares and dells,
Where we meet such charming belles,
As if we were in paradise restored.

Now it's hard to bid adieu
To beloved friends like you.
Since days of happy childhood I have known.
I have a heavy sigh
And the tear beddins my eye,
But I'm happy in the city of Saint
John.

LOCAL NEWS

The meeting of the Baltimore Coal Mining and Railway Co. has been postponed till December 12th.

Rev. Mr. Berris of Jacksonville will conduct the prayer meeting service in Kennewick street Methodist church this evening. The pastor is not able to attend.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Carmarthen street Methodist church will hold a sale of fancy and useful articles at 111 Falmouth street Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons and evenings, Dec. 5 and 6.

In commemoration of St. Andrew's day a united service for men was held under the auspices of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in St. George's church, west side, last evening. The service was well attended, a number from the city chapters going over.

The lesson being read by Rev. G. R. E. MacDonald, and Rev. G. A. Kuhring preached an interesting and powerful sermon from the subject of St. Andrew going after his brother. He pointed out the various ways that the Brotherhood should work together in the cause for which the organization was formed, and his address was attentively listened to by those present.

During the service special and appropriate hymns were sung, Geo. Collinson presiding at the organ.

J. Aitman, of Vienna, is in the city, having arrived yesterday morning from Halifax. Mr. Aitman is visiting Canada for the purpose of promoting closer trade relations between this country and Austria. He has already done considerable missionary work along this line, having toured Canada from Montreal to Vancouver two years ago as a representative of the Austrian government, advertising the manufactures and natural products of that country.

SULTAN IS CONSIDERING

CONSTANTINOPLE, Via Sofia, Dec. 1.—An extraordinary council of ministers is in session at the Yildiz palace to consider the situation arising from the refusal of the ambassador to modify their demands in regard to the financial control of Macedonia. Tewfik Pasha, the foreign minister, previously interviewed the British ambassador and urged a compromise which would not injure the Sultan's dignity, but the ambassador was obdurate. He declared that any modification of the scheme was impossible.

QUEEN ALEXANDRA'S 61ST BIRTHDAY.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—Queen Alexandra is 61 years old today and her birthday was celebrated with the usual heartiness throughout the kingdom, including artillery salute, the ringing of church bells and the display of flags, etc. Congratulations from all parts poured in at Sandringham, where the queen entertained all the children of the estate at tea, personally superintending the proceedings.

Because its employees frequently were late, a large London house recently ordered that the tardy ones should write their excuses in a book provided for that purpose. But the clerks proved lazy and unoriginal. At the top of a page a late one would write "Train delayed" or "Omnibus horse died," as the case might be and the rest fell into the habit of making ditto marks and letting it go at that. But not long ago one man had a new excuse. He wrote with pride: "Wife had twins." The second slow person that morning was for Delago Bay, Port Elizabeth and Cape Town. The Oriana is from Delago Bay and has been expected for the last three or four days.

on that page followed suit. The excuse book was abolished.

SOUTH AFRICAN BOAT HERE.

The Elder-Dempster Oriana, of the South African line, arrived off the island this morning and will probably be in mid-stream for some time, sailing again about the middle of December.
