LOST SIRIO'S CAPTAIN SAVED

Tried to go Down With Vessel but was Rescued

More Survivors Have Reached Shore —Spanish Charity to the Stricken Passengers

CARTAGENA, Aug. 6.—Numerous bodies were thrown up on the shore during the day. Most of them are of persons of the better class. Several small fishing smacks have arrived, bringing in survivors of the Sirio who were found floating at sea a long distance from the Sirio disaster. Spanish warships stationed at Cartagena have been ordered to search the neighborhood of the catastrophe for survivors who may be still floating on pieces of wreckage or with life buoys. British warships at Gibraltar also have left at full speed in the direction of Cartagena to render assistance in exploring the surrounding seas. The first report of the disaster declared that the captain of the Sirio had committed suicide. Later information, however, shows that he was on board the steamer when she sank, and expressed the determination to go down with his vessel. He was afterwards rescued, in spite of his refusal to be saved.

Spanish minister of the interior has requested the minister of finance to supply funds to succor the stricken passengers. The Italian consul here and the members of the Italian colony acting in co-operation with the local authorities have provided for the immediate wants of the shipwrecked people.

The survivors of the Sirio are composed of 348 Italians, 40 Spaniards, 14 Arabs, 10 Austrians, 6 Orientals, 4 Argentines, 4 Brazilians and 119 persons whose nationality is not known.

One of the women survivors has given birth to a child since being brought here.

MADRID, Aug. 6.—The naval authorities here have opened an inquiry into the wreck of the steamer Sirio. The officers of the Sirio will be detained at Carthagena to await the result.

CARTHAGENA, Spain, Aug. 6—The Sirio is considered to be a total loss. A number of bodies of the drowned were buried today; ten passengers died after being brought ashore.

The survivors say that the Sirio sank with extreme rapidity. Many of the passengers were on deck as the steamer disappeared. The boats were so overcrowded that a number of them immediately capsized, throwing their occupants into the water.

Quantities of food and clothing for the survivors are arriving here from all parts of the country. A public subscription started for the relief of the destitute passengers has already reached a large sum. The survivors are quartered in the theatres, hospitals and clubs. Carlos Venturini, a resident of Barcelona, who was a passenger with his family on the Sirio, succeeded in saving his three sons and nine other passengers. His daughter, who is 18 years old, and an expert swimmer, saved two children whose parents are unknown. One family, consisting of the father, mother and six children, were drowned, with the exception of the father.

NAPLES, Aug. 6.—Many of the emigrants who sailed for South America on the Italian steamer Sirio, wrecked Saturday near Carthagena, Spain, were from Southern Italy, and accordingly great excitement is manifested here. Crowds of people are seeking details of the disaster and the names of passengers for the purpose of identifying the lost and saved.

Italian General Navigation Company, to which the wrecked vessel belonged, has despatched a steamer to Carthagena, carrying relief for the shipwrecked passengers and crew.

GENOA, Italy, Aug. 6.—The wreck of the Italian steamer Sirio, Saturday, off Hohmigas Island, near Carthagena, Spain, causes intense excitement among the relatives and friends of the Italian passengers and crew, most of whom lived here or in this vicinity. The offices of the captain of the port and of the Italian General Navigation Company, to which the Sirio belonged, were so besieged today by agonized throngs seeking information that the police were compelled to establish barriers to hold back crowds, some of whom assumed a threatening aspect, declaring that facts were being withheld.

The Sirio had seen 23 years of service, but she was considered to be seaworthy. Her captain, Guisseppe Parade, was a native of Genoa and a veteran seaman.

ROME, Aug. 6.—The Italian Navigation Company, owners of the wrecked steamer Sirio, received a despatch last night purporting to come from the captain, reserving his report of the details of the wreck, but saying that the crew were safe. This raises the possibility that the captain was rescued.

ST. JOHN'S CHARMS NOT WELL ADVERTISED

Ottawa Man Thinks Tourist Travel From Canada Could be Greatly Increased By Publicity Campaign

G. S. Hutchinson, of the Department of Public Printing and Stationery, Ottawa, was in the city yesterday. He is on his vacation and is enjoying a tour through the Maritime Provinces.

Mr. Hutchinson is a native of Nova Scotia and was formerly employed on the Ottawa Journal. He takes a great interest in the Maritime Provinces and particularly in the tourist travel. He estimates that the people of Ottawa alone spend over $50,000 a year at American summer resorts, and if the rest of Ottawa and Montreal is taken into consideration there is an expenditure of about half a million, much of which could be diverted to the Maritime Provinces. As Mr. Hutchinson remarked, we have now a steadily increasing tourist travel from the United States, but he has found that this travel is not as steady as the Upper Canadian. For instance, during the summers in which the Chicago, Buffalo and St. Louis expositions were held, the American travel diminished to a very appreciable extent. Now in Canada there are no such counter attractions, and year after year the same people leave Ottawa for American seaport towns being entirely unaware of the beauty spots in the provinces by the sea. They know of us commercially and politically, and there is no reason why we should not become acquainted socially.

Once the tide of tourist travel turns this way it will be steadily increased, and if this chance is not taken advantage of now a golden opportunity will be wasted.

Mr. Hutchinson is acquainted with many persons in Ottawa who might become visitors to this part of the country, and he will furnish addresses to the Tourist Association if they desire them.

In Ottawa there is an annual appropriation of $60,000 for the purpose of beautifying the city, and Mr. Hutchinson says this work is gradually becoming evident.

The proposed departmental buildings in Ottawa, which are to cost $5,000,000 will also add greatly to the beauty of that city, in fact the only fault one can find with Ottawa now is the intense heat. "If Ottawa had a climate like St. John it would be an ideal spot, but since this is not so the people of St. John should make greater efforts to induce visitors to the city."

HEIR TO MILLIONS ENLISTS IN NAVY

Son of William Storrs Wells, of Newport Becomes Seaman Apprentice

NEWPORT, R. I., August 6.—James Rayner Wells, son of William Storrs Wells, a New York millionaire who owns Chetwode, one of the most attractive villas in Bellevue avenue, has enlisted in the navy. His enlistment was evidently made with the full sanction of his father, who was at the train to bid him goodby this afternoon, when he left with a detachment of bluejackets for the receiving ship Franklin, at Norfolk.

According to the record, young Wells enlisted at the Brooklyn Navy Yard a week ago and was transferred to the naval training station here with a draft. He gave his age as twenty-three and was rated as a seaman apprentice, which gives him $16 a month. His enlistment is for four years, and meanwhile he can become proficient in seamanship and be sent on a cruise. According to the rules of the navy at present, through proficiency and good behavior he might obtain a commission.

Young Wells has not been here for several years. The last season he was at Newport he sailed to Europe very suddenly, a young saleswoman claiming that she was engaged to him. Since then many friends of the family had quite lost sight of him. He was particularly well liked among his friends, but his ideas of life were not in accordance with those of his parents. It is highly probable that after his four years' service in the navy the young man will go into the banking business, as his father hoped he would some years ago.

The fact that the young man could not settle down to such a business and social career as they could provide for him was a great disappointment to his father and mother.

ARRESTS NEAR IN HARTJE DIVORCE CASE

PITTSBURG, Aug. 4.—With both sides resting in the Hartje divorce trail, District Attorney John S. Robb has prepared a number of informations charging conspiracy, perjury and subornation of perjury against persons interested in the divorce suit.

John Freeman and M. W. Acheson, attorneys for Mrs. Hartje, gave him much assistance in the work.

Evidence against the person suspected of having forged the "Madine" letters is being rapidly accumulated. The person under suspicion is aware of this work, but as he is unable to escape should he desire to do so it is being done in the open. Detective Gilbert B. Perkins, who worked the case for Mrs. Hartje, is engaged also on this work.

Mrs. Hartje is resting at home today, and although thoroughly tired out is in good spirits and confident of her complete vindication.

The hearing of Detectives Stabb and Anderson, charged with burglary in robbing Tom Madine's trunk, will come up before Magistrate F. M. King on Monday. Anderson is reported to be weakening greatly since his arrest and has threatened to expose the entire conspiracy concerning the trunk.

MAYOR SEARS ASKS FOR CONTRACT.

Usual Discount in Taxes Will be Allowed —Word Done by Common Council.

Mayor Sears yesterday telegraphed the Hon. Mr. Hyman asking that the contract for the extra dredging be awarded at once. It was decided at yesterday's council meeting to give the 5 per cent. discount on this year's tax bills. The third section of the report presented by the treasury board relating to this 5 per cent. discount was discussed by the aldermen at some length. On motion of Alderman McGoldrick this section was adopted by a vote of 8 to 7.

The report of the board of public works was next considered section by section. The safety board's report was adopted.

On suggestion of Ald. Lockhart the council decided to send his worship the mayor, Ald. Baxter and Ald. Bullock to the conference of the municipal association which meets at Halifax in August.

A communication was read from Hon. H. A. McKeown on behalf of Mrs. S. H. Barker offering to allow the city to put in a septic cistern for the hotel sewerage on condition that the city pay all the expenses of putting in the pipes and cistern, and by paying her $60 for the privilege.

Ald. Baxter moved that the recorder be instructed to get an injunction to stop the nuisance carried.

GOT MANY KISSES NOW $100,000 BILL

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—When Robert Tait, son of a wealthy resident of Bronxville, N. Y. was served with papers in an action begun in the supreme court in the name of Alfie Jones, a fair haired chorus girl in The Rollicking Girl, and other productions, to recover $100,000 damages for alleged breach of promise of marriage, he expressed not the slightest degree of worriment, and informed the process server that he was sure he would be able to induce the young woman to come to some compromise.

Tait Miss Jones states, showed her much attention for months, and not only did he occupy an orchestra seat in the front row of theatres where she appeared, but he was almost the first man she would see in the audience. When he was not at the stage door he sent her scented notes or gifts of flowers or candy. In her complaint, which her counsel, George Robinson, prepared, she asserts that the young man promised to marry her, but failed to keep his promise.

Miss Jones has in her possession notes which, she says, Tait left at the stage door for her. One reads:

"Seetheart:—Now, dearie, when I see you I don't want you to give me any hard looks, because it's a thing I can't help. I'll explain it to you when I see you, girlie. Don't forget your promise to me and I'll not forget mine. Don't forget to write to me, sweetheart, because I'm lonely for you.

P. S.—Remember, sweetheart."

Many kisses in the shape of crosses are appended to the note.

In another note he states:

"Just a few lines to tell you I'll see you after tonight's performance—what is the excitement anyhow? You can be sure I'm O. K. or I wouldn't have told you about my folks, etc. You're a foolish girlie—foolish. Why can't you write a fellow a decent letter? It's just by chance I happened to be here tonight, as I have been home all week. You're a 'bird' to write that kind of a letter. One more kiss, swetheart.

"Yours, TAIT."
