SPORTING MATTERS

THE TURF

MOOSEPATH RACES.

The St. John horsemen have arranged to hold races on Moosepath track, and have selected Wednesday, Sept. 5th, and Thursday, Sept. 6th, as the days for the meet. Purses of $300 have been arranged for each of the five classes, and it is expected that some very good trotting will be shown here for those two days of the exhibition. The matter is in charge of John Ross, secretary of the St. John Driving Association, and he has associated with him a number of the prominent members of that association. It is expected that there will be a big field of interest for the different classes, as these dates will suit the horsemen in the maritime provinces who are following the circuit of exhibition horse races at St. John, Sussex, Chatham, Halifax and Charlottetown.

The classes arranged are as follows:

Wednesday, September 5th.
2.30 class.. .. ..Purse $300
2.22 class.. .. ..Purse $300
2.15 class.. .. ..Purse $300

Thursday, September 6th.
2.19 class.. .. ..Purse $300
Free-for-all.... .. ..Purse $300

The terms and conditions will be published in the course of a few days, and entries will close on August 20th with John Ross, secretary.

Friday's Boston Herald announced: "Tonita F. (2.11¼) and Billy Kerr (2.07¼), a horse that was in the market last winter for considerably less than $100, are matched to race in Southbridge tomorrow afternoon." Tonita F. died about two years ago, she was then owned by A. B. Etter, Amherst, N. S.

WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN.

The phenomenal success of Jockey Miller at Brighton, Saturday, was the talk of the race track. He wound up the day with a percentage of 100—an unusual record. If a $5 bet had been parlayed on Miller's five winning mounts the result would have been as follows:

Gold Lady, $20 to $5.
Content, $100 to $25.
Salvidere, $500 to $125.
Nannie Hodge, $1,000 to $625.
The Clown, $2,600 to $1,625.

That would have made a total of $4,225 on the day. But nobody thought that the boy would enjoy such unusual success.

PHOEBON W.'s TAKING OFF.

L. I. Flower, the eastern correspondent of the Horse Review, contributes the following:

Phoebon W., 2.08 3-4, who stands out sharp and clear as the best free-for-all campaigner ever seen in the maritime provinces, has had, since leaving here, a somewhat checkered career. Early last spring I told the readers of this paper the story of his abstraction from New Brunswick by our quondam, S. A. Fowler. Considering the way those who invested in lottery tickets on this horse were swindled, his pedigree might have been changed to read: "By Sleight of Hand, out of Maritime Sucker." He won an ice race for Fowler after his removal to Lewiston. The next we heard of him was that Fowler was training his eight-year-old daughter Bertha to drive the gelding and that the pair would be hippodromed at the "punkin' shows" next fall. Fast on the heels of this report came the news that Fowler had traded the gelding with W. J. Furbush, his former owner, for the Red Pepper colt, Prince I Wonder. There do be wicked people who hint that Mr. Furbush owned him all the time; but then, you know, there are people who will hint almost anything. As much as four or five hours later, we heard that Phoebon had been sold to S. A. Frost, of New Hampshire. And now, "last scene of all that closes this strange, eventful history," he goes to Brooklyn, N. Y., for use on the speedway. If he were here this season, working in anything like his 1904 form, I believe he would still head the summaries in the free-for-alls oftener than any other horse. We all like Phoebon, but we regret "the deep damnation of his taking off."

THE MAT

NATIVE V. AUSTRIAN.

NORTH SYDNEY, July 29.—From remarks dropped by Delivuk, the champion wrestler of Canada and Austria, it looks as if the bout between himself and Parker at Alexandra Rink, Glace Bay, on Wednesday night, will be an eye-opener for lovers of contests on the mat. Evidently Delivuk is far from being pleased with the decision given by Parker when he awarded the bout between the Austrian and Schofield to the latter. And there is no love lost between the Cape Bretoner and the Austrian. Parker's great showing in his meeting with Delivuk in Empire hall has demonstrated that he is a "foeman worthy of his steel." In their previous match, Parker, with scarcely any training, kept the Austrian decidedly busy in throwing him three times in the hour. It took him 58 minutes. Now, the Austrian agrees to throw Parker three times in forty minutes, and with the latter's previous experience and careful training, it looks as if the Austrian bit off more than he can masticate. In addition to the main bout there are two first class preliminaries between first class exponents of the art. It is expected arrangements will be made with the C. B. E. Co. to hold the last boat leaving Sydney, in order that passengers can connect with same. A large crowd from Sydney Mines will accompany the local sports to see the bout.

AQUATIC

Towns and Durnan Matched.

TORONTO, Aug. 1.—Eddie Durnan received a cable yesterday from Towns in which the latter agrees to row Durnan for the world's championship at Sydney in April. Durnan will communicate with his representative in Sydney, Charles Cummerford, and instruct him to arrange match, which will be for $2,500 a side.

Saturday's race on the Paramatta course marks the passing of Stanbury as a sculler. He is a big, raw-boned fellow with very lithe style but great speed for a short distance, and the strength to last the distance. He first came into prominence when he won the world's championship in 1891 by defeating J. MacLean, who had been handed the title by P. Kemp. Stanbury beat Tom Sullivan and Wag Harding and then fell before the Canadian, Jake Gaudaur, just ten years ago.

Five years ago George Towns, a medium-sized, well-built Australian of 30 years of age, came over to Canada with his tutor, Tom Sullivan, after several years spent in England, and on the lake at Rat Portage defeated Gaudaur, the time for the three miles being 20.32. Towns displayed a very nice style, gameness and endurance, and his victory was comparatively easy.

Towns held the championship until last year, when he met Stanbury on the Paramatta course, and was beaten in 20 minutes and 35 seconds. Saturday's race was the second meeting between the pair, and Towns won in 19 minutes 53 1-5 seconds, by 20 lengths. The course is down stream, and a wind at their backs would easily account for the unusually fast time. The championship record since Edward Hanlan won world's honors is as follows:

1883—Hanlan beat Wallace Ross.
1884—Hanlan beat Laycock.
1884—W. Beach beat Hanlan.
1885—W. Beach beat Hanlan.
1885—W. Beach beat Neil Matterson.
1886—W. Beach beat Jake Gaudaur.
1886—W. Beach beat Wallace Ross.
1887—W. Beach beat E. Hanlan.
1888—P. Kemp beat T. Clifford.
1888—P. Kemp beat Hanlan twice.
1888—H. Searle beat P. Kemp.
1889—H. Searle beat W. O'Connor.
1890—P. Kemp beat Neil Matterson.
1891—J. Stanbury beat J. Maclean.
1892—J. Stanbury beat C. R. Hardie.
1896—J. Gaudaur beat J. Stanbury.
1901—At Rat Portage—G. Towns beat J. Gaudaur.
1905—J. Stanbury beat Geo. Towns.
1906—Geo. Towns beat J. Stanbury.

A subscription list has been started in the West End to aid the Craft-Clark four crews that raced at Westfield on shell to race in. This was one of the four chews that raced at Westfield on Tuesday and they were unfortunate enough to break their shell in two.

THE RING

MATCHED AT LAST.

After beating around the bush with alleged interviews, the daily papers are at last forced to take the gaff and acknowledge that Joe Gans and Battling Nelson are at last matched to fight at Colma in the fall. It was the intention of the promoters to keep the match a secret until after Nelson had disposed of Kid Herman, a task which every man with any pugilistic judgment believes he is capable of doing. When Herman failed to dent Abe Attell in twenty rounds he does not appear to have a look-in with Bat.

MIKE (TWIN) AFTER NELSON.

Mike (Twin) Sullivan, the New England lightweight, has posted $1,000 in Denver as a forfeit to meet Battling Nelson any distance from six rounds to a finish. Sullivan has been very energetic of late in his endeavors to exchange courtesies with the Dane, but his efforts have been unsuccessful.

WANT TO HAVE PRIZE FIGHT IN SYDNEY.

Sydney Post: Wm. Macanultie of St. John has written to Danny Smith of this city with a view of ascertaining what the chances would be of pulling off here the Young Jack O'Brien-Phil McGovern bout Labor Day. The event is scheduled to come off at Halifax, but if arrangements could be made the manager would prefer Sydney. Young Jack O'Brien is a St. John boy, and claims the featherweight championship of Canada. He has been through the United States, where he has been up against some good ones and has not yet been beaten. Phil McGovern is a brother of the famous Terry, and out of twenty-three hard fought battles has been defeated only four times. Geo. Dixon, Billy Ryan and others have been made to hustle by him, and he is accounted a very clever exponent of the manly art. Danny Smith will interview the mayor and members of the city council regarding the chances of securing the necessary license.

BASEBALL

NEW TWIRLER HERE FOR THE TROJANS.

Francis James, of Salem, Mass., the new twirler for the Trojan baseball team, arrived here this afternoon and will probably be seen in action against the Victorias tonight. James comes to Moncton with an excellent reputation. He played earlier in the year on a team with Walter Driscoll of the Victorias; he and Driscoll forming the battery. Tonight's Victoria-Trojan game begins at 18.30 o'clock sharp and ought to attract a large crowd. Batteries—McCarthy and Driscoll, James and Embree.—Transcript.

O'NEILL A CURIOSITY.

The Chicago correspondent of Sporting Life writing under date of July 22nd furnishes the following interesting information concerning the St. John outfielder, "Tip" O'Neill, and his playing for the White Sox team in the American League:

"The Sox are working in a steady and yet brilliant fashion. Eastern ball writers say that they are showing speed, good judgment and all round skill. Pat Dougherty has been added to the roster, but has not yet been given a regular berth. He may have to wait till somebody gets hurt, for the mere fact that he is present on the bench makes Hahn and O'Neill hump themselves. O'Neill is playing a bit better ball than he has shown since he joined the team, and Hahn is trying hard to get a decent batting acerage. O'Neill is a curiosity. He seldom fans, he is fast as lightning going down to first and yet he seldom beats them out. Whenever he hits them across the infield they seem to take just one sharp bound and light right in the fielder's hand, ready for a quick toss to first. Jack also lifts to the short outfield too often. Queer, too, considering what a terror he has always been in the minor leagues."

TIBBITS AN OUTLAW.

Outfielder Dick Tibbits, of this city, and lately with the New Castle team of the Ohio-Pennsylvania League, is once more an outlaw player, having been suspended by Secretary Farrell of the National Association of Professional Baseball Clubs for jumping his contract.

This season Tibbits got back into the ranks of organized ball by securing his release from the Fall River club of the New England league and joining Manager Percy Stetler, for whom he worked in the Tri-State league. A few weeks ago Manager Stetler resigned, owing to difficulties with the New Castle club owners while the team was close to the leaders in the race. Manager Stetler went to the East Liverpool, Ohio, outfit, and without getting his release, Tibbits deserted the club and joined Mr. Stetler. Hence, Tibbits' desertion as a contract breaker.—Gleaner.

COMMISSIONER COOMBS COMING

Is Expected in the City Today on a Recreation Trip

Commissioner Coombs, accompanied by his wife and family, is expected to arrive in the city on the noon train today. His visit will not have any special official significance. For some time past the commissioner has not been enjoying very good health and he is now on furlough. While here, however, he may address some meetings, but it is not yet decided what will be the programme during his stay. The party will take a trip up the St. John river as far as Fredericton before returning home. Some time in the early part of the fall the commissioner will pay an official visit to St. John.

THE REAL LORD HELD BY POLICE

Was Arrested at Portland for Personating Himself

Man Wanted by Authorities is Accused of Bigamy and Many Other Crimes

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 1—Lord Sholto Douglas, son of the late Marquis of Queensbury, is, according to the belief of the local police, the man held in custody here today by order of the Asheville, N. C., police, on suspicion of being the American known as "Lord Douglass" among other aliases who is sought by the officers of many states and for whom rewards aggregating several thousand dollars have been offered.

He was arrested at Sebago lake where he has been living since May when he came here from England as he claims, with Lady Douglass and their son, both of whom were with him when an officer called at the cottage they occupied. The Asheville officers have been advised the prisoner has convinced the local authorities that he is the real Lord Douglass and asked to telegraph instructions regarding him.

Douglass is vouched for by his bankers here who state that he brought letters of credit and his drafts on a London bank have been honored. On careful inspection it also was found he does not answer the description of the bigamist beyond a slight resemblance. His age is 33 while that of the much wanted man is about 45.

He asserts he was with his family in England from November, 1904, until last May, whereas the crimes of the fake lord were committed mostly last year. A cablegram asking for confirmation of this was directed to Scotland Yard tonight, but an answer was not expected before tomorrow.

The purpose of the visit to this state was to benefit Lady Douglass' health, as they had heard much of the advantages of Maine's summer resorts. They chose a cottage on the shore of Sebago lake, where they might have seclusion and were known there as Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Douglass.

MORE SENSATIONS IN HARTJE CASE

PITTSBURG, Aug. 1—Just before the adjournment of the Hartje divorce trial today Fred Long, a newspaper man, was called to the stand by John Freeman of counsel for Mrs. Hartje. Long testified that Attorney Marron of Hartje's counsel told him in February of a number of letters in the possession of the Hartje lawyers. This was several months before Fisher, Hartje's brother-in-law, said he had told counsel of their existence. This was also some months before Madine's trunk was broken open and from which the letters were alleged to have been taken, which was in June. Attorney Marron became angered at Long's testimony and threatened the newspaper man with violence after court adjourned. Marron is expected to go on the stand tomorrow.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 1.—One of the most sensational incidents in the Hartje divorce case in the five weeks it has been running came today, when Alma Ross, the mysterious "blonde" who kept a rooming house, swore that Augustus Hartje and Josephine Wright frequently met at the Ross woman's house; that the Wright woman brought him there and introduced him and said that the house at which she had been living was too public and too close to the Hartje warehouse. The Ross woman said Hartje paid Josephine Wright's room rent thereafter. When the witness pointed out Hartje in the court room Hartje smiled.

Hartje several days ago swore that he did not know Josphine Wright, and the Wright woman swore that she did not know Hartje.

Detectives H. G. Staubb and John Anderson, who testified that they took the famous "love letters" from Tom Madine's trunk, were arrested at the court house on information sworn out by Madine before Alderman S. M. Kb charging them with entering a bu ing with intent to commit a felony larceny. They were later released bail of $2,000 each, furnished by Attorney Edward Hartje, a brother of Augustus Hartje.
