AYER'S

Hair Vigor

restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired.
By its use light or red hair may be darkened, and the hair thickened, and the scalp restored to its natural condition, and the hair prevented from falling out.

It checks the falling of the hair, and restores a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scalp itching, and other eruptions, and keeps the scalp cool and moist. It is a perfect restorative to the hair, and is recommended for medicinal and other purposes, being metrically pure.

The Week's Close.

This case is causing no little excitement in Ontario. The details connected with it would really be rather amusing were not the charge itself so grave—that of perjury—and one of the incidents so ugly-looking for signs of the parties concerned in the trial. It is the Meredith, leader of the Local Opposition, who has undertaken the defence of the accused. During the campaign lately carried on in West Middlesex, in which Dr. Johnson appeared as the Tory candidate only to receive a sound thrashing, this man Meredith, a leading Tory of the "correct stamp," was employed as an agent by him, and was assigned a district to take in charge, &c., to corrupt. One

The fifth anniversary of Cardinal McCloskey's ordination to the Priesthood was celebrated on the 12th ult. Among the gifts presented to His Grace on the occasion there were many of great value:

Foremost among them was an autograph of the Cardinal's own hand, in Latin, accompanying a superb golden chalice. Another was the design of a cathedral in the style of the late architectural style of the late superintendent of the building of the cathedral. The design showed that the architect was familiar with the polished pillars, deep niches covered with bas-reliefs. The height from base to pinnacles will be fifteen feet. The pulpit will be ready in six months, and the choir stalls, which have been contributed by clergymen of the Archdiocese.

Next the Cardinal was among the gifts of a bust of himself, by Robert Oastling, from laymen of the Archdiocese. The bust is in the shape of a seated figure, and is a fine work of art. It is a reproduction of the Cardinal's features in the greatest of detail. The bust is
