IT LEADS ALL.

No other blood-purifying medicine is made, or has ever been prepared, which so completely meets the wants of physicians and the general public as

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

It leads the list as a truly scientific preparation for all blood diseases. If there is a lurking taint of Scrofula about you,

SCROFULA Ayer's Sarsaparilla will dislodge it and expel it from your system.

For constitutional or scrofulous Catarrh,

CATARRH Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the true remedy. It has cured numberless cases. It will stop the nauseous catarrhal discharges, and remove the sickening odor of the breath, which are indications of scrofulous origin.

ULCEROUS SORES "Hutto, Tex., Sept. 28, 1882. "At the age of two years one of my children was terribly afflicted with ulcerous running sores on its face and neck. At the same time its eyes were swollen, much inflamed, and very sore.

SORE EYES Physicians told us that a powerful alterative medicine must be employed. They united in recommending Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few doses produced a perceptible improvement, which, by an adherence to your directions, was continued to a complete and permanent cure. No evidence has since appeared of the existence of any scrofulous tendencies; and no treatment of any disorder was ever attended by more prompt or effectual results.

Yours truly, B. F. Johnson."

O'Donovan Rossa Wins.

HE GOT HOLD OF THE "SKIRMISHING FUND" AND "THE LAW HELPS THE DILIGENT."

O'Donovan Rossa and his confreres scored a judicial victory yesterday in the Superior Court, a judgment being rendered for the defendants by Judge Truax in the suit of Dennis D. Mulcahy against Rossa, Thomas C. Luby, Thomas F. Bourke, John J. Breslin, John Devoy, William Carrol and James Reynolds, trustees of the so called Irish "skirmishing fund." Mr. Mulcahy complained that Rossa received from people "who desired to advance liberty in Ireland and to honor Irish patriots," during the month of March, 1876, upward of $23,000—the money to be known as the "skirmishing fund" and to be used by Rossa at his sole discretion to advance liberty in Ireland and to keep in active operation the party which favours "Irish liberty."

In February, 1877, Colonel John O'Mahony, who was head centre of an Irish organization, died in this city. The enthusiastic Rossa, as the complaining Mulcahy further avers, in order to "arouse the feelings of patriotism in an ardent people," resolved to have O'Mahony's remains conveyed to Ireland to be interred. In furtherance of this design Rossa requested the plaintiff to accompany the remains to Ireland and look after and superintend the funeral. The plaintiff was to receive $1,000 out of the skirmishing fund for his expenses. He says Rossa did pay him $300, and subsequently paid him $237 more, but has failed to pay him the balance. He says that since the agreement referred to the other defendants named have, at the request of Rossa, assumed control of the fund, but how or in what way he does not know. Claiming that Rossa was responsible and that there was danger that the funds would be carried out of the jurisdiction of the Court, the plaintiff asked that the money due him be declared a lien on the fund, and that the defendants be restrained from transferring the fund until the plaintiff's claim was paid.

Judge Truax, in giving judgment for Rossa and his friends says:—"It is conceded that the fund in question was given to the defendant, O'Donovan Rossa, to be used by him at his sole discretion. It does not appear that said defendant Rossa has violated this provision of the trust. It nowhere appears that anybody else has had a chance to 'use' the fund. The defending this case is an endeavor on the part of said Rossa to prevent anybody other than himself 'using' the fund. The plaintiff has not acquired a lien on the fund. The best way to get a lien on the fund is to get hold of the fund itself. This the plaintiff has failed to do. This O'Donovan Rossa has done, and 'the law helps the diligent.'"—N. Y. Herald.

Several Yarmouth Marine Insurance Companies have lost heavily during the past year. The accounts of the Marine Association to Dec. 31st showed a balance against the company of over $18,000, notwithstanding that a call of $15,000, or $75 per share, had been made during the year; and it was resolved to wind up the affairs of the company. The affairs of the Oriental, of the same place, are also to be wound up.

A scandal in Knox college, Toronto, is exciting some interest in church circles. The case of A. Cuthbertson, a young divinity student, charged with betraying Maggie Jackson, whom he met at a West Presbyterian Church where he conducts services, came before the Toronto presbytery the other day. No decision has yet been given, but it is thought Cuthbertson will be expelled from the college.

Dr. Kimball, an eccentric character of Worcester, who died the other day, was supposed to be a poor man. He was very miserly in his habits, and lived a sort of hermit life in his office. In removing his clothing after death an old, dirty pouch was found strapped about his back, in which was nearly $11,000 in bank bills, while in a purse in his trousers' pocket was another $1,000. About the entire rooms were evidence of the most pinching want, the remains of a bag of crackers well nibbled by mice, showing what had been his fare. A stuffed owl was found to be literally filled with silver half-dollars. In another place hung a monster hornet's nest given the Doctor years ago by a friend. On account of its remarkable size it had been made the subject of many a newspaper article years ago. This, too, was found to be stuffed with money. The aggregate of the old man's wealth is estimated at from $70,000 to $80,000, and yet he almost starved himself to death.

London, Jan. 15.—Another important speech was made by the Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, President of the Board of Trade, this evening at Newcastle. He said that he had no expectation or wish of receiving expressions of gratitude from Ireland for the measures of simple justice which he had advocated. He believed that the majority of Englishmen wished to befriend Ireland, but they were not unnaturally annoyed by the continual insults aimed by Mr. Parnell and his followers at Lord Spencer and Secretary Trevelyan. Mr. Chamberlain regretted that the utterances of Sir. Stafford Northcote had the effect of reviving. Orange activity in the North of Ireland, but he was at a loss to know why the mild eloquence of his friend of the Opposition should have had such potency among Orangemen. In conclusion, Mr. Chamberlain assured his hearers that the Government would give to the Irishmen every privilege accorded to Englishmen, to be exercised by the former under the same terms and restrictions as govern the latter. Speaking upon the Egyptian question, Mr. Chamberlain said that England could not in duty or honour leave Egypt to anarchy, which would be sure to follow the withdrawal of English troops from Egypt proper. He believed that the Government would ultimately succeed in establishing order in Egypt, but the proposition of annexing the country was not to be thought of, for the reason that the possession of Egypt by England would be a permanent source of danger.

Mr. Labouchere relates that when travelling in Germany he inscribed his name in the hotel book as "Henry Labouchere, elector of Middlesex," as he was entitled to do, and was treated in consequence with great distinction and deference. The other day, at Oban, a Scotch laird of great importance in the Highlands wrote, as the custom there, the name of his ancestral home, "Ballachulish and Mrs. Macnab." Mr. Lockwood, the distinguished Queen's Counsel, who happened to come after, wrote, "17 Kensington Gardens and Mrs. Lockwood." There was a fierce row. On one occasion the late Sir Alexander McNab, who was accustomed to register himself as the head of his clan, wrote in a Toronto hotel register, "The McNab." A wag of a traveller, bearing the same name, wrote immediately under "The other McNab."

The number of persons who have emigrated from Canada to the United States for the ten years ending June 30, 1882, is 519,000; from Ireland, 459,000, and from Great Britain 592,000. From this statement it will be seen that the emigration from Canada in proportion to population to the United States is six times as great as that of England and Scotland, and nearly one and a half times as great as that of Ireland. Our emigration to the United States for the last ten years averaged 53,000 a year. During Mr. Mackenzie's regime the emigration was 120,000 which leaves in round numbers 399,000. Deducting 37,569—the emigration for 1872-3—there remains 361,401 as the emigration for the first four years of the present Administration—upwards of 96,000 a year. This is the fulfilment of magnificent promises,—London Advertiser.

Another attempt is to be made to raise the British frigate Hussar from the bottom of East River, at New York. The Hussar was wrecked on November 25, 1780, while on her way to Norwich, Conn. She is supposed to have had on board nearly £1,000,000, which was intended for the payment of the British troops then engaged in an attempt to subjugate the Americans, and also seventy American prisoners, who were chained to the gun deck. The wreck lies 90 feet below the surface, at a spot where the current is very swift.

Teresa Pepe, an Italian woman, and her husband, son and a boarder, who lived with them at New York, were poisoned on Tuesday of last week from eating macaroni. The family are rag pickers and on Monday one of them found a brown paper parcel in the street containing a white substance, which was pronounced to be flour. Macaroni was cooked with part of it. Mrs. Pepe ate more heartily than the others. All were taken sick and medical aid called in. With the exception of Mrs. Pepe all recovered. She, however, died on Thursday evening last. It is learned that the brown paper parcel contained a quantity of rat poison, one of the ingredients in which was arsenic.

During the past year the United States had 2,320 cases of murder and homicide; 362 in the Eastern States, 934 in the Southern States, and 1,024 in the Western States. Ohio obtains the "bad pre-eminence" by a total of 169, Illinois ranks second with 157, Texas follows with 156. In Wisconsin, Iowa and Michigan, where imprisonment for life has been substituted for capital punishment, there were fewer cases of murder reported than in several of the States where hanging is still practised.

Montreal, Jan. 26.—Mgr. Fabre has addressed a mandament to his clergy condemning in severe terms the pamphlet recently issued under the title "Le Scurce en mal en Canada." Those who possess, read or lend the book are all formally censured. The condemned work has been circulated in Quebec by members of the Circle Catholique. It is said the mandament was submitted to Mgr. Smeulders, papal delegate before being promulgated.

An epidemic of typhoid fever has broken out at St. Hyacinthe, necessitating closing for an indefinite period of colleges, schools and convents. Five nuns, acting as nurses in the hospital have died, and many members of the religious communities are very ill. The cause of the epidemic has not been ascertained, but the disease has taken alarming proportions.

The Grand Trunk has given the men in its Point St. Charles workshops notice of a temporary reduction of 10 per cent. wages until the opening of spring. This is necessitated by the block in traffic by the snow, and consequently great falling off in receipts.
