Gentlemen.—I am a Liberal in politics; as of homination, when I shall more fully explain, such my motto ever has been "Fair Play," and give you my opinion of the politicians of the "Equal Rights" and "Equal Privileges" to all present day. Should you elect me you have classes of Her Mejesty's Subjects.

Should I have the honor to be selected as one of your representatives I pledge myself to use of your representatives I pledge myself to use What I have done is yours; what I have to do may best endeavours to advance not only the instrumentation. When I shall have to do to a few doors below his former stand, to no. It is provided that while it is the duty of a time I am yours. Were my best endeavours to advance not only the instrumentation of the province abilities greater my duty would be greater, meaning his feiends for the very liberal patronage bestowed on him since he has compaged by since the last of the first o stowed on aim since he has commenced business here. Having added largely to his stock in first class liquors, proceries, &c., he would solicit a continuance of their former patronage.
