THE BEST SUNDAY SCHOOL PAPER

.....IS THE.....

Young Reaper.

Published monthly by the American Baptist Publication Society.

IT is generally conceded that the "YOUNG REAPER" has no superior in the world. For Baptist Schools it is a safe paper. The circulation has increased greatly beyond our expectations. And we hope to make it better in the future even than it has been in the past.

Samples copies will be sent, on application to any school that may wish to see the paper. The sixth volume begins with the JANUARY number and all subscriptions should commence with the volume.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE.

One copy, per year,.....$0.25

Ten copies, per year,.....10 cents a copy, 1.00

Fifty copies, per year,.....9 cents a copy, 4.50

The REAPER will be furnished at the above rates to all who can receive them by express from the following places:—A. F. GRAVES, 29 Cornhill, and WILLIAM B. JACOBS, 79 Cornhill, Boston.

If the Reapers have to go by mail, the postage is no more from PHILADELPHIA than it is from any nearer point in the Union.

INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION.

1862.

OFFICE OF COMMISSIONERS OF NOVA SCOTIA.

HALIFAX, NOV. 11, 1861.

THE following additions to the list of Premiums, &c., already published, have been made:

The best assortment of furniture, which need not be made of Native Wood, £25 0 0

Best assortment of Flax, viz: (if practicable at this date) not less than 14 lbs of the Stalk and not less than 4 lbs of the Flax, in each of the different stages of preparation; also 1 bushel of Flax Seed, 5 0 0

All articles contributed must be left at the Exhibition Office (the Speaker's Room), Province Building, where J. Outram, Esq., will be in attendance from 10 until 4 p.m., each day. In his absence, Mr. Venables, the Keeper of the Building, residing in the Upper Story, will take charge of all articles.

It is important that all persons intending to send things to the Exhibition should communicate as soon as possible to the Secretary, the nature, number, and size of the articles which they intend to contribute, so that the Commissioners may make the necessary arrangements as to space, &c.

All articles must positively be in possession of the Commissioners by January 8th, or they will be too late to compete for premiums.

Printed lists of premiums, with full instructions to contributors, may be seen at every Post-office and Way-office in the Province, and on application to the County Committees.

BOOKS

BAPTIST SABBATH SCHOOLS.

ANDREW F. GRAVES, 24 Cornhill, Boston, Mass., has a large variety of

THEOLOGICAL

.....AND.....

SABBATH SCHOOL BOOKS.

which are adapted for clergymen and Baptist Sabbath

Schools, including the publications of the American

Baptist Publication Society, America: S. S. Union,

Gould & Lincoln, Sheldon & Co., Henry Hoyt, Mass.

Sabbath School Society, American Tract Society, New

York Tract Society, Methodist Book Concern, Robert

Carter & Bro., and other publishing Societies and booksellers.

Those Books coming from doubtful sources are all examined, and none recommended which are not

adapted to BAPTIST SABBATH SCHOOLS.

Having been engaged for many years in selecting libraries for Sabbath Schools, I am confident I can give good satisfaction.

All orders will be thankfully received, and such a selection of books sent as is deemed best, giving the purchase the privilege of exchanging any not desired. Bundles can be sent by any packet or steamer from Boston.

Question Books, Reward Cards, Music Books, &c., &c., of every kind constantly on hand.

Pastors, Superintendents, and Teachers are specially invited to send their orders direct to me, as it will save them much trouble in selecting from several places. Catalogues forwarded if desired.

VALUABLE

Question Books.

SABBATH SCHOOL STUDIES ON THE LIFE OF CHRIST,

First and Second Grade, by Rev. W. S. McKenzie.—

Price 10 Cents each.

The object of the Author in preparing these Books

was to have a book where his whole Sabbath School could have the same subject before them. He therefore prepared two sets of Questions, one for the smaller portion of the School, and one for the older. After using them in his own School and proving them a perfect success, he corrected them, and now they are presented to the public.

The subject is also continued in a second volume making a complete History of Christ.

The Watchman and Reflector says, in announcing the work:

"The books are original in their theme and design;

their subject being the Biography of Christ, presented in an attractive, connected chronological history. The design is to have the same subject studied by the whole School at the same time. Hence, there are two books, of the first and second grade containing the same number of lessons. Each lesson in each book is on precisely the same portion of scripture; so that scholars in the primary department are going over the same ground as the advanced classes. There are evident advantages in having the whole School studying the same topic and portion of scripture.

"With this, teacher's meetings will offer inducements

for the attendance of all the teachers; and when the Superintendent questions the School on the lesson, the youngest as well as the oldest feel an interest in the exercise; and also, when at home the lesson is studied,

the young as well as the old in the family will be upon the same theme. The conception of the author is a happy one,

and his design carried out must be highly acceptable."

From Prof. H. B. Hackett, of Newton Institution.—

I have examined some of the pages of Rev. Mr. McKenzie's Question Books on the Life of the Saviour. I regard the plan of the work (which differs quite materially from that of any similar work) as excellent, the questions as eminently judicious and well suited to interest and instruct the learner. It cannot fail to prove a welcome and useful auxiliary to the cause of Sabbath School instruction."

I have also lately issued the COMPREHENSIVE QUESTION

BOOK, on Prominent Biblical events, from the Creation to the End of the World, by Rev. J. B. Bannard, author of the Topical Question Book, Infant Series, &c.—Price 10 Cents.

The Sabbath School Gems,

By Rev. J. M. GRAVES.

Price in paper cover, $1.00 per dozen; cloth, $1.75.

This book contains more than 200 hymns with appropriate music on the same page. The selection of hymns is believed the
